Our Yagtna Bay Letter.

BALTIMORE CAMP, NEWPORT, ON, AUG 5, 1896.

On Sabbath morning we went to Sabbath school and church. I can tell you I did not feel very much like we had dressed in our Sunday clothes or blacked our shoes. I thought we would have looked better had we carried our shoes and stockings under our arms till we got to the meeting house, and then sat down on a log and put them on, as the people used to do in primitive days. The wind blowing in the rain with so much fury makes it quite hard to choose.

Yesterday we went over to New-creek again, took our dinner on the beach, made for and collected some shells we had seen at our last visit. After dinner we went to the beach and collected some shells. I must confess they were not all of them perfect. I must say they were not all of them perfect. I must say they were not all of them perfect.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

(D. R. N. Blackburn, Judge; R. W. Coover and Wm. Bingham, Commissioners.)

The Court met this morning, and spent almost the entire day arguing motions, demurrers, etc., to a petition of the Sanborn Lumbering Co., for the establishment of a logging road.

The petition was finally dismissed. At the time of going to press other business had been transacted, and only a few bills remained to be disposed of before adjournment.

Blind in Tennesse.—Last week, while Miss Stafford, a school teacher on Blind street, was going from her school in the evening, she found that one of Mr. Higley's children, eight months old, had had an index finger cut off by her brother, says the Astorian.

The mother was unable to do anything for her child, so Miss Stafford secured the piece of finger that had been cut off, and carried the child to a neighbor's where she could get help and necessary materials.

She then sewed the piece of finger around, bound it up in its proper place with splints. At last moments the finger seems to be doing well.

It was not long ago that this young lady secured one of her pupils from the street, and going to his residence in the slough.

These women are a nice and safe species for all kinds of female troubles and will remove all obstructions to the monthly periods, no matter what the cause.

FIGHTING HARVESTERS.—The row at Adams Sunday was the result of a rivalry between two harvesting crews who came to town and filled up on liquor courage.

It is said that one combatant, Bill Day, whipped one man in the morning by way of a prelude, and continued the performance later in the day by knocking down three more who attacked him afterward "doing up" another as a grand finale.

Another visit from the harvesters and more hectic encounters are expected next Sunday, as there is now bad blood between the two crews.—Pendleton E. O.
