LOCAL RECORD.

EASILY OBTAINED.—Marriage licenses some of the counties of Oregon are ily obtained, showing conclusively at the law on the subject of their issu- ce deserves a more strict interpretation the officers granting the permit. For ance, at Albany, Friday, a divorce obtained, and the next day a mar- e license was issued to one of the ies of the divorce. The same thing rred in Marion county a couple of s recently. The law says something t persons who have been divorced being permitted to marry again until time in which an appeal may be had have elapsed. But this is evidently looked. The matter of appeal is ed, so to speak.—Salem States- . Guess if you look up the law you find that it is the parties getting the nse who are to blame. The clerk ply grants the license on proof of oper residence and age.

A BRAVE WOMAN.—Mrs Geo Hash, of lsea valley, has more courage and pres- ce of mind in the face of the danger an the average woman. It is only arcely settled in that neighborhood d wild animals are quite plentiful. e day, not long since, Mr Hash was bsent from home when a large cougar me into the door yard of his residence, here the children were playing. The nimal was evidently hungry and had agined that a small boy would make a od square meal. But Mrs Hash espied e cougar when but a few feet from the ildren. She took down the Winchester ile quicker than it took to tell it and hot it through the hams. This did not ill the animal, but forced it to retreat. climbed a tree near by and Mrs Hash d a faithful dog kept it there until Mr sh returned and completed the kill- g. It measured six and a half feet.— rvallis Times.

FREE RIDE AND GRUB.—There arrived the Union Pacific depot from the east is morning a carload of freight con- ned to Fort Walla Walla. John Carlos, the quartermaster's department, upon ening the car discovered that some one d made free use of bacon, flour, crackers, tter, canned goods and everything of an able nature. In one corner of the car was a tin can which had been used as a stove, and near it was a small pile of al such as is used on locomotives. A ace had been cleared on the floor of the ar for a bed and every indication pointed o the fact that two or three tramps had ccupied the car during its transit across e continent. Their means of egress om the car had been through a small indow in one end, whereby they took in al and water. A large pile of bacon ds, empty cans and refuse scraps of od was found near the window.—Walla lla Statesman.

SPITEFUL.—Last week we stated that I Driver had been arrested for beating boy who was caught stealing his apples t he was acquitted, says the Eugene gister. This week Driver had the boy, ttle innocent fellow about nine years ge, arrested for stealing his apples. The case was tried in Justice Hender- 's court before a jury and the boy was mptly acquitted. In their remarks the jury the boy's attorneys hit it tty close when they said the case was ght simply through spite. At the inning of the trial one of the attorneys d Driver got to disputing each other warmly that the Justice called in the riff to preserve order.

AN OLD TIMER.—Old residents of Al- y remember well of seeing Johnny Fadden, who was killed in the Lake ish accident, come into Albany hold e throttle on one of the first trains 1870. He was a genial faithful em- oye, popular with the public, and knew ery inch of the road. As those who ew him would expect he staid with e engine, immediately reversing the achinery to stop the train.

REPUBLICAN LAMENT.—A stray letter ead of a leading republican law firm of his city finds its way to our table, upon hich is written the following:

Since high protection's laid us low,
Democrats say we told you so.
McKinley's bill has done us up,
A la strychnine does a pup."

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.—A couple of eeks ago while M Gillespie was cutting wn a tree across the river a gust of nd blew it over the opposite way from ich he expected it to fall and it fell on team and wagon, killing a horse val- at $150, breaking the wagon, and came r killing Mr Gillespie's boy.—Eugene gister

NO DANGER.—No one can ever be ked financially who buys their groce- of Parker Bros. You are sure of good ity, low prices and first class treat- t. Their stock is always up with the st, consisting of the freshest vegeta- and best groceries to be found. Their department is in splendid hands, their baked goods can always be relied

THE TRAIN.—A train was expected in Salem at the time of going to press had not yet arrived. The first mail ooked for on a train at 10 o'clock, ably coming by the West Side, as morning overland went, being trans- ed on the Oregon Pacific, the two s now being on more friendly terms.

WELL PROVIDED FOR.—A settlement of estate of the late Chas H Spencer, ich has been well attended to by Mr Merrill, will leave Helen, the only d of the deceased, a nice estate of 0 or $5000.

ORDER A FINE TURKEY

FOR THANKSGIVING

OF MUELLER & GARRETT.

