RESULTS

Talking about mining centers, just keep your eyes on Albany.

Albany's police force did good and efficient work circus day. There are no mosquitoes on them.

A capital city exchange puts its foot in it by saying "before you kick, be sure there is something to kick at."

There is nothing like keeping up our course and showing a bold front in this world. The Salem Journal says: "Genius, or an extreme opinion is the best small city in Oregon."

It is an interesting fact that the men who took the recent census were all Republicans, without an exception, and yet the party papers are the loudest in declaring it a grand landslide election.

A Chickamauga county school, in its reports positively that women in "more superior form" than men. And the men are now invited to come up and that they use the "most inferior" specimens in existence.

Several of our exchanges are making gentle hints to our readers not to put the sign "for sale" on houses which are merely listed. They say it is not a good advertisement for the town. In short it simply lets people know what is what.

One of the Zoolo Indians, recently imported from South Africa, in the circus, was seen by an Albany man to address a letter in a fair hand to a person in Kentucky, and he had to remark that he must hurry up and get his letter home.

If the circus would get a more respectable name it should do away with the shell and other swindlers following it up, and Robinson is said to be trying to do that, having had a falling out with some of the men; and, yet, it is exceedingly interesting to see men make fools of themselves by biting at these snags.

After a Democrat man had handed his reserve seat ticket to the man at the entrance of the seats a circus lady with him was heard to remark: "Those are the fellows who burn us up after we leave the city..."

The Telephone-Register, of McMinnville, says the Electric Call Co's advertising scheme, being worked by a young man, is a swindle. As he has not reached Albany it is possible this is in time to avert any one's being taken in, though, really, we sometimes think part of our citizens had rather be swindled than not.

The merry-go-round, recently in the city, is now at Roseburg, and the woman with the shooting gallery, recently there, is approaching Albany, and so the world's kaleidoscope keeps moving.

A J. Wagner has leased the Chemekete hotel at Salem and Mr. Moore will retire. As usual at the different of each new administration it will be now the way it ought to be.

It is astonishing to a person unacquainted with Matthews & Washburn how they sell such a large number of stoves and ranges, but as inspection of their immense stock soon convinces anyone that their store is the place to go when needing anything in their line.

The Tacoma Ledger man must have been reading the Eugene papers. He says: Portland seems bound to be a more populous city than Tacoma, even if she has to annex the entire state of Oregon to accomplish the noble ambition. We're afraid that even this device will prove unavailing.

At 12 o'clock last night an alarm of fire called the department to the east end of Second Street, where an old house, practically no value, belonging to Capt. E. J. Lanning, was found completely in flames, making big blaze. Notwithstanding the long run and the roadway gotten the flames were extinguished, two streams doing very active and effective work. How it was set on fire is merely a matter of speculation; but it was probably a circus day effect.
