LOCAL RECORD.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—History and romance contain many incidents of the arrival of pardons and reprieves just in time to save some poor wretches life; but it was left for the Lebanon Express to perpetrate the following: A few days ago a Scotch collie dog came into our town an entire stranger, having no master nor friends, and as a natural consequence the animal found its way into the pound. As no claimant appeared, the marshal declared she must die, fixing the day of execution on Tuesday. A few hours before the execution was to take place The Brownsville Times arrived, in which a reward of $2 was offered by B F Childs of Brownsville for the recovery of a dog whose description answered exactly to the condemned cur in the pound. Thus a valuable dog was returned to its master.

LOOKS WELL.—A couple mining experts, one from Butte, the other from Portland, were in the city and examined some of the ore from the Albany mines. They pronounced it extra. One of them mined for years in Central America and the other has had charge of some Montana mines near Butte; hence their opinions amount to something. There is an increasing belief that we are on the eve of a big mining excitement.

THE RIVER AT THIS CITY is only seven inches above low water mark, not enough yet to bring river steamers up the river; though they could come with ease if the government would do its duty and give us an open river. It wouldn't take very much to pare down a few bars so that travel could be carried on even when the river is down to low water mark. It would mean several cents a hundred to shippers. Give us a better river.

FELL BACKWARDS.—Wednesday C. B. Watson on a load of hay, pulling the fork back from his trip into the barn, on his farm near Shedd, when one of the ropes broke, and he fell backwards off the load, partially turning a somersault, and striking on his forehead on a rock, bruising his face, and, he thinks, coming very close to breaking his neck.

HOME WORK.—A DEMOCRAT man noticed a very fine piece of woodwork at the shop of Richards & Phillips, which confers great credit on the ingenuity of the firm. It is the fire place furniture for the new residence of Mr. H. H. Hewitt, composed of oak, mahogany and other material, and will be a very attractive piece of work.

AN EMBALMER.—Mr. Wm. Fortmiller, of Fortmiller & Irving, has returned from Portland, where he spent a week attending lectures, and making a study of the subject of arterial embalming. He also secured new apparatus, and the firm are now prepared to do scientific embalming as well as can be done anywhere on the coast.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The Pacific Express, of Portland, the prohibition paper has been discontinued and its place filled by the Northwest Reform Journal with J. H. Morris and T. H. McGill editors and proprietors. T. H. McGill has been editor and proprietor of the Station Sun which will likely be discontinued.

THE DUDE GONE.—Advertising do wonders. It has most effectually banished the dude from the United States. It has also helped to build up a live grocery business for Conn & Henderson, of this city, where high prices are unknown. They keep a fine line of groceries, produce, etc., and doing their own work, sell at bottom prices, as can be easily learned by pricing their goods.

NOVELTIES IN WASH FABRIC.—I have just received direct from Chicago novelties in wash dress goods. The new thing for fall and winter wear. I am receiving the largest line of staple and fancy dress goods ever brought to this market. Those needing their fall and winter supplies will do well to give me a call.

JUST RECEIVED.—Smoked chinook salmon, cranberries, cauliflower, celery, sweet potatoes, oranges, bananas, grapes, pears, comb honey, strained honey, chipped beef, pigs feet. The finest line of groceries in the city. Try our teas and coffees. Mueller & Garrett, the leading grocers.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.—I make a specialty of keeping a full line of black silks, Silk Warp Henriettes, Wool Henriettes, and all the late novelties in black dress goods, and trimmings.

NEW CARPETS.—new carpets, new carpets and new styles, latest patterns, the best in the market, just received at A. B. McIlwain's. The stock is large and choice, selected for this market, and people wanting the best carpets at the lowest prices should call and inspect his splendid stock. It was bought low and will be sold low.

JACKETS AND WRAPS.—I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of ladies' misses and childrens jackets and wraps which are of the latest style and good value, and as cheap as standard goods can be bought. I have on hand a lot of ladies' newmarkets carried over from last year, which I am selling at cost to close them out to make room for new arrivals.

