

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

ON THE SOUTHERN BOUNDARY.

June 17th, 1890.

Mr. Besserman is putting a new roof on, and otherwise repairing the Hayes barn.

Mr. G. R. Ward is spending a few days in Portland this week.

E. J. Willoughby will attend court at Albany next week in the capacity of jury man.

Guy Allingham, of Metates, Crook Co. spent Sunday with relatives here, having recently crossed the mountains, via the Santiam route.

The new ferry between here and Junction is now in running order.

A runaway team caused quite a serious accident here, one day last week, by throwing the driver, a German, under the master-wheel and dragging him quite a distance. Strange to say no bones were broken. Dr. Shelton was called to dress the bruises and the man is now rapidly recovering.

Almost the entire population of this neighborhood went to Coaling Sunday to see the excursionists from Silverton and other points on the Narrow Gauge come in. All seem to have enjoyed the day even if there was no program prepared for the occasion.

Miss Ellen White will close her term of school in District No. 63 this week.

This section of country is enjoying a fine rain to-day.

Miss Ella Montgomery spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Irving.

J. H. and S. M. Bramwell and family were visiting friends and relatives here the first of the week.
