

BROWNSVILLE.

August 8, 1890.

Since we began the lucrative business of corresponding for your valuable paper we have subsisted to a greater or less extent on a diet of wind, and as we were out on last Saturday morning at an early hour, in quest of our morning meal, we saw Mr Barney Cushman coming to town with disheveled hair, and, being of a timid turn of mind we secluded ourselves until he could pass us, when we followed to see what was the matter with the young man, and learned that on the night before a child had been born unto his wife, and that mother and daughter were doing well, and Barney would no doubt recover. We thought this a good item, and having enough of pure air, we returned to our writing.

Dick Larkel has returned to this place and will open his tailor shop again.

The Woolen Mill Co have ordered a new 10 horse wheel to run their electric light machinery with, so there will be less irregularity about the lights than if run by the main wheel.

The wife, sons and their wives, of J M Waters are going to Seattle soon where Mr Waters now is. They have large interests there in the shape of a $20,000 bonus. Their mills will soon be ready for business.

Threshing is done and we have had an average yield and prices are tolerably good. Teams have been pouring into town for a month with the golden grain and the farmer is happy.

Hop picking is the order of the day and they are good with a good price. Truly we should be a happy and contented people in this land of plenty.

O P Coshow, R N Thompson, and R H Grover were appointed a committee to correspond relative to securing a pastor for the Baptist church at this place.

John Cushman, who is engaged in gathering and hauling old iron to your city, while breaking a knuckle from a tumbling shaft of iron flew and struck him on the shin shattering the bone. He was brought home here today.

The meetings at the Baptist church have closed for the present.

OAKVILLE.

Mr David Irvine, an old settler of this county, died at the residence of his son, S G Irvine, at Newport, on the 5th inst. Mr Irvine was one of the first settlers of this county; was a member of the United Presbyterian church of this place, and will be buried in the cemetery here.

The presbytery of the U P church will meet here the second week in October.

Mr H M Stone and family will move back on their fruit farm next week. Mr Stone has been away all summer building bridges. He has the best prune orchard in this part of the county.

Rev A M Acherson preached yesterday from the 33d Psalm, 1st verse, "The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God." There were a great many vacant seats. Some have gone east on a visit, while some are in the hop yards. How long will it take the Christian people to put down the liquor traffic, if they help to make the beer? Is the hop yard a fit place for a Christian on the Sabbath day? Can a man pray to God to do away with all evil, when he is helping along the greatest evil of the age? And, I will say further, that the money used in the hop picking is the price of blood, the price of human souls; and again, a majority of the hop pickers are opposed to the religion of Christ, and are constantly taking his name in vain. Is this fit company for a Christian? Read 2nd Cor. 6th, 14th to 16th verses.

The agent for the pinless clothes line was here last week. We cheerfully recommend the line; it is a very useful article and every family should have one. Miss Jean McDaniel is agent.