KID GLOVES I HANDLE.—Our Own, a genuine kid glove, warranted at $1.50 per pair. The celebrated P. Centemeri at $1.60 per pair. The Mathers in button and string fastenings at $1.75 per pair. The genuine Foster hook at $2.00 per pair. Also Musquitair, Sued and Grace finish.

A KEENE ITEM.—Thos W Keene and troupe arrived in Albany this morning direct from Sacramento, and went to Corvallis, where they play to-night. Tomorrow night Albany will be favored with their presence. The San Jose Times says: "The California Theater was well filled with a fashionable audience last evening to see Thomas W Keene, the eminent tragedian, in his celebrated role of 'King Richard III.' The character of the hunchbacked tyrant was portrayed in a strong and powerful manner, and held breathless interest from the first moment of his limping on the stage, in his red suit, till he met his retributive death by Richmond's sword. Mr Keene's genius shines brightest in the soliloquies; but his well-defined diabolical hypocrisy and relentless planning and murdering of all the lives that stand between him and the throne, his fearfully pitiless and cruel nature, unilluminated by a single redeeming ray, and only capable of ambition and sensuality, is depicted with bold and powerful passion. The full, rich voice of Mr Keene is another of his great attractions, reminding one slightly of Booth; his by-play of feature is also intellectually good. George Learock as Henry, Earl of Richmond, was a grand support and ably seconded the efforts of the star. The scene in the tower, where Queen Elizabeth parts from the two Princes, was heart-rending by its power and intensity."

PIRE NOTICES OF Miss Neally Stevens: Birliker Tageblatt.—Miss Neally Stevens possesses those brilliant technical qualities which enable her to render the Liszt music in its perfection.

Boston Journal.—Miss Stevens has a brilliant and magnetic technique, and many of the numbers chosen had been composed expressly for her. She is a pianist of rare attainments, to which is added a personal charm of manner and refinement which did much to win the hearts of the audience.

St Louis Globe Democrat.—Miss Neally Stevens is a wonderful pianist.

Washington Herald.—Her selections from the works of the best masters were rendered with great skill, and she established herself in the estimation of her audience as a first-class pianist.

THE JOURNAL is in receipt of a sample of a cabbage from the farm of Henry Schultz, at Suver, Polk county. It was entirely stripped of green leaves and stalk, and then weighed 22 pounds on the postoffice scales. It is a grand sample of the favorite German vegetable, and the young farmer who raised it should feel proud.—Salem Journal.

No doubt that was a big cabbage in the eyes of Salem people; but it would not draw a crowd in Albany, and we are no cabbage head. One left at C. E. Brownell's, by Mr. Jenks, of the Santiam, when stripped of leaves and stalk, ready for sale by the pound, weighed just 28 pounds, and was not considered very immense either.

A GOOD BOOK.—Judge Chenoweth, of Benton county, one of the pioneer lawyers of Oregon, who helped build up this great valley, is in the city soliciting for "Kings of the Platform and Pulpit," a splendid book, deserving a big sale.

S W Ross' dirt team became frightened, this afternoon, while standing in the alley back of Dr Maston's office, and ran away, doing little damage.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.—Those wishing instruction in piano, organ or harmony, should call on Mrs H F Hollenbeck, at the residence of Mrs Thomas Monteith. Private musicles will be given each term for the benefit of pupils.

NOTICE.—Parties having books out belonging to the Odd Fellows Library will please return them to the library.

WATCH WILL & STARK'S.—Will & Stark have received a new line of as elegant, as well as reliable watches, gold and silver, for ladies and gentlemen, as have ever been offered to the public in Albany. They are attracting considerable attention, and buyers should not fail to inspect them.

DON'T RUN AROUND.—Every steamer however foggy the bar, brings to Albany an immense quantity of fruits and produce. The best and largest variety always goes to Powell & Co's. Their stands are always full of just such things as the public wants. Save running round by calling at their store first.

LARGEST IN THE VALLEY.—Will & Stark have received the largest and finest display of silver ware in the valley, as their elegant display of novelties in the line will testify. They invite the public to call at their store and see their fine metropolitan stock.

