MISFITS

Beil and Pentland have already dis-solved partnership in the West Side, of Independence. The Corvallis Times sar-castically gives the reasons as follows: "Belt refuses to play unless he can be the ring master and Pentland says he won't be the trick mule."

A couple years ago Hon R A Irvine in-troduced a bill to do away with a horde of unnecessary clerks for the committees in the legislature. But it was defeated. This year a like resolution has been passed and only five committees in each house will have one clerk apiece. A sensible move,

The editor of the Tillamook Headlight has published $20 timber land notices and 330 homestead notices. As he receives $510 apiece for the former and $5 the latter his income has been a pretty lively one, the cost of getting out the paper being small.

If items as first "set up" were always published there would need to be fighting editors for certain. For instance yesterday two items adjoined each other in the copy, one, about three young men returning from Salem and the other about a man

PROGRESS.

The first bill introduced in the house was by Jennings, for the creation of a Several bills appeared precinct assessor. on assessment and taxation, and there will be more. A bill by Killin provides that employes shall be paid not less than once in 30 days. Bills were introduced fixing rate of interest at 8 per cent, displaying Oregon's resources at the World's fair, a resolution in reference to the railroad commission.

In the senate Myers introduced a bill appropriating $3000 for the establishment of soda springs at Sodaville. Mr Myers also introduced bills amending laws of Oregon, defining and punishing criminal negligence. Bills were introduced by Veatch, repealing the R R commission law; by Crosno, authorizing the O P R R to issue bonds; several approprating in all about $40,000 for wag-on roads. Standing committees were announced. Weatheford, of this county, was placed on elections, federal relations and enrolled bills committees; Myers on claims, mines and engrossed bills, of course, being democrats, at the tail end. In the horse Welsh introduced a bill making licenses to sell liquor $400 and $200; also making legal rate of interest 6 per cent.

I gave her some of my medicine (Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla) thinking it might benefit her and as it was purely vegetable, knew it could do her no harm. To my astonishment she began to improve, within two weeks it was entirely healed and she s now as well as over.