A FRIGHTFUL R R ACCIDENT.

Several Killed and Many Wounded.

Yesterday night the south bound overland train went down with the tres- tle over Lake Labish, five miles north of Salem. The trestle giving away the whole train went into the mud below, fortunately all the passenger cars falling perpendicularly with the trestle and not overturning. The engine was overturned and the tender, mail car, baggage and express cars tipped over. The result is the death of five persons. Among the number was John McFadden, the engineer, an old hand, Fin Neal, the fireman, a tramp on a brakbeam, and two others.

The day and smoker were full of people and most of them were injured. About 25 were in the tourist car, and all injured but three. In the first pullman there was 17, all injured but three; in the second and rear pullman were 15, but 4 being injured Shan Connor, the conductor, had one leg broken, P B Beckley, of Oakland, ribs and back broken. Warren Gilbert of Salem, leg broken, and fully fifty others had bruises and sprains and breaks. Every body was thoroughly shaken up and the scene beggars description. It was the worst accident in the history of the North- West.

The distance which the train fell was about 18 feet into a swampy place. 600 feet of trestle fell with it. The specticle presented on the arrival of special trains from Portland, Salem and Albany was one of confusion and disaster. Every- thing possible was done for the wounded and the dead were taken care of. Dr Maston, S P surgeon for this division, was among those who went from Albany.

Five killed and fifty-five wounded was the result of the accident given as we went to press.

The DEMOCRAT had made arrangements for a complete telegraphic report of the list of the dead and wounded and dead as secured at the time of going to press; but it failed to appear.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr Hayne, of the Eugene tannery, has been in the city buying hides.

Mr Fred Mespelt called at the DEMO- CRAT office to-day.

D B Monteith, C W Watts, A B Seal, A B Paxton and wife, and others went to Salem on the local this noon to view the scene of the wreck.

H C Watson, the lawyer, returned from Portland last evening on the local, and hence crossing the ill-fated trestle just ahead of the accident.

A young man visiting in Albany hap- pened to pull a history of the Johnstown flood from a library, when he remarked that he was as good a history himself as he was there in the midst of it. He is visiting at Mrs Shields. We did not learn his name.

Mr Yoran, junior editor of the Eugene Register, passed down to Salem this noon to attend his father, who was seriously though not dangerously injured in the Lake Labish railroad accident. A son of Prof Collier, of Eugene, was also in the wreck and injured some. Prof Collier was also on the noon train bound for the scene.

Mrs J O Writsman and daughter re- turned from a trip to Seattle on last evenings local. They came very near being left for the ill-fated overland, and only succeeded in getting on the local after it was in motion. Of course they are now congratulating themselves, in which their friends will heartily unite, that they were on the first train.

THEY HAVE COME.—A large and ele- gant assortment of suitings, never surpass- ed in Albany, and can be seen at W R Graham's. The designs are very pleasing and will suit the most fastidious. Mr Graham appreciating the desire here for stylish goods in elegant patterns has taken extra pains to bring on a stock of such suitings as will meet with general favor. If you would see the best stock of goods in this line ever brought to Albany call at the tailor shop of W R Graham.

THE MOST CARPETS.—Fortmiller & Ir- ving have greatly enlarged their carpet department, and now carry one of the largest and finest stock of carpets in the Valley, embracing a choice variety of the latest designs. This stock is a splen- did one to select from, including all grades for all kinds of rooms up to the most elegant parlor. Call on them for bargains in carpets.

EVERYBODY SAYS SO.—If the wild waves could talk they would say, "Go to Powell & Co's for groceries and pro- duce, for their stock is large, their prices low and quality the best." This is the universal verdict of their customers

DON'T RUN AROUND.—Every steamer however foggy the bar, brings to Albany an immense quantity of fruits and pro- duce. The best and largest variety al- ways goes to Powell & Co's. Their stands are always full of just such things as the public wants. Save running around by calling at their store first.

NEW CARPETS, new carpets, new car pets and new styles, latest patterns, the best in the market, just received at A. B. McIlwain's. The stock is large and choice, selected for this market, and peo- ple wanting the best carpets at the low- est prices should call and inspect his splendid stock. It was bought low and will be sold low.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.—Those wish- ing instruction in piano, organ or har- mony, should call on Mrs H F Hollen- beck, at the residence of Mrs Thomas Monteith. Private musicales will be given each term for the benefit of pupils.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall pa- per, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

Do not pass C E Brownell's store if you want to live economically. Best goods and lowest prices guaranteed.