RECORD BREAKERS.—Matthews & Washburn sold in one day last week nine stoves, and their stove book shows a number of days that they have sold six and seven stoves a day. Quality is what does it.

EVERYBODY SAYS SO.—If the wild & crazy it they would say, "Go to Powell & Co's for groceries and produce, or their stock is large, their prices low and quality the best." This is the universal verdict of their customers.

ROOMS TO RENT.—Two furnished rooms near the college. Inquire at this office.

HOLIDAY BOOKS.—Ladies, call at Mrs. Hymen's and give your order for the Juvenile Books, for Xmas. The latest out.

A SURE CURE FOR THE WHISKY HABIT. Dr Livingston's Antidote for Drunkenness will cure any case of the liquor habit in from ten to thirty days, from the moderate drinker to the drunkard. The Antidote can be given in a cup of coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. The Antidote will not injure the health in any way. Manufactured by the Livingston Chemical Co., Portland, Oregon, or from J A Cunningham, sole agent, Albany.

I have just received a large invoice of lace curtains, ranging in price from one to nine dollars a pair, satin, curtain net, etc. Also a line of certain poles and furniture coverings.

MISCELL.

Theaters in Seattle have to pay an annual license of $1000 and circuses a license of $200 to $1000 a day. That is high license with a vengeance.

Some one has learned that eggs are always marketable for cash, and so are chickens. With a large stock of these products on hand the farmer need never be broke.

Albany is certainly getting to be metropolitan. Thos W Keene, Clara Morris, Neally Stevens and Liberati within just a week, is the program, and a city that can do that is bound to be heard from.

The so-called literary wit of to-day, colored by illustration, is simply exaggeration, and really contains but an atom of genuine wit. The DEMOCRAT never expects to cause the death of any one from laughter.

The crop of newspapers in Oregon is big. There are six in Yamhill county, seven or eight in Marion, five in Benton and five in Linn county, as samples. Only a few years ago there were about two in each of these counties.

An Eastern man purchased five cents worth of quinces at an Albany grocery store, and told the merchant he need not put them up as he simply wanted to eat them. On learning what they were he said he would take peanuts instead. Mistaking quinces for apples has something about it that always amuses the spectator.

Referring to our article on big squashes the Salem Journal in the usual sour grape style peculiar to that city says: "Well, Bro. Democrat, squash is only a secondary matter at Salem anyhow, while at Albany it is the chief production." What about our big stock of railroads, woolen mill, flour mill, foundry, ice works, wheat, potatoes and John Shea's onions.

This is the time when the poet (Bryant) sang "The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year." This may be true in the East, but in Oregon it is not the melancholy time. It is the contrary. It is the joyous time of the year, the time of increasing moisture, after harvest, when gold and silver mingle, the season of sociability. The wind rarely wails here, and the rustling leaves and meadows brown and sere do not make one feel sad.

THE GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR.

Has now a complete line of Holiday goods, dolls, doll buggies, boys' wagons, velocipedes, and many other goods which go to make up a complete line for Christmas, besides a complete line of lamps of every description. China crockery, fancy decorated ware, glassware, bird cages, plush goods, such as albums, toilet sets, autograph books, scrap books, children's A B C picture books, and all goods that are carried in a bazaar store, including Roger Bros. 1847 Silverware. We wish to call the attention of the public in particular to the Golden Rule prize baking powder and tea, put up expressly for this trade, which gives the best of satisfaction, as is attested by the hundreds who have used both the tea and baking powder ever since introduced by the Golden Rule Bazaar. Each package of tea and can of baking powder draws a prize in the shape of a fine piece of glassware. Be sure to call, when in Albany, at the Golden Rule Bazaar, as you will be sure to find what you want, and will be shown over the store and be treated kindly by my clerk, Mr. Miller. My goods are all marked in plain figures so as not to deceive anyone, and I have but one price to all.

Yours truly,
JULIUS GRADWOLD.

Try our celebrated 5 cent Havana filled white labor cigars.

