

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

JEFFERSON.—The wagon bridge at Jefferson is almost ready for the timbers for the long span.
Born, to the wife of J. A. Haddison, Aug. 21st, an eight pound girl.
Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. U. G. Holt and Miss Janey N. Haddison, at this place. The event occurs next Tuesday.

Between six and seven thousand barrels of wheat have been received at the Jefferson warehouse in the last season.

A D. Robinson, while at work on his new house last Tuesday, met with quite a serious accident in which his entire right leg was crushed by a nail which he was driving, flying to and striking him in the eye.—Jefferson Review

Convalescing Patients.—The new girls and boys are all well and thriving, and are superior quality of food.

A daily freight train is now running from the West Coast from Portland to Klamath Falls, necessitated by increasing business.

Chris Clark, the popular stage comedian and superintendent of the Oregon State Fair, is again a resident of Albany, in headquarters having been removed from Albany to this city.

Miss Nettie Spencer of this city, with a party of twenty-two persons from Portland, started on an excursion to the summit of Mt. Hood on August 9th, but only seven of them reached the summit. Miss Spencer numbering among the successful ones.

Prof. Z. T. Hawks of Iowa, who was chosen as principal of our public school, has declined the offer, on account of a former engagement. Prof. H. W. McKee, a gentleman well recommended for the position and from the same state, has been selected in the place of the first-named and will soon arrive in our midst.—Leader.

1899 Fall and Winter Announcement 1899

We beg to inform that the two large shipments of woollens consigned to us, and recently purchased of Boston and New York houses, will arrive in the course of a day or two. These goods should have been delivered Aug. 1st, but owing to the recent strike of the New York Central & Hudson River R.R., we were unable to receive them sooner and regret exceedingly the disappointment to our customers.

The stock comprises the latest foreign and domestic designs, and required, no little pains to meet the wants of the public as we fully anticipate to please the same. We will announce the arrival of these goods and, trust an early inspection.

Respectfully,
ZACHES & SON,
Merchant Tailors, drapers and fine trade designers. Opposite post office.