The largest stock of spectacles and eye glasses in Linn county at F M French's.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"Please state in the DEMOCRAT that this is magnificent weather," says an Al- bany man, "and send me several extra copies."

The great chemist, Prof Liebig, said: "We must drink twenty-three barrels of the best Bavarian beer to get as much food as is in five pounds of bread or three of meat." Another fact which drinking men well know is this: that a moderate beer drinker drinks more alcohol in a day than he who takes whiskey "cocktails" three times a day.

The following poem has been handed us for publication. It simply shows what great changes take place in a year and the world keeps growing:

Last fall—
A little horse hair sofa
In a corner stood,
Youth and maiden sparking,
So far so good.

This fall,—
Little baby in a crib,
Giving lots of bother,
Youthful wife making bibs,
Beside baby's father.

When any one asks you how you feel, if not well you should say bad, and not badly, as is the custom with many, an adjective and not an adverb being proper.—Albany Democrat. That's all right for Albany, but in Salem you say good and not goodly or goody.—Statesman. Yes, that's Salem's style. "If not well" they say good, that black is white and the spider green, any- thing to deceive the public and their friends. Albany tells the truth.

It is said that "music has charms to still the savage breast," or words to that effect, and any one passing the blind organ grinder on Third street this morning would have readily conceived the spirit of the saying, for lying beside him as he was grinding out some of his most pathetic airs on his instrument, with a sign hung about his neck to "help the poor blind man," was a small silver side salmon which has been left no doubt, for some one's con- tribution.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Divine Master above to call from our midst Sister Alice Walton, an honored member of Oak Plain Grange, who died at the home of her father, S G Collins, near Shedd, October 17th, 1890.

Whereas, She was a sincere and devot- ed Christian, and leaves to mourn her loss a husband, a devoted mother and father, brothers and sisters; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we as a grange extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sym- pathy in the hour of their affliction and sorrow.

Resolved, That our hall be draped in mourning for 30 days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes and a copy be sent to the family, also to the DEMOCRAT and Herald-Disseminator for publication.

Then weep not friends, what time ye lay
The cold, moist earth above my ashes;
Think what a rest awaits my clay,
And smooth the mound with tearless lashes,
Glad that the wasted form within
Has done at length with care and sin.

Think that with her the strife is o'er,
Life's stormy struggling battle ended;
Hope that her soul has gained that shore
To which, though weak, her footsteps tended.
Breathe the dear hope above her sod
And leave her to rest—and God.

Thos, Kay woolen mills blankets, flannels men's, youth's and boy' clothing, for sale by G W Simpson's, agent, Albany, Oregon.

Christmas is certainly coming, for already there are exhibited in the stores fine displays of holiday goods, a better assortment being observed than heretofore, if possible.

Just arrived—A full line of ladies, chil- drens, men's and boy's foot wear at G W Simpson's, which will be sold at bottom prices.

Many wild geese are winging their way wearily southward towards the tropics. Occasionally one stops to grace the table of a Linn county sportsman.

A GOOD SHOWING.—The best way to tell the growth of a town is by the amount of business transacted at the railroad stat- ion. During the month of October the business of the Southern Pacific railroad at this place was greater than ever before in the history of the town, footing up $11,035.75.—Eugene Register.

That is no doubt a big showing in Eu- gene; but in Albany it is not even average. Here $15,000 to $20,000 a month is a frequent thing. The yearly business of the S P at Albany will nearly double that of Eugene. We mention this simply be- cause our sprightly neighbor has claimed to be about as large as Albany.

HINTS TO HOUSEKEEPERS.—Always set the mouse trap before retiring nights. Keep the best class of groceries you can buy and use only fresh produce. Trade at the best grocery stores, and by the way there is none better than Conn & Hen- drickson's. They keep the best in the market, buy their produce of the best gardeners, keep the freshest fruits in season, and carry a fine line of standard groceries generally.

KID GLOVES I HANDLE,—Our Own, a genuine kid glove, warranted at $1.50 per pair. The celebrated P Centemeri at $1.60 per pair. The Mather in button and string fastenings at $1.75 per pair. The genuine Foster hook at $2.00 per pair. Also Mus- quetair, Sued and Glace finish.