We make a specialty of selling cigars of our own make by the box at factory prices.

Fine Meerschaum and Briar pipes and a full assortment of smokers articles.

THEY HAVE COME.—A large and elegant assortment of suitings, never surpassed in Albany, and can be seen at W R Graham's. The designs are very pleasing and will suit the most fastidious. Mr Graham appreciating the desire here for stylish goods in elegant patterns has taken extra pains to bring on a stock of such suitings as will meet with general favor. If you would see the best stock of goods in this line ever brought to Albany call at the tailor shop of W R Graham.

No You Don't.—It can't be done, because we ain't built that way. We bought our best heaters on long time and will not pay a cent, and can and will fit your pocket book. No odds what price you name, a good heating stove you will get. Don't order by telephone, you can't bet on that way of doing business in these days.

Rev Abiel H Wright, of Portland, Me., is expected in Albany in a few weeks, when he will preach at the Congregational church several weeks on trial.

Capt E J Lanning, W F Read and C G Burkhardt left this afternoon for the Albany mines, to be gone several days. The quartz mill is reported running, with indications of a fine clean up in a few weeks.

The Albany Wire Works have just set to running a lifeline power steam engine, having given up water power, owing to the ditch on Lyons Street being discontinued, at least temporarily.

To-night Bishop Becker lectures at the W C T U Hall and everybody who wants to know all about the wonderful land of Palestine should attend.

The public is anticipating a great treat in the appearance of Thos W Keene in Shakespeare's great tragic play, Richard III, Saturday night. There should be a full house.

A very pleasant reception was tendered Revs Dr Owen and Wallace, prominent Eastern ministers in the U P Church, at the residence of L E Blain last evening. The pastors of the city were nearly all present, besides the members of the church.

The Oregon Bank people expect to be in their new and elegant bank offices on next Monday, when they will be as well prepared to do business as any institution of the kind in the state.

On Saturday last, Mr J T Evans, whose farm lies on the hills just north of the slough house, in this valley, brought a cabbage to this city and it is now on exhibition at the R R house. The vegetable weighs 53 pounds.

—Baker City Reveille.

The community of this city may well congratulate itself upon so important an event in its amusement history, as the appearance of America's foremost emotional actress, famous Clara Morris. The name is a household word and everybody will want to see her and her excellent company.

Last evening a small but select surprise birthday party was tendered Mr F M French, at his home in this city. A very enjoyable evening was spent in crochets, refreshing the inner man, and in song. Mr French was the recipient of a crocheted board in honor of his thirty-eighth birthday.

Charles Redfield left last evening for San Francisco, where he will enter a school for the study of civil engineering. Charley has had a practical experience in field work for two or three years, and has a natural faculty for the business, which promises to make him a success in it.

Commencing next Monday evening, a daily paper will be issued in Independence, called the Willamette News, of which Mr J T old, formerly of that city, will be manager. A carrier will deliver the paper to all who subscribe in both Independence and parts of Monmouth, at 15 cents a month.

F M Gatta and F F Furrow have arrived in the city with their families from South West, Nebraska. Being unable to sell a single thing, owing to the complete failure of everything, they brought with them a car load of horses, mules, cows, hogs, chickens, geese and ducks, besides household furniture. Mr Gatta is a brother of Mr W J Gatta, residing near Lebanon, and they propose locating here permanently. They report that any number of people would leave there if they could.

A VOICE FROM PORTLET.

A Lady Relates two Astonishing Experiences.

To whom it may concern: I have tried every conceivable remedy for biliousness during the past five years as I am of a bilious temperament and suffer much from stomach and liver troubles. But nothing ever gave me relief till I obtained from using Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills.

In fact I think I can cure for biliousness. At the time I was using it I lost a little girl living in my family whose neck was seriously affected by a large open sore, and we tried a great many kinds of medicines, salves and blood purifiers to no avail. I gave her some of my medicine (Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills) thinking it might benefit her and as it was purely vegetable, knew it could do her no harm. To my astonishment she began to improve, and within two weeks it was entirely healed and she is now as well as ever.
