Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mr. Ada E. Hurd of Groton, S.D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, coughs set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at F. O. Shaw & Mason's drug store, regular size, 50c and $1.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Railroad Style.

SALEM, Jan. 5.—At Silverton Sunday the recently widened narrow gauge Oregonian railway gained vantage ground. The city had refused to let them widen the sidetrack running on Water street from the main line to the mill. Bright and early Sunday morning the railroad company surprised the people of Silverton by putting a large force of men at work widening the gauge, and before the citizens realized what was going on, the job was completed. It is expected there will be litigation, as it is claimed the right of way was never granted the railroad to run on Water street.

Fighting Anticipated.

OMAHA, Jan. 5.—The Bee's correspondent at Pine Ridge telegraphs as follows: All is one continued round of excitement here, and an attack from the Indians is almost momentarily expected. As to the situation here, considered in its entirety, indications that the greatest battle in Indian history is almost at hand are increasing. The reports of every scout add new and strong support to these indications that were only emphasized by the bloody affair on Wounded Knee.

The Montana Muddle.

HELENA, Jan. 5.—At noon today three different bodies of men met in three different places and organized as three separate branches of the Montana legislature. As the law allows only two branches, this proceeding leaves the legislature in about the same situation as it was last winter. Halls for the use of the legislature were rented and fitted up by Governor Tool and State Treasurer Hickman. Promptly at noon the ten democratic and six republican senators took possession of the senate chamber, while twenty-nine republican members of the lower house met in the house.

An Actress Dead.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Jan. 5.—Emma Abbott, the opera prima donna in this city this morning died of pneumonia. Miss Abbott was one of the wealthy women of the United States, her estate being estimated at $3,000,000, principally in real estate. She was born in Illinois about thirty-eight years ago.

The Blockade Raised.

COLFAX, Jan. 5.—The wheat situation in Whitman county is very different today from what it was four weeks ago. The blockade has been broken, and every shipping point is amply supplied with cars, a very small proportion being for eastern shipment. The price in Chicago is, however, at present so low that there is no longer much object in shipping east.

A Big Foreclosure.

SEATTLE, Jan. 5.—Colonel J. C. Haines as attorney for Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, of New York, today filed a bill in the United States district court to foreclose the mortgage held by that company against the Oregon Improvement Company for $4,500,000.

Something for the New Year.

The world renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for over a third of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable addition to the household is published by the Hostetter Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., under the most immediate supervision, embracing 90 pages in that department. They are so interesting about 11 months in the year as the new year, and the year of 1891 will be no exception. It contains the most reliable and accurate information, and is a most valuable and interesting reading concerning health and domestic and general country dealers in
