It was by far the best minstrel performance that we ever had here. The music and singing were of a high order, while the fun was rolicking and pure. The stage setting in the first part was a work of art, and the same might be said of the costumes of the performers. Too NEAR ALIKE.—An article appeared in the last issue of the Mercury, relating to a letter found upon the street, referring to a married woman of Albina. The place should have read Albany instead of Albina, being a typographical error. This correction is made in justice to an eminently respectable lady bearing the same name, living in the moral city of Albina.—Mercury. People say that Al-bina is the most immoral city on the coast, and the Damocrar regrets the similarity of the names, and we suspect now the above is simply for the sake of get ting out of the rerape.

TANGENT.

January 19th, 1891.

Oh what a nice warm winter we are having in Oregon this winter. Emi-grants say if this is the kind of weather we have in Oregon every winter it is an exception of a winter. The farmers are still taking advantage of this beautiful weather plowing for their spring seeding.

Dr Rowland, formerly of Albany, is stopping with his son in-law, Mr Henry Hawley, in Tangent, for a few days. Uncle Jim Casev of Woodburn, a broth r-in-law of John Beard's has been spend ing a few days in Tangent and returned to his home yesterday, Our school will start up to-morroy again with a new corps of teachers, Mr.

Chas Howard acting as principal, and Miss
A Farrell, of Albany, as primary teacher.
Miss Farrell commenced her school last Tuesday morning and the scholars all seem to like her very well.

Mr Chas Crosby, one of H W Settle mire's old employes, of Woodbarn, is spending a few days in Tangent. Miss Nellie Mills is spending a few days at her brother's near Fern Ridge during the week.

Mr D M Hogan and wife started to go of the started to go to a dance across the river from Albany a few days ago, and when they got within a mile of Albany the springs broke and let both of them to the ground, falling in such a manner as to sprain them badly. They returned to their home and have been suffering from the sprains ever since.

Tangent is being blessed with another revival meeting, commencing on Friday hight of last week, conducted by W H Howard of the M E Church South.

Uncle John Beard is having his new residence finished on the inside. Mr B W Mills and son, and J F Beard, are the car

Mr H F Jackson left last week for The Dalles, to be gone all winter.

He says, "we have found it invaluable for keeping the system regulated. It divides the lead with a dryspeptial stomach and replaces the distressing sense of fulness and oppression with a feeling of case and relief. It is a perfect liver and bowed regulator. We have both been taking it for months. It is good to have heardy."
