

June 24th 1890.

Mr E J Willoughby treated his neighbors to an old fashioned barn raising on Friday of last week.

It is J D Kennedy, of St Paul, is spending a few weeks in this neighborhood.

Mrs M Taylor and children were visiting at Lawson from Saturday until Monday.

Mr and Mrs C T Allingham, of Lake creek, and Miss Dollie Allingham, of Metotes were visiting in this vicinity last Sunday.

A few of the Boundaryites attended the Commencement exercises at the State University last Thursday.

For one hundred years the states have had control both of their local and congressional elections. They may not have wisely exercised their power, but to break down the barriers of the states at the very time they are radically improving their election laws and subordinate their own officials to federal agents is an innovation unheard of until now and bearing the seeds of far-reaching consequences.

T. Thomas Fortune, the Afro-American editor in New York, was ejected from a saloon and locked up in the station house the other day because he insisted on his right to a schooner of beer which the bar-keeper declined to recognize on the ground that this was a white man's bar.

Sore Shoulder Cured

Charles A Stiles, 180 Carroll St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have been a clerk in the Continental Hotel, corner Exchange and Michigan streets, for some years, and first used Alcock's Porous Plasters three years ago for a sore shoulder. I fell down stairs and got a terrible wrench and bruise. For several weeks I suffered acute pain in the shoulder joint and, getting no relief, or only temporary, from numerous liniments, I put on an Alcock's Porous plaster; kept it on for two or three weeks and my shoulder was well. They also cured me in six weeks of a most obstinate form of dyspepsia."

They just received a large invoice of lace trains, ranging in price from one to nine dollars a pair, scrim, curtain nets, etc. Also a line of certain robes and furniture covering.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

WARM WEATHER.—A fine stock of refrigerators and ice cream freezers may be seen at Stewart & Sox's. Nothing like them for the house.
