LOCAL RECORD.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.—The attendance at the social given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, at the residence of Hon Geo E Chamberlain last evening was large, the elegant parlors being full of a happy crowd of people from all parts of the city. The evening was spent in games, short neighborly visits, and the partaking of a choicely prepared lunch, interspersed during the evening being a select program. Mr Sears and Rev Prichard were heard in a duet, enthusiastically cheered; Mrs Chamberlain and Rev Prichard in another, rendered in a charming manner; and piano solos were well executed by Mrs Seal and Miss Eva Cowan. Those who attended were favored by an evening of social enjoyment not soon to be forgotten.

DRAWS A MORAL.—The editor of this paper has been sued for damages. $5,000 is the extent of the inroad alleged to have been made on a reputation by the pruning knife of the GAZETTE. We are surprised to learn that the value of an advertisment in the GAZETTE is so large. The alleged influence of an advertisement of the plaintiff's character, in this paper, is worthy the attention of the advertising community. If one local advertisment of a reputation is worth $5,000, what should be the value of a whole column of business advertisments?—Gazette.

THE DEMOCRAT knows that in the case referred to the plaintiff believes in printers ink, and while in Albany was a very prompt business man; but like most people he wants a hand in spreading the ink on.

TANGENT people are having considerable of a spelling craze. Every Friday evening an attack is made on orthography, and the slaughter is great. Last evening Miss Georgia Beard stood up longest in A grade, and Sylvia Hawley longest in B grade, their second successive victory.

Miss Nicholls assistant teacher of the school has been ill several days, and it is reported that diptheria is the disease.

WEST ARMED.—About twenty-five members of the Knights of Pythias of Albany and Corvallis went to Eugene this noon to install the officers of the new K of P just organized there. Among the number were Robert Johnson, George Fish and Thomas Whitebone of Corvallis, O H Irvine, George Hochstedler, J. F. Hall, Pres Marshall, A W McClain, Al Ketchum, Henry Ebert, Richard Conn, L M Curl and Walter Parker, of Albany.

Y. M. C. A.—At a meeting of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. last evening Prof. Young was nominated and elected secretary of the society. It was voted to rent rooms on the second story of the Oregon Bank building for the winter. The front rooms will be used for meetings and reading room and a rear room for a gymnasium.

DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—Mr J R Wyatt has been appointed district attorney for Linn County, by District Attorney Bingham, and will begin his duties at once. He has tendered his resignation as Justice of the Peace for West Albany precinct, and a successor will be appointed by the next county court, CHICKEN PIE.—The ladies of the M E Church will give a Chicken Pie supper and social on next Wednesday evening, Nov. 12th, at the W C T U Hall, supper commencing at 5 o'clock. Supper, 25 cents. Come one, come all, and have a good time.

Rev O B Whitmore, of McMinnville, Grand Official Instructor of the A O U W, made a call at this office to-day. He is organizing lodges of the order in various parts of the state. He will reorganize the lodge at Lebanon next Thursday.

An effort is being made to organize a writing school in this city. Frank Cook, of Albany, is the instigator of it. Twenty-one scholars have been secured.—Jefferson Review.

One of the current reports flying about is that a $50,000 brewery is to be built near the west end of Third street; but this was on the wing several months ago, and with different locations several times.

EVERYBODY SAYS SO.—If the wild waves could talk they would say, "Go to Powell & Co's for groceries and produce, for their stock is large, their prices low and quality the best." This is the universal verdict of their customers

THE MOST CARPETS.—Fortmiller & Irving have greatly enlarged their carpet department, and now carry one of the largest and finest stock of carpets in the Valley, embracing a choice variety of the latest designs. This stock is a splendid one to select from, including all grades for all kinds of rooms up to the most elegant parlor. Call on them for bargains in carpets.

DON'T RUN AROUND.—Every steamer however foggy the bar, brings to Albany an immense quantity of fruits and produce. The best and largest variety always goes to Powell & Co's. Their hands are always full of just such things as the public wants. Save runing around by calling at their store first.

WHO PAYS THE FREIGHT. — Why Matthews & Washburn. They have paid the freight on two car loads of stoves and ranges since Sept 1st 1890 and have another car load on the way.

SPORTSMEN, READ.—Do you want a first-class bird dog, choice English pointers and English Llewellin setter puppies. Also a thoroughly broken pointer—retrieves to hand and stauch on point. For sale. Write for particulars at once; address J. W. VINEYARD, Corvallis, Or.

How is your water supply? I am prepared now to make tubular wells or drill wells in rock on short notice. Write to B Hughes.

JUNIUS ECLIPSED.—People have been wondering what grand jurors are for. The following is a part of the report of the grand jury of Lane County, James Campbell foreman and will in part explain at least what one is for. For satire it will take its place at the head of the procession in Oregon.

"We have examined into the condition of the county jail and denounce and condem it as a disgrace to a civilized community and an outrage in the administration of justice. It is an unfit place in which to confine even a hardened criminal, slow poisining by sewer gas being a punishment too long indulged in by the county, and unrecognized by the laws of civilized people. The jail of Lane County is not only unsafe, as evident by frequent escapes, but it is unsanitary and a severe reflection on our people. Prisoners are forced to endure poisining smells that must be experienced to be understood. * * * We find that the affairs of the sheriff's office have been investigated by a commission under direction of the county court, and books of the late sheriff were kept in a reckless manner and a deficit of several thousand dollars was discovered. Sheriff Sloan has made good his deficit to the county and paid all claims demanded of him as they have appeared. The records of the sheriff's office disclose incompetency and inexcusable negligence on the part of the ex-sheriff. The records of the office at the present time seem satisfactory and intelligible."

