

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

PRETTY OLD.—The Oregon City Courier gives the following, which will be of particular interest to old settlers: "The pioneer minister, Dr H K Hines, prefaced his discourse on Sunday morning at the Methodist church with a number of facts of historic interest. He read a subscription paper, yellow with age, for building the Methodist church house, at the Willamette Falls, the identical one in which he was now conducting farewell services, in the handwriting of Father Waller, which was dated December 21, 1842. The total subscribed was $757, and five days' work. He said that as far as he knew every one of the subscribers, except J L Parish, had 'passed over on the other side.' He said that when he began his ministry here he was but 25 years old and that he looked with great embarrassment into the faces of his congregation, which contained men of keen intellect and world-wide experience. But, after the delivery of a sermon, George Abernethy, who sat over there, to the left, came to him and took him by the hand. He encouraged him."

The ONLY place in the city where East ern tickets can be purchased is of W. L. Jester, at the Southern Pacific Co's ticket office.

"HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents.
