

LOCAL RECORD.

THE K. OF T'S DAY.—The committee in charge of the entertainment to be given on Tuesday, 28th, inst., under the auspices of Temple Commandery, Knights Templar, are hard at work, completing final arrangements for the entertaining of their guests on that occasion. The program as adopted includes varied forms of entertainment, all of which cannot but serve to please the most fastidious. We are glad to know that our citizens generally realize the importance and magnitude of the task undertaken by the boys, in their efforts to give our city and its citizens the name and position they deserve abroad, which this demonstration will accomplish, by their hearty and liberal co-operation. Already most of the reserved seats for the concert have been secured, and Signor Liberati promises to give us a rare treat. Those desiring seats can secure them either of Foshy & Mason or Will & Link.

A CROWDED HOUSE greeted Bishop J H Becker at the WCTU Hall last evening. His lecture "Five Hundred Miles on Horseback in Palestine" was eloquently delivered, and was full of revelations. The people of that famous country are now groveling in filth, an ignorant, unprogressive people. There are lepers there the same as in the Bible times, and Bishop Becker gave an affecting account of meeting with a company of them, which the country is too heathenish to support. The people seem to be made up of beggars. The speaker's account of his visit to the Biblical scenes of the country was full of interest.

FARMER JONES, of Marion county, who has had so much notoriety about being buncoed out of $5000 is having some more fun. The old fossil got married and now his wife is already tired of the miserly old fellow and is trying to leave him, which he is trying to prevent. As he probably got paid for marrying him, it is possible it is another bunco game, and if so the public generally will smile at his being taken in again.

"Kisses of the Platform and Pulpit" is a book of rare merit, the essence of wit and humor, 190 years in one volume, history condensed. The compilers of this book have done to history what the press has done to the cotton bale, reduced it to one-fiftieth the size without injury to the substance. Judge Chenoweth, of Benton county, is canvassing for it, and deserves a liberal patronage.

CLARA MORRIS, who is to be in Albany next week, is just 44 years of age. This is to be kept a secret, and our friends will confer a favor by not informing Clara that we gave the matter away. Her real name is Mrs Frederick C Harriatt, and her husband to whom she was married in 1875 travels with her. In Camille she is probably the best in the U. S.

HOME FROM IRELAND.—Mr. John Fagan of Tangent, an old resident of Linn county, is home from a trip to his homeland, Ireland. He found everything in a very bad condition, extortionate rents demanded, and starving tenants. He says he was just as O'Brien and Dillon only they did the talking.

THE DUDE GORE.—Advertising do wonders. It has most effectively banished the dude from the United States. It has also helped to build up a live grocery business for Conn & Henderson, of this city, where high prices are unknown. They keep a fine line of groceries, produce, etc., and doing their own work, sell at bottom prices, as can be easily learned by pricing their goods.

NOVELTIES IN WASH FABRICS.—I have just received direct from Chicago novelties in wash dress goods. The new thing for fall and winter wear. I am receiving the largest line of staple and fancy dress goods ever brought to this market. Those needing their fall and winter supplies will do well to give me a call.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

JUST RECEIVED.—Smoked chinook salmon, cranberries, cauliflower, celery, sweet potatoes, oranges, bananas, grapes, pears, comb honey, strained honey, clipped beef, pigs feet. The finest line of groceries in the city. Try our teas and coffees. Mueller & Garrett, the leading grocers.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.—I make a specialty of keeping a full line of black silks, Silk Warp Henriettes, Wool Henriettes, and all the late novelties in black dress goods, and trimmings.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

NEW CARPETS.—new carpets, new carpets and new styles, latest patterns, the best in the market, just received at A. B. Mellin's. The stock is large and choice, selected for this market, and people wanting the best carpets at the lowest prices should call and inspect his splendid stock. It was bought low and will be sold low.

JACKETS AND WRAPS.—I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of ladies' misses and childrens jackets and wraps which are of the latest style and good value, and as cheap as standard goods can be bought. I have on hand a lot of ladies Newmarkets carried over from last year, which I am selling at cost to close them out to make room for new arrivals.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

KID GLOVES I HANDLE.—Our Own, a genuine kid glove, warranted at $1.50 per pair. The celebrated P Centermei at $1.60 per pair. The Mather in button and string at $1.75 per pair. The genuine leather glove at $2.00 per pair. Also Muscadine, Sued and Grace finish.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

TO-NIGHT.—Thos W Keene and troupe, consisting of seventeen of the best looking theatrical people ever in Albany, arrived in the city this noon and will appear in Richard III, to-night, no doubt to a crowded house. All look like stars. There are no soups in the crowd. We should show our appreciation of the celebrated actor by giving him the best house ever gathered in the Opera House. Richard III is a wonderful tragedy. The times of that famous king, who only reigned two years, were infamous ones.

"The world is infamous one, that wrens make prey where eagles did not perch."

Richard's motto was "off with his head," and how the heads flew, even of the innocent princes smothered in the tower. "So wise, so young never do live long." A fine illustration of self condemnation was made by Richard when he said:

My conscience hath a thousand several tongues.

And every tongue brings in a several tale.

And every tale condemns me for a villain.

Keene is said to portray this villain with masterly effect, with Learcock supporting him strongly as Richmond, Annie and Elizabeth well as Richmond, and the whole support an extra one.

Reserved seats at Will & Link's for the great play tonight, $1. Gallery, 50 cents. May be the only chance of hearing this great actor.

CHURCH NOTICES.

