A YEAR OR TWO AGO A SENSATIONAL REPORT.

Was circulated about finding two infant bodies in the reservoir at The Dalles. It proved a canard. THE PRESENCE OF THE HOP LOUSE.

(Phorodon humuli) in Oregon has been reported, careful examination of affected yards have been made and the results apparently corroborate the results of observations made in Europe and America contemporaneously by the Department at Washington. These results are summarized in the following paragraphs.

IT IS FOR THE PURPOSE OF GATHERING STATISTICS.

Upon this matter, that is, the varieties of plums preferred, and situation of plums with regard to hop yards, that this circular is issued, in order to record such facts in bulletin report, to be shortly issued, treating of remedies, etc.

IT IS HOPED AND EXPECTED THAT EVERY PROGRESSIVE HOP GROWER WILL INTEREST HIMSELF.

In answering the following questions: 1. Have your hops been affected the past year by hop lice? If so, to what extent financially, have you suffered? 2. Are there cultivated plums or prunes near your hops? What varieties? 3. Are there any wild plums, or plum seedlings near your hop field? What is their correct name? 4. What is the exact distance of these seedlings (mentioned in No. 3) from your hops?

CUTTINGS ARE DESIRED FROM CULTIVATED PLUMS AND PRUNES NEAR HOPS.

And from seedlings mentioned in 3 and 4. Send new wood. In every case give accurately name of fruit and its distance from hop yard; whether a few yards, rods, a mile, two miles or more. Postage on such packages is one cent for each ounce. An early reply is desired, and all replies should be in by Feb. 25th, 1891. Address: F. L. WASHBURN, Entomologist Experiment Station, Corvallis, Oregon.

GEORGE A. WERNER.

Geo. A. Werner, the well known book engraver, of 621 California St., S. F., writes to the Editor of the Democrat, that his wife has been taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla for months for liver trouble and indigestion with splendid results. He says, "we have found it invaluable for keeping the system regulated. It divides the lead with a dyspeptic stomach and replaces the distressing sense of fullness and oppression with a feeling of ease and relief. It is a perfect liver and bowel regulator. We have both been taking it for months. It is good to have handy."
