DAILY DEMOCRAT.

On the congressional vote, the democrats in New York have 88,000 majority.

In bats the heart is aided by rhythmic contraction of veins in the wings.

The microscope shows human hair to be like a coarse, round rasp, with irregular, ragged teeth.

The London underground railroad is nineteen miles long, was opened in 1863, and cost $3,500,000 a mile.

There are four organizations of the farmers' alliance in Morrow county at the present time.

American drummers in Canada are now required to pay a license of $50, and after Jan 1 they must pay $100.

There are eighteen bridges and twelve tunnels in a single 80-mile stretch of railroad in the Mount Shasta country in California. The bridges all cross Sacramento.

To devote one's self to something higher than one's self, this is the answer of the ages to all who find perpetual interests, and live in that energy which is immortal.

A B McMillan has sold the Monmouth Democrat to Mr W H Brooks, of San Francisco, who will continue the Democrat as a democratic paper. Success to it.

The McKinley bill has cost us a majority in congress. The Lodge election bill, if its passage is insisted upon, is more than likely to cost us the presidency. — St. Paul Pioneer Press, (rep.)

The Chicago Tribune calls these republican newspaper that cling to the McKinley bill "Bourbons," "millboss organs" and "Casabianca Republicans." Apparently that journal is irritated with its party allies.

We are not prepared to say whether Wanamaker will exclude newspapers from the mails that publish marriage notices. It is believed however that he will not do so not with standing the fact that marriage is a lottery.

Miller, the colored republican candidate for congress against Elliott, democrat, in what is known as the Black District in South Carolina, will contest Elliott's seat. So far as the facts appear they appear to be in favor of Miller, and we trust he will get his seat if entitled to it.

Telegraph lines are subject to a great variety of pests. In Rio, for example, there is an orchid that incrusts the wire and causes leakage. In Japan the large web of a spider, dripping with rain or dew, frequently interrupts the traffic, while in Norway a large species of woodpecker raises havoc with the poles.

The New York Press (Rep) quotes the following extracts from a letter written by a western Republican senator to a friend in New York: "It looks as though the democrats would get away with us at the next election unless we do something sharp and strong; although I think Blaine may save us. According to my view, he is the only resource at present."

Mr J P Robertson, of Salem, informs us that steps are being taken to organize a State Farmers Alliance in this state. There is great restlessness among farmers of the northwest at the vicious policy of high taxation so persistently promoted by the republican party. This policy seems destined to prove to be the rock upon which the party will yet founder.

Thomas P Grasty, editor of the Baltimore Manufacturer's Record, a high protection publication, formerly of the Louisville Courier-Journal, has made a remarkable revelation regarding the Force bill. He says that before the adjournment of congress he and Mr P Rice, the Boston leader in southern investments, called upon Speaker Reed in the latter's private office at the capitol. According to Mr Grasty, the following incident occurred: "Reed had lost sight of the fact that Rice had placed several millions of dollars in southern properties, and so he took him into confidence. Said Reed: 'See here, Rice, something must be done to stop this exodus of capital from New England. The south threatened to paralyze our industrial prosperity. This election bill will call a halt on southern investment, and that's why I am urging it so strenuously.'"

It is claimed that Russell & Co., manufacturers in Massillon, Ohio, have reduced the wages of twenty-three democratic employees because they voted for Warwick instead of McKinley. This caused democratic farmers to institute a boycott against Russell engines and threshers. Messrs. Russell & Co. must begin to realize that there are two parties in the United States.
