

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

IT WAS NO GOOD.

TANGENT, Or., June 25th, 1890.
"How'd do, Bill, its a long time since I have seen you. Well, how do you get along."

"Bad enough at the best. I guess I am on the wrong road."
"Well, what road are you on any how, on the downward road. What is the name of the road you are traveling on, and who are the officers and what and where are the stations?"

"Oh, the officers are numerous. Their name is saloon, and the stations are kept by the officers all along the road and ticks can be had at any of the stations and very cheap, as all of the officers are ticket agents."

"Well, how long have you been on this road and where does it terminate, and is it easy going?"

"Oh, I have been on it quite a while. It terminates in hell; it was quite easy going at first, but, oh, it is very rough now, as my mother told me it would be, although seemingly smart at first. Oh, I had taken my mother's advice I might have been on another and better road, one that is higher and leads to Heaven and happiness. But here I am in the middle of life nothing but a wreck of humanity."

"Why don't you turn back and get on the other road?"

"Oh, I can't, I have tried; I have sworn off time and again, like Rip Van Winkle, but no good."

I have just received a large invoice of lace curtains, ranging in price from one to five dollars a pair, and, in fact, all the latest styles and patterns of lace curtains, and a line of curtain poles and furniture covering.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Wall Paper.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

WARM WEATHER.—A fine stock of refrigerators and ice cream freezers may be seen at Stewart & Sox's. Nothing like them for the house.
