

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

The Oregonian, finding that Mr. Cleveland is invulnerable to its bitter attacks, now opens up, by innuendo, the state dirty stories circulated on him six years ago when he was elected president. It is evident that that paper feels the great weight of the necessity of doing something to stem the overwhelming tide that has set in favor of the ex-president.

Buggies and Hacks.

The best makes are to be found in Albany at Price & Robson's, who have just received a carload of the finest hacks and buggies to be found. Their prices, considering quality, are remarkably low.