AN ORPHAN.—In view of the general interest in bridges we give the following from the Journal in reference to the present condition of the so-called bridge at Salem:

The destruction of the central pier of the proposed bridge over the Willamette river at this city is about completed and the destroyers have began drilling and blasting on the west pier, and its fate is conceded to be similar to that of its associate. Work was begun this morning to drill holes for the so called cylinder piers that are to be set up on the old remnants of ruin that now stand some fifteen or more feet above the water. From what one cannot help but learn on the streets it seems this bridge has but few friends, and how it can stand and face a fair city and be the ridicule of her people is hard to understand. It will surely endeavor to drown itself in the first high water to get rid of the derision that is hurled at it

Two heads of deer horns locked together may be seen at Horn & Paine's gun shop. They were secured in Crook county by Mr. Geo. Millican, who found two large mule deer fastened together by the horns, presumably after a desperate conflict. One of the deer was dead and was being dragged about by the live one.—Eugene Guard.

TO-MORROW.—Rev Thomas, of Portland, will preach at the Universalist church, in this city, Sunday morning, at 11 a. m. The public is cordially invited.

The Lutherans of Albany and vicinity will hold service Sunday, Nov 9th, at the First Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock.

At the W C T U Hall to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, Rev S E Meminger will preach on "Admission of Women as Delegates to the General Conference." At 7:30 p. m., "Speach and Action." Sabbath School at 2:30 p. m. Young Peoples' Alliance at 6:30 p. m. All will be made welcome to these services, and every member of the Methodist church is especially urged to be present at the morning service.

The Gospel service of the Y M C A will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject, "Profit and Loss From a Bible Standpoint." References, Mark 8, 36-37; 1st Timothy 4-8. Leader, C D Cusick. All men are cordially invited.

At the Baptist church Rev G W Hill will preach in the morning on "A Reaping Church," and in the evening on "Justification."

At the Christian church to-morrow, by the pastor, 11 a. m., subject, "Fruit Bearing;" 7:30 p. m., "Conversion." Strangers welcome. Seats free.

HEARTS OF OAK.—Theater goers who wish to have a genuine treat should not miss seeing Heart's of Oak next Tuesday evening. It will undoubtedly be one of the finest theatrical attractions of the present season in this city. The entire original company, costumes and accessories, will be seen here precisely as they were seen at the Fifth Avenue Theater, New York, for one hundred nights. The cast will be headed by James A Herne, a brilliant actor. Mr Herne's portrayal of Terry Dennison in Hearts of Oak has been endorsed by the critics as an unusually fine and effective piece of work. The actor will be ably seconded by a strong company of American players chosen especially for this production. A great feature of the performance will be Hazel Regan, who sustains the child interest of the play, and who is considered the cleverest child at present on the stage.

21 PUZZLE.—Don't fool away your time monkeying with the 21 puzzle but go to Crawford & Paxton's and get your photo made. Theirs are the best.

MORE LIKE IT.—From reliable data the Oregon weather bureau estimates the following average yield for the state: Wheat, twenty-six bushels per acre; oats, forty-two bushels; barley, thirty-eight bushels; rye, twenty-eight bushels, and hay, two tons per acre, except alfalfa, which averages four tons.—West Shore.

That sounds more like the facts, and offers quite a contrast to the report of the U. S. agricultural department that the average in Oregon was fifteen bushels and in Washington twenty-five bushels per acre. The U S A D the next time will please take the hay seed out of its eyes and have a mule kick it into sensibility before making an estimate on so important a matter as wheat acreage.

JACKETS AND WRAPS.—I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of ladies misses and childrens jackets and wraps which are of the latest style and good value, and as cheap as standard goods can be bought. I have on hand a lot of ladies Newmarkets carried over from last year, which I am selling at cost to close them out to make room for new arrivals. SAMUEL E YOUNG.

I have just received a case of Standard prints which I will sell at 25 yards to the dollar. SAMUEL E YOUNG.

KID GLOVES I HANDLE.—Our Own, a genuine kid glove, warranted at $1.50 per pair. The celebrated P Centemeri at $1.60 per pair. The Mather in button and string fastenings at $1.75 per pair. The genuine Foster hook at $2.00 per pair Also Musquetair, Sued and Glace finish. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Cheap things are not always the cheapest, a paradoxical saying. It doesn't pay to buy shoddy goods nor to simply think about what a thing is going to cost. This is true of sewers likewise. It will pay in the long run to have our sewers well constructed. We want no shoddy jobs, if a few cents are saved.

The Man About Town would suggest that the West Shore leave out its regular illustration of Indian scenes. The Indian is no longer an important factor in the Northwest, and of all they are the last we want to advertise. It gives Eastern people a wrong impression of this great country. But every man to his taste.

The air is full of "ifs." The M. A. T. hears men daily telling about what they could do in the future if —— so and so. The men who succeed are they who ignore the ifs and dash ahead. If they get on top we hear about it and if they don't that is the last of it.

The Man About Town has always observed that people, as a rule, judge of things, according to their own success. The man doing well and making heaps of money thinks the climate of a swamp purifying; the boy who beats at marbles declares it the most fun on this mundane sphere, the sure catch and hard striker says there is nothing like base ball, and so it goes through life, all over the world and in Albany. There are even moss backs here who declare that whittling dry goods boxes is fun they do it so well.

A fruit raiser in the Willamette valley requires but a small outlay, has all the advantages of a civilized and cultured society, has good and convenient markets and receives a better income from the same investment than can be had from any other line of business. You can get this land from $55 to $75 per acre of The Oregon Land Company, of Salem, Oregon.

THEY HAVE COME.—A large and elegant assortment of suitings, never surpassed in Albany, and can be seen at W R Graham's. The designs are very pleasing and will suit the most fastidious.
