Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the great alterative and tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of kidneys, liver or stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store.

TO MAKE A HOME OUT OF A HOUSEHOLD

Emerson says that the best ornaments of a house are the friends who frequent it, but next to these, certainly, are its books and periodicals. The best decoration in the world is the decoration of an abundance of reading matter, and an abundance that shall also be selected and choice in its quality. It is strange, when one comes to think of it, that a woman will think nothing of buying $50 worth of dry goods, while she will wait three months to read an important book—waiting to get it at a circulating library rather than pay $1.50 for it and have it in the freshness of the interest it creates. Even in intelligent families this plan of borrowing books from a neighbor, or waiting indefinitely to get them from the library, is seen when in all other lines of expenditure the outlay is a generous one. There is no inspiration in the home where everything is relegated to the merely esthetic plane; where all sorts and conditions of strange jugs and bowls and ginger jars, with still stranger decorations, are seen, and where everything is smothered in lace and tied up in ribbons, nor is there, to the cultivated eye, any beauty either, in this scheme of decorative arrangement.

There was a wide and animated discussion a few years ago, regarding the best books in the world, and every man and woman of literary prominence was appealed to for an individual list. While these lists varied, there were always a few works, as the Bible and Shakespeare, which, must, of necessity, appear in each one, and as a fairly representative example of the permanent literature of the world these lists were most interesting. They establish one most important truth: that a working library, a living library, so to speak, need not be numerically large. A hundred well selected books offer to the home a continual fountain of refreshment and of higher thought. Such a collection, well selected, is, of itself, enough to place life on a higher plane, and to predetermine the thought of the household to finer lines of interest.

EASTON, Pa., Sept. 11.—There has been much complaint recently of hazing at the Lafayette college. Two young freshmen learned yesterday that they were to be visited. They armed themselves with baseball bats and warned the sophomores to keep away. The hazers, however, broke in their door to gain an entrance. The first to enter the room, Juan Medina, a student from Honduras, was felled with a blow from the bat, which fractured his skull. Another sophomore was hit, but was not seriously hurt. Medina is not expected to live.

Just Received for the Fall and Winter

To tell the truth, the stock of suitings in the tailoring department of L. E. Blain, is a large one, and entirely new. It has just been received for the fall and winter trade, the remnants of light weights having been placed aside. The new stock embraces a variety of designs in imported and domestic goods that is a credit to the city. The present styles are favored for a man to dress well, which is what the progressive citizen does. Mr. E. A. Schiller, who is superintendent of this department, is an expert in the business, and a suit made under him is guaranteed a perfect fit, which is always guaranteed. The progress being made in tailoring is well exemplified in the manner in which Mr. Schiller conducts this department, and a larger stock and bigger variety of goods is being carried for customers to select from than ever before.

The Road to Wealth

Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.

exerts a specific influence over the liver, excites its healthy action, removes its chronic engorgements, and resolves its secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.

HE MARCHED WITH SHEERMAN TO THE SEA;

Trudged all the way on foot, over mountain and through marsh, carrying knapsack and gun, slung on brush, he got out of the mud, caught cold, from the effects of which his friends thought he would never recover. Languishing with slow consumption for many years, he saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised in a country newspaper, and he determined to try it. A few bottles worked a change; six months continued use cured him. Always too independent to ask his country for a pension, he now says he needs none. He helped save his country, he saved himself! Consumption is lung-scrouge. For scrofula, in all its myriad forms, the "Discovery" is an unequalled remedy. It cleanses the system of all blood-taints from whatever cause arising, and cures all skin and scalp diseases, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, and kindred ailments. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be refunded. Sold by druggists.
