THE CENSUS.—Any one, either in the city or country, who has been missed by the enumerators will confer a favor by giving their names at the Democrat's office. As it is the duty of the enumerators to call at every place it can easily be ascertained how many have been missed, if any. The probability is that a census in this county has been generally thoroughly taken.

AN IMMENSE CROP.—Mr A. J. Bridgefar says he has searched his orchard thoroughly without finding any codlin apples, and that this is the general result. It speaks for the biggest apple crop in the history of the valley, and this in olden days, will be entitled to the name of "the land of big red apples."

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

The Man About Town has been reading in a Salem paper some very aggressive attacks, well filled with spice and sneering snuff, on the Oregonian. He is reminded of the famous attacks made by the Albany Bulletin on that paper several years ago, when the vocabulary was exhausted. Since then the Oregonian has enlarged, and we look for more improvements hereafter.

Please put it in the paper that there is another new conductor on the street car line, sends a man to the Man About Town. This reminds us that the day will probably come when such common things as the change of administrations will hardly be noticed in the papers.

In warm an old base ball player up to see a game between the youngsters of today, and any of them would say the boys ought to have more sense than to make such a game as this; but if the old ones were to face the "kids" they would probably get left. The Man About Town suggests a game between men over thirty and boys under twenty, and will wager a lead pencil on the boys. Taking his own experience he can remember that his brilliant ball playing was during the boy period, when a run around the base didn't cause a puff, while now it works up a regular sea breeze.

The Man About Town is informed that some confidence chap named Blaine, Anacortes, Detroit and Fair Haven have been captured, and will be punished according to their deserts, which is good news.

Two new comers pronounced the Willamette valley the finest country in the world, while standing at the corner of First and Ferry Streets. Once in awhile the M. A. T. hears a man growl; but the general verdict is a favorable one.

"He is well paid who is well satisfied," is an old saying that speaks out in many directions.

The new Oregon Bank Building is now the center of attraction, and many curious eyes watch the men as they lay the stones in place. An interested party was staggered by being asked if they were going to leave the rough surface or how the stones down after being put in position. It is to be hoped no lions heads lapping their tongues out at the public, like saucy school children, be allowed on the front, as is the case on one public building.

"I wonder if there is any one big enough of a fool to buy those things," said a young man in front of the street auctioneer's stand with the ventriloquist attachment; and then the father of the young man stepped up and planked down his 25 cents, causing a ripple of laughter around the aforesaid y. m.

And yet the purchaser got considerable for little: four pencils, 20 sheets of writing paper, a bunch of envelopes, a pen holder, two indestructible pens, and a note book, or four combs, including one that stopped at all way stations and never missed a passenger, for the small sum of 25 cents.

A SAMPLE.—A good illustration of the hoodlumistic tendency of sparring matches generally occurred at Butte, Mon., a few days ago, in the Dempsey exhibition. Campbell and Kessler were sparring when they got mad, threw off their gloves, and, says a Butte paper, in a twinkling the men were engaged in a desperate rough and tumble fight, which continued with varying fortune to the contestants until separated by the police. During the struggle a stove was knocked over and fell through a muslin partition into the audience room. The stove pipe came down upon the fighters, the side of the dressing room caved in and the house was in danger of being fired by the overturning of a large oil lamp standing on a front shelf. Fortunately some one removed the lamp, but the wreck of the house from other sources continued until the police placed both parties under arrest. All those arrested were heavily fined.

JEFFERSON.—Mrs Annie Ridenour and daughter, Mrs Kittie Syfers, of Albany, are visiting with Mrs A B Huddleson this week.

E N Thomas and son, J A Thomas, left Wednesday morning on an extended trip east. They will stop first in Iowa, then from there to Ohio, and home by the way of Texas. Mr Thomas came to this country thirty-seven years ago and has never been back to the old home since.

A few of the citizens of Jefferson were very highly entertained Wednesday evening by the McKanlass "gang." The only object they seemed to have, is to extol the merits of a "kid koon" that is with them, and it seems to be the general opinion that this was about "thinnest thing" that ever struck Jefferson.—Review.

A BIG FREIGHT BILL.—A car-load of as fine a lot of furniture as has ever been seen in Albany, has been received by Fortnallier & Irving. It consists of about twenty varieties of elegant center tables, in 18th century and other finish; handsome bedroom sets, stands, tables, etc. People wanting the latest and prettiest in the furniture line should call at once and see these goods. Though the freight bill was large the prices will be as reasonable as possible.

TWO CAR LOADS.—Price & Robson have just received two car loads of wagons and buggies, light and heavy, and will sell them at remarkably low prices, considering the splendid quality of the wagons.

SAW FILING ETC.—Mr Joseph R Dzel, a carpenter from San Francisco, has located in the C-Stock Block, on Broadbald street and is prepared to file saws, sharpen razors, scissors, etc., in a first-class manner.

CONSIDER THIS.—By calling at Jas F Powell's you will see a large and fine stock of vegetables and fruits just received by steamer, consisting of fresh oranges, lemons, cabbage, cauliflower, onions, celery, ripe cherries, and choice fruits of all kinds.

Doctor Leonard sold his fruit farm to Isaac Stone for $1000, making a profit of about $400 in eight months. The price of fruit farms is on the raise.

Mr L E Blain was very sly in his recent visit to this place. But it is reported that he was looking after corner lots, probably with the intention of moving his clothing store nearer to his customers. Come again Mr E.

The late rain has been of great benefit to the farmers.

Mr John White and his grandson Peter entertained us with some very fine music. Mr W, for a man 82 years old, handles the violin in good shape, and Peter, for a boy of 6 years, can't be beat on the organ.

Dr Galley, of Missouri, is looking for a location, will locate at Shedd or Oakville. LITTLE ROSE BLDG.

The Minto trail, which was destroyed in many places by the Oregon Pacific, is now undergoing repairs, and will soon be in readiness for travel again. Contractor St Clair has about twenty men here now rushing the work.

Sore Shoulder Cured

Charles A Stiles, 180 Carroll St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have been a clerk in the Continental Hotel, corner Exchange and Michigan streets, for some years, and first used Alcock's Porous Plasters three years ago for a sore shoulder. I fell down stairs and got a terrible wrench and bruise. For several weeks I suffered acute pain in the shoulder joint and, getting no relief, or only temporary, from numerous liniments, I put on an Alcock's Porous plaster; kept it on for two or three weeks and my shoulder was well. They also cured me in six weeks of a most obstinate form of dyspepsia."

MILLERS, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, September 25, 1889. MR. Z. T. WRIGHT, Portland, Oregon. Dear Sir: In reference to your inquiry as to how I liked my Advance Thresher, purchased of you this year, will say the Advance does more and better work than any other machine I ever saw, and I have seen all that are represented in Oregon.

It threshes faster, cleans the grain better, runs lighter and saves the grain better from the straw, than any other machine, and seems to be strong and durable. I am ready at any time to go into a trial with any other machine [except the Advance] and thresh for from $100 to $200. They are the best in the market without doubt. If you desire you can refer to me at any and all times. [signed] I. D. MILLER.
