ON THE SOUTHERN BOUNDARY.

January 12th.
The large barn owned by Mrs Smith was burned to the ground on the morning of Jan 6th. The entire contents of the barn, including a supply of hay, about one thousand bushels of oats, three or four hundred bushels of wheat, a wagon, cart, several sets of harness, mower, rake and other farming implements were burned. There was about $400 insurance on the barn and contents. The cause of the fire is unknown, but was probably the result of cigarette smoking.

Mrs Smith has been quite sick since her trip to Washington.

The Sunday School meets at private residences at present and considerable interest is manifested in it by the neighbors.
