

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Social dance at the Armory tonight. Chas. Parker, the blacksmith, recently a resident of this city, is now on the Sandwich Islands.

License to wed was issued to-day to J. M. Smith and Miss Lora Arthur, of Brownsville precinct.

Mr. E. B. Maple, a Seattle capitalist, is in the city, looking after his relatives. Mr. Maple says Seattle will soon be the second city on the coast.

Chas. J. Frank, a Milwaukee drummer, was in the city to-day. In going from Independence to Salem his back was tipped over, and Mr. Frank met with a very close call to a serious accident, but fortunately just escaped being injured.

Al McCully and Jeff Quinn, of this city, went to Albany last night, and from there they will go to Corvallis. The former will be first engineer on the steamer Wm. M. Pong and the latter his assistant. This fact would indicate that the Oregon Pacific boats will soon resume operations.

Capt. E. J. Lanning, Geo. Humphrey and Wm. Faber left this noon for Portland. They took with them an elegant gold headed cane, which a Democrat man inspected at the store of H. Ewert, this morning, which will be presented this evening to the person for whom it is intended, fully explained in the inscription, which reads: "Joe Webster, sr. Presented by his friends of Albany, Or. Jan 1st, 1891."

A class for the study of the Del Sarte system of elocution was organized last evening at the residence of Mr. D. P. Mason, with Miss Alice Moses as instructor. Miss Moses being a proficient teacher in the system, which evidently is not only a fine drill, but good physical exercise as nearly as the Democrat can learn. The class is composed of the following: Misses Gard, Brink and Morris, of the Central school, Miss Helen Crawford, of the Kindergarten school, Miss Lee Prather, of the College, Misses Hettie Miller, Lora Vance, Flora and Vesta Mason, Jennie Malin, Flora Redfield and Mrs. F. P. Nutting. The class will meet once a week for twenty weeks.

Mr. Jack Smiley recently returned with Mr. S. W. Paisley, from the east and will travel for his wholesale tobacco business. In his home paper, the Danville, Va. Register, the Democrat finds the following "sendoff" under the head "Gone to the Far West." "Mr. Jack Smiley, who for the past year occupied a responsible position with the job printing house of Graham & Walters in this city, left last night for Albany, Oregon, where he will embark in the wholesale tobacco and cigar business. Mr. Smiley is a gentleman, who will do to tie to active, energetic, intelligent and square all around. There is always a bright future before such a young man, and the Register predicts that Mr. Smiley will make his mark in the far west."

All Oregon banks show increased deposits. The mortgage tax law is not raining the depositors.—Journal.

Farmer Jones of Marion county certainly is having a cheequer career. His last wife having left him he is negotiating with a grass widow of Denver to unite fortunes, principally his.

The annual receipts at the Albany postoffice as shown by Postmaster Thompson's annual report, are $710,200, being $915 greater than last year.—Scio Press. That indicates a bigger business than Portland. San Francisco is the only other city on the coast doing a business of $710,200 a year.

Some people have a habit of saying everything is dull and quiet on all occasions. They would do it if there were a dog fight on First Street, a drunken row in an alley and every store was crowded. It is a very bad practice to lie that way unnecessarily. Things don't have to be at white heat to be moving. It isn't necessary for home people to be trading property at inflated prices in order to have matters stirring in the proper shape.

My dear, said she, when you go out be sure to send me some sauer kraut, You'll find it good at M. & G's. Who also keep that fine Swiss cheese, Chow chow, pickles and mackerel "off shore."

You'll find displayed at their front door: Teas, coffees, spices and sugars without sand. For cash they are selling cheaper than any other stand. Their clerks are kind and pleasant, And greet you with a smile; And as for waiting on you Its just in first-class style.

To-morrow Night.—The Swedish Concert company will appear for the first time before an Albany audience, and our citizens will be given a musical treat rarely if ever enjoyed in Albany. Competent musical critics declare that among the Swedish ladies' octette, are voices that will create a sensation in the world. They are not only sweet, rich and pure, but are the highest quality of soprano and contralto. Jennie Norelius, the first soprano, has a voice of wonderful compass, clear and pure which she uses in a faultless manner. Amelie Heden's contralto is simply startling in the extent of its range and peculiarity of quality. The Bruce sisters, one a soprano and the other an alto, will surprise the audience beyond measure. The program will include the Swedish folk song, an octette; also the celebrated Swedish "Wedding March," one of the grandest songs that has ever been sung. Among the solos will be Offenbach's "C'est Peppagne," by Elizabeth Bruce.

CHURCH TO BE ORGANIZED.—On next Sunday at 11 o'clock there will be a meeting at the Universalist church in this city for the purpose of organizing a congregation. All parties friendly to this movement are requested to attend.

"THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS."

Electro-Magnetic Influence and its Effects on the Human System.

As the world advances in age and the people become more enlightened, the old schools of medicine gradually give way to modern science. The God given powers of electricity and magnetism supplant the drastic drugs of the pharmacopoeia. The "moderns" are only kept for human gargyle. Among the most prominent professions of the new curative age are Dr. Barrin. Woodrums to relate they are especially successful in curing chronic, acute and private diseases, deafness and catarrh. It is not long since the restored to health Mrs. Olin Olin, of Portland. She had been sorely afflicted with chronic catarrh of the knee joints, and not long since that Mr. George J. Pennington, a German, a resident of Tualatin, Or., who had been almost totally deaf ten years, was cured so he could hear as well as ever in his life, and the cure is permanent as shown by many of his neighbors visiting Mrs. Barrin to be cured of all their chronic diseases. The certificates of cures made by these celebrated physicians would fill a volume. They embrace every disease to which humanity is exposed. The remedies are painless, most pleasant and infallible. Drs. Barrin are entitled to great credit for their almost miraculous discoveries in the art of electric healing. There is no known malady that they cannot conquer if patients will give the doctors a fair chance. Their offices 743 Washington street, Portland 4, are besieged with the lame, halt, deaf and blind, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. They give free examinations and charge about half the ordinary fees of other physicians. Thousands are given home treatment by mail or express. Parties not able to come can send for question blank and circular free.
