DAILY DEMOCRAT.

WASHINGTON. (From our regulat

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10, 1590. Senator Quay has by unanimous con sent been selected as the republican Jonah, and there exists the best of reasons for be lieving that he will be asked to retire, not only from the chairmanship of the republican national committee, but to resign his membership. It would have been done before now, but that the question of what to do with J S Clarkson has not been decided. Clarkson is vice-chairman of the committee and has always been an humble tool of Quzy's, and there is a feeling among influential republicans against his being made chairman of the committee, as he would naturally expect, when Quay retires. As soon, as a satisfactory solution of that difficulty is reached, Mr Quay will receive what the boys call the "grand bounce." Quay is now in Florida, and Clarkson is also down south somewhere. They both thought It a good time for dis appearing for awhile.

Mr Harrison is having a terrible time over the Force bill, Mr Blaine, whose predictions about the tariff have materalized so soon, and a few other prominent repub-Heans are trying to persuade him to let the Force bill alone in his message to congress, which he is now preparing, and the radical element in his party which embraces nine-tenths of its recognized leaders, are urging him to insist upon the immediate passage by the senate of the bill, Mr Har risen is very badly frightened at the tornado of popular disapprobation that struck his administration and party on election day, and would most willingly take Mr Blaine's advice, but for the fact that he had committed himself in favor of the Force bill last summer.

Senator Blackburn has made public scene which took place in a senate committee room last summer where he was the only democrat present, and where Mr Blaine stated in the plainest language that if the McKinley bill, which was then before the senate committee, was passed it would ruin the republican party and prevent its electing the president in 1892. He became so excited during his denunciation of the measure that he smashed a new slib hat which was lying before him on a table. Mr Blaine has not changed his mind.

It will be many a day before the demo crais get through enthusing over the recent election. Every train brings in prominen democrats, and every arrival means a fresh jublice. The local democrats fired a salute of $2 guns Friday night, although Col. Ernst in charge of public buildings and grounds, did his best to prevent it by refusing to give them a permit to fire them in the same place that the republicans were granted a similar permit two years ago, but that didn't prevent it-nothing could. The guns were fired, and close enough to the White House for Mr Harrison to enjoy the music.

Under this administration, federal em ployes are slaves. An estimable lady clerk In the Washington City Post-office is now under suspension, because she repeated a jovial remark of a fellow clerk to Dick Quay, a son of the senator. Dick presentsented an order for the senators mail at the general delivery window and the lady went back in the office and inquired where the senators mail was, "Oh he's dead, and his mall's gone to the dead letter office," said one of the clerks laughingly. The lady walked back to the window and thoughtlessly repeated the remarks to Dick, who, by the way, she did not know. He went to the post-office department and reported the lady as having insulted him and his father, and an order was issued to the City postmaster for her immediate suspension.

Mr Wanamaker has not made a popular official, but now that reports of the pending failure of his big Philadelphia firm are cir culated, a great deal of sympathy is ex-pressed here for him, and it is hoped that

The revolution in Massachusetta is aout the most complete and significant o any that occurred in the elections, They jury of the people in that state is highly intelligent and deeply interested in the tariff. The contest was made squarely on this issue, both upon the stump and in the newspapers. And whereas the republican majority in the twelve congressional districts 1888 was 24,794, the democratic plurality now is $,614-a democratic gain of 33,408. Upon the issue now before the country Massachusetts has fairly taken position among the democratic states,

The excavations of Mr Petrie have shown that up to now we have known nothing of the archaology of the Holy Land before the classical age, and if we are ever to learn anything about pre-exilic Israel on the soll of Palestine itself, it must be by the help of the spade.

the claims of his friends-he is not herethat the rumor was originated by Jay Gouid for the purpose of injuring Mr Wanamaker's credit, because of his persistency in behalf of a postal telegraph system, to which Mr Gould is opposed, may prove to be true.

It is not often that the leaders of a politital party have to complain because they are given too much by the voters of the country, but that's about the conditionof the democratic leaders. They fully appreclate the emphatic endorsement of the principles of the party given by the pen-ple, but they would have auticipated far lers trouble had their nutjority been about a hundred less in the next house-at is now so large that it actually causes anxiety.

The feeling that the short session of congress will, in its anxiety to pass political legislation, neglect to pass all of the regular appropriation bills, and thus make an extra action of the fifty-second congress, in the spring, necessary, to provide for the needs of the government, has precipitated the campaign for the speakership and the other officers of the next house.
