The use of the tooth-brush in connection with powders, washes or other treatment of the teeth should be gentle. B'eeding of the gums is always a danger signal. It shows that the skin has been broken, inviting the absorption into the system of any poisonous or foreign matters which may be present in the mouth. If the gums are very tender, a colt brash should be used, and used very gently, till they have bardened sufficiently to with stand more vigorous treatment. Even then the liability will be to err on the side of harsh-

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

At an End.

PINE RIDGS, Jan. 14.—At midnight everything is quiet in the hostile camp, although the scouts say some young bucks are indulging in a ghost dance. It was agreed between Miles and the Indians the hostiles would leave their present camp and pitch their tepees on the west side of White Clay creek immediately opposite and less than half a mile from the agency-buildings. It was also decided the Indians would surrender their arms to their restrictive chiefs to be turned over to Agent Pierce.

Denver Cel., Jan. 14.—The excitement in the lower house of the general assembly of Colrado, was at white heat today. This afternoon an appeal was demanded from the decision of the speaker, and when he refused to retain it a row began. A motion that the chair be declared vacant was carried by a vote of 29 to 19. The speaker then declared the house adjourned. The majority elected Judge White speaker to succeed Speaker Hanna, deposed, but the latter refused to vacate. A new segeant at-aims was sworn in, and A new segeant at aims was sworn in, and the house proceeded to do business on the floor of the assembly, while the deposed speaker, backed by his defenders, kept possession of the chair. Each house has adjourned to meet to-morrow morning.

An Exciting Chase.

An Exciting Chase.

McMinnville, Jan 14.—An exciting chase occured here today. Ulysses llenton, a prisiner jailed for grand larceny, dodged the sheriff when sent into the courrhouse basement for wood, slipped out, hired a horse and cart at a livery stable and started under lash on the road to Sheridan. The sheriff sent a deputy in pursuit. Travelers coming to town that that road brought tidings of the race and that the deputy was gaining on his man. After a hard race of fourteen miles he made the recapture and lodged benton in jail.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY.-Mr Joe Talt, CIRCULATING LIBRARY.—Mr Joe Talt, who organized a circulating library a year ago, and placed 100 books at the store of C E Browne!! has started out to increase the number of books by getting new members. It only costs $1.50 to become a member and each member has the right to read all the books in the library. This is a very cheap way to secure reading matter. Remember each member has the right to read any book in the library of any that may be pieced there by increase of membership. C E Brownell is librarian.
