MISSIS.

Uneasy lies the head of the man who owes the printer.—Shakespeare.

The Farmers' Alliance of Walla Walla county, Washington, after a spirited discussion, approved of a $250,000 appropriation to the World's Fair for the state of Washington.

A Street Commissioner will be elected by the Common Council at its regular meeting next Tuesday evening. The office is an important one. It is peculiarly a position that should be filled by a man willing to work, even to cleaning cross walks in muddy weather, when other work is light. Let us have a worker for 1891.

Pendleton undoubtedly has a very intelligent horse; but hardly more so than Mr. E. A. Parker's Oregonian horse of this city. The E. O. says: "Missouri John, who has been chief engineer of an express wagon in Pendleton for 10, these many years, will cease, with his old horse, to become a familiar object on the streets during the day. He has donned the star and brass buttons of a night policeman. 'Missouri' has infinite faith in his old horse's intelligence. He disposed of his rig to Mr. Smith, and the other day Smith asked him where a certain customer lived. John remarked: 'Just tell the horse, and he will take you there; he knows the way.'"

The drummers have organized. A Portland paper says: "The Commercial Traveler's Association of the Pacific Northwest held a meeting at the Hotel Portland last night. First vice-President E. H. Averill presided. There were about 200 commercial men present and seventy-five new members admitted. The principal object of the meeting was to discuss the matter of waiting upon the various railway companies with the request that they make a reduction in their tariff for members of the organization." This is becoming an era of organization. Everybody organizes against everybody else.

J. P. Faull, the railroad commissioner, was in the city yesterday. Dr. Guise and wife, of Woodburn, are in the city visiting friends. Mrs. M. E. Peckler has returned from a health seeking sojourn in Southern California. Bob Hendricks, the live editor of the Statesman, of Salem, went up the road to Roseburg this noon. A class of ten or twelve will be formed this evening in the Del Sartre system of elocution and callisthenics, meeting with Miss Alice Moses, the elocutionist, who will have charge of the same.

A CLOSE CALL.—An altercation at Springfield Sunday morning between Will Pengra and Mulligan, the town marshal, came near resulting in the death of Pengra. The facts, as we learn them, are that Sunday morning Pengra turned out his horses to go to water. Mulligan took them up and put them in the pound. Pengra found them there sooa afterwards and was going to turn them loose when Mulligan interfered. They got to disputing over the law in regard to the case and went over to the recorder's office to look it up. While there they got into a warm dispute and Mulligan seized a tobacco cutter, weighing about eight or ten pounds, and struck Pengra on the top of the head, cutting a gash about four inches long and half an inch deep. Pengra was unconscious for sometime and was in a critical condition, but has recovered so as to be around. Had the gash been much deeper it would have resulted fatally. No arrests followed.—Eugene Guard.

THE REASON WHY.—Why is it that Klein Bros. can afford to sell boots and shoes so reasonable? Because they are both practical shoe makers and make part of their expenses by working on the shoe bench, any boot or shoe you buy of them, no matter what kind it is man, woman or child, that rip, run over or the sole rips loose they repair them for you free of charge, and as they do all the work themselves, they don't charge you 25 to 50 cents a pair extra for a warrant to pay some shoemaker to repair them for you. They also make a specialty of repairing rubber boots.

Second Regiment will hold an election at Salem Monday. A colonel and major will be elected, and Albany will probably get one of them. $47,474.61 were the receipts by the city of Salem last year. The disbursements were $46,545.88. The city's indebtedness is $84,945.10. Money is saved by buying a good article. Mathews & Washburn's long experience enables them to give customers the best goods that can be had for the least money. Live and let live is Mathews & Washburn's motto and we put only a fair margin on our goods and have what the people want. Call and look over our stock and carefully compare all the points of our stoves and ranges and we will have no trouble in selling you. Quality for the money is what Linn county people seem to want. And that is the reason Mathews & Washburn sell so many stoves. They ask a fair price for their goods and will not recommend anything that is not of the best. The Hon's are going towards Salem. There are plenty of hungry men for the different offices. J. H. Mitchell will undoubtedly be re-elected to the U. S. senate, and even the Oregonian is not fighting him. L. W. Lee, the general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, has been promoted to be assistant general passenger agent of the entire Union Pacific system with headquarters at Portland.

"THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS."

Electro-Magnetic Influence and Its Effects on the Human System.

As the world advances in age and the people becomes more enlightened, the old schools of medicine gradually give way to modern science. The God given powers of electricity and magnetism support the drastic drugs of the pharmacopoeia. The "nostrums internal" are only kept for human gargles. Among the most prominent professors of the new curative age are Drs. Darrin. Wondrous to relate they are especially successful in curing chronic, acute and private diseases, deafness and catarrh. It is not long since one restored to health Mrs. Olin Olin, of Portland, she had been sorely afflicted with chronic rheumatism of the knee joints, and not long since that Mr. George H. Peppenburg, a German, a resident of Tualatin, Or., who had been almost totally deaf ten years, was cured so he could hear as well as ever in his life, and the cure is permanent as shown by many of his neighbors visiting Drs. Darrin to be cured of all their chronic diseases. The certificates of cures made by these celebrated physicians would fill a volume. They embrace every disease to which humanity is exposed. The remedies are painless, almost pleasant and infallible. Drs. Darrin are entitled to great credit for their almost miraculous discoveries in their art of electro-magnetic healing. There is no known instance that they cannot conquer if patients will give the doctors a fair chance. Their offices 74 1/2 Washington street, Portland, are besieged with the lame, halt, deaf and blind, from 10 a m to 8 p m. They give free examinations and charge about half the ordinary fees of other physicians. Thousands are given home treatment by mail or express. Parties not able to come can send for question blank and circular free.