The order of services to-morrow at the Presbyterian church, will be as follows: Preaching at 11 a. m., by the pastor, Subject: "Patience—Our need of it." Sabbath school, 12:15 p. m. Y. P. S. C. E. meeting in the lecture room at 6:45 p. m. 7:30 p. m., preaching service, Topic: "Something about Amusements." All will be made welcome to these services.

A meeting will be held this, Saturday evening in the United Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. Addresses will be made by Rev. Dr. W. S. Owens, secretary of the Board of Home Missions, and by Rev. A. G. Wallace, D. D., secretary of the Board of Church Extension. These brethren are familiar with the work in home field and speak from personal knowledge. An interesting meeting may be expected. Dr. Owens will preach to-morrow in the U. P. church at 11 a. m. and Dr. Wallace at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. L. J. Trumbull has returned from attending a very successful and profitable meeting of the Baptist denomination, of the state, held at Portland. He will preach at the Baptist church in this city to-morrow.

PORTLAND and Salem are the most rapidly growing Oregon cities, according to the census.—Journal.

Let's see. Salem just simply doubled her population, with four big precincts to do it with, while Albany increased from 1867 to 1872, according to Kelly, Porter not having been heard from. That shows Albany to be much the most rapidly growing, and will continue to, should Porter even cut Kelly down a couple thousand. But, speaking of the census, a material unfairness is observed. Salem gets credit for the population of its four big precincts; while Eugene only gets credit for its actual city limits. That's a shame. The census shows Salem to be three times the size of Eugene. In fact it is only double that city.

PRESS NOTICES of Miss Neally Stevens: Birlinger Tageblatt.—Miss Neally Stevens possesses those brilliant technical qualities which enable her to render the Liszt music in its perfection.

Boston Journal.—Miss Stevens has a brilliant and magnetic technique, and many of the numbers chosen had been composed expressly for her. She is a pianist of rare attainments, to which is added a personal charm of manner and refinement which did much to win the hearts of the audience.

St Louis Globe Democrat.—Miss Neally Stevens is a wonderful pianist.

Washington Herald.—Her selections from the works of the best masters were rendered with great skill, and she established herself in the estimation of her audience as a first-class pianist.

BURGLARY.—Yesterday morning while Dan and George Meyers, who batch in the lower part of town, were at work, some tramps entered the house by removing a window and carried away about $40 worth of clothes. The boys are watching very close for the thieves and if caught will they have to suffer.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.—Those wishing instruction in piano, organ or harmony, should call on Mrs H F Hollenbeck, at the residence of Mrs Thomas Monteith. Private musicales will be given each term for the benefit of pupils.

WATCH WILL & STARK'S.—Will & Stark have received a new line of elegant, as well as reliable watches, gold and silver, for ladies and gentlemen, as have ever been offered to the public in Albany. They are attracting considerable attention, and buyers should not fail to inspect them.

DON'T RUN AROUND.—Every steamer however foggy the bar, brings to Albany an immense quantity of fruits and produce. The best and largest variety always goes to Powell & Co's. Their stands are always full of just such things as the public wants. Save running round by calling at their store first.

LARGEST IN THE VALLEY.—Will & Stark have received the largest and finest display of silver ware in the valley, as their elegant display of novelties in the line will testify. They invite the public to call at their store and see their fine metropolitan stock.

RECORD BREAKERS.—Matthews & Washburn sold in one day last week nine stoves, and their stove book shows a number of days that they have sold six and seven stoves a day. Quality is what does it.

EVERYBODY SAYS SO.—If the wild west talk they would say, "Go to Powell & Co's for groceries and produce, or their stock is large, their prices low and quality the best." This is the universal verdict of their customers.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Give us an open river the year round.

"When the leaves begin to fall." That is now. Rake them and burn them.

Keene, Liberati, Stevens and Morris in a week. Tragedy, horns, ivory keys and sentiment.

There is too much to do and see in this world to spend one's time splitting hairs. Don't do it, particularly in Albany.

"Some to church repair, not for the doctrine but the music there," said Pope, but those who go to-morrow in Albany will not go for the music, for here the congregation makes the music.

Sometimes a man comes to this country, stays a season and then gets dissatisfied and returns East; but in most cases he is glad to get back again after one or two seasons of Eastern cyclones and crop failures. S P Tater has just returned to the valley that way.

An aristocratic tourist passing through Albany carried two cords of wood in for an Albany man near the DEMOCRAT office and charged him $1 a cord, the job taking him less than four hours. He evidently believes in high tariffs; but he failed to get it by a big percentage. It pays to make a previous contract with these shrewd, cunning financiers doing our glorious valley.

The suggestion is made to the M. A. T. that Linn county begin now to prepare an exhibition for the next Portland exposition. In a year's time we could get together an exhibition of our resources that would be astonishing. Containing native woods, cereals, grasses, fruits, home manufactured goods, etc., it would redound to the credit of Linn county. Next year this county should present an exhibition of its grand resources and established institutions that will make it the center of attraction.

A VOICE FROM POST ST.

A Lady Relates Two Astonishing Experiences.

To whom it may concern: I have tried every conceivable remedy for biliousness during the past five years as I am of a bilious temperament and suffer much from stomach and liver troubles. But nothing ever gave me relief that I obtained from using Joy's Vegetable-Sarsaparilla. In fact I think it cured for these ailments. At the time I was using it I had a little girl living in my family whose neck was seriously affected by a large open sore, and we tried a great many kinds of lotions, salves and blood purifiers to no avail. I gave her some of my medicine (Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla) thinking it might benefit her and as it was purely vegetable, knew it could do her no harm. To my astonishment she began to improve, and within two weeks it was entirely healed and she is now as well as ever.
