

THE MORMON IN POLITICS.

Judge Goodwin has been for years waging an open warfare against the Mormons. To him more than to any one else are gentiles indebted for the foothold they have secured in Utah. His ready pen has exposed Mormon villainy time and time again. He has never swerved, never faltered in performing the duty he allotted to himself, the duty of exposing Mormon rascality, the duty of hunting and hounding to death cowardly Mormon assassins, making it safe for citizens of the United States to feel as safe in Utah while engaged in the pursuit of lawful enterprises as they would be elsewhere; and in all this he has asked for no reward, sought no emoluments, only asking the good will and cooperation of his fellow-men opposed to murder, rapine, lust and bloodshed. The paper he has edited with so distinguished ability has been and is now consistently republican, but he dares rebuke his party for practices he cannot countenance, and republican papers who are fond of quoting the judge have not a word to say about his recent scoring of Wyoming republicans. He accused them of having entered into an offensive alliance with the Mormons in order to carry the state. The Cheyenne Sun denied the accusation made by the Tribune.

The Tribune in reply says: "Do you not know that every Mormon voted in Wyoming for the legislative ticket? And do you not know just as well that when the legislature meets it is expected that every member elected on the republican ticket will vote for Judge Carey? Of course Judge Carey can say that he has no bargain with the saints; so can the Sun. But many a man has pleaded not guilty in court and still has been convicted on purely circumstantial evidence, it being so plain and conclusive that no jury could come to any other conclusion. Now, put this and this and this together, and let us see. Judge Carey, when presenting the constitution of Wyoming, refused to have anything like a test oath included. He fought Mr Dubois on the same proposition, and did what he could to defeat the admission of Idaho. In the national convention he did not want a word said about Mormonism or polygamy. Now, every Mormon in Wyoming has voted for a certain legislative ticket. It is expected that that legislature, when it convenes, will elect Judge Carey a senator of the United States of Wyoming. When all that is done does not the Sun expect Judge Carey in congress will be the fast friend of the saints; that he will oppose all legislation hostile to them, and support all legislation in their favor? And if it is all true up to date, and the arrangement is such that it will have to continue in the same channels with Judge Carey, was it too harsh for the Tribune to say the he would go to the senate of the United States with a Mormon collar around his neck? We take it by the tone of the Sun that it itself sees nothing very serious in the Mormon question, because it refers to all those who have been fighting what is illegal and uncivilized in the creed as out and out fanatics. If the Sun knew half as much about Mormonism as some of the rest of us, it would not take that view of the case. If Wyoming had a few rich agricultural valleys that could be peopled by saints, three elections would not pass until it would be very much more frenzied fanatic than any who are in Utah."

What is true of Wyoming is also true of Idaho. The republicans carried that state by the same offensive alliance as was formed in Wyoming, and to attract attention from that transaction are claiming democrats, not republicans, are the allies of this hated organization, an organization opposed to all free institutions, an organization whose members vote as they are told to vote, and who will not vote at all unless instructed from Salt Lake. The Mormon element is an element which should be eliminated from American politics. Republicans making use of these men who obey nothing but priestly mandate is proof that that party is not to be trusted. Power is sometimes purchased at too dear a price. The liberty vouchsafed by the constitution of the United States was not intended for persons who set at defiance our laws and who acknowledge no head of government except the head of the Mormon church.—Missoula Gazette.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet saved. From a letter written by Mr. Ada E. Head of Graston, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Fosby & Mason's drug store, regular size, 50c and $1.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Secretary Hester of the New Orleans cotton exchange has issued an official report covering the first three weeks of the new cotton season. The report shows a decided increase in all movements compared with last year, the amount brought into sight being over 125,000 bales more than during the same period last season. Of this increase 51,000 bales has occurred during the last week. The statement shows receipts at all United States ports since Sept 1 of 171,032 bales, against 256,906 up to this date last year. Overland, across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac Rivers to Northern mills in Canada, 9941, against 7774 last year. Interior stocks in excess of those held at the close of the commercial year, 25,977, against 20,675. Southern mills taking 30,116, against 29,808, making the total amount of new crop brought into sight thus far 440,058, against 315,163. Exports have been 149,022, against 96,245 last year, an increase of 5277 bales. The total taking of American mills North and South thus far for the season have been 104,750 against 83,214 last season. These include 74,642 by Northern spinners, against 53,496 since the close of the last commercial year. Stocks at American ports and twenty nine leading Southern interior markets have increased 186,286 against 135,700 bales during the same time last year, and are now 58,662 bales larger than they were at this date last season. Including stocks left over at ports and interior towns from last crop and the number of bales brought into sight thus far of the new crop, the supply to date is 511,991, against 378,626 for the period last year.

BETTER THAN GOVERNMENT BONDS.—The ordinary living expense of a family of five persons, in the customary manner of American people, amounts to not less than $1500 per year. It would require nearly $20,000 in Government Bonds to produce this income. Ten acres of land in the Willamette valley planted to prunes, with an ordinary crop at ordinary prices will net more than $1500, after paying for all labor placed thereon. You can buy this land of The Oregon Land Company of Salem, in tracts of ten acres or more at from $55 to $75 per acre. Address The Oregon Land Company, Salem, Oregon.
