Oregon City, Jan. 12.—An accident occurred this morning about 10 o'clock by which George Blessing lost his life. He was hired as a wordchopper by Parker & Lauridson, who have the contract for furnishing wood for the paper mills. Blessing was sawing down a tree with a man named Dunnigan, and as it fell he was struck by a limb or part of the tree and knocked him down, the tree falling on him, killing him instantly. Blessing is a late arrival here, and was about 31 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12. - Tidlings of a severe storm on the New England coast and inland have been received from many points. At Birmingham, Conn., a freshet in the Housatonic river broke up the Ice and swept it over the medows and under and through bridges. Great damage was done and railroad communication interrupped.

Fine Ringe Agency, Jan, 12.—Up to most today the bostiles had not with the exception of a lot of squaws, made a move toward coming into the agency. Shortly after noon, however, the main camp of hostiles was proken and a rapid advance was made toward this point. This afternoon about 1000 of them had arrived to within about a mile of the pickets outside the agency.

Tonight there is no certainty as towhat the Indians will do. General Miles himself is in doubt as to what to expect of them, but confidently looks now for a settlement of the matter without fuyther blook-hed.
