CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL RECORD.

A POOR START.—Prince Morgan, the well known darkey boy, of Shedd, has made a poor start in life. The DEMOCRAT mentioned a few months ago about how he secured a $500 run by forging a Wells Fargo check. Several days ago he left home for parts unknown, taking with him without permission a watch and some money. He was traced to Roseburg and brought home by one of the Conductors on the S. P. The watch was gone, and Prince declares was traded with a brakeman for a ride; but the brakeman denies it. Prince is now about 13 years of age, young enough to make a right about face movement and be a man.

THEATRICAL.—The Boston Opera Co. will be at the Opera House Friday and Saturday, giving a matinee Saturday afternoon, according to the program presented elsewhere. This company is highly spoken of by the press, giving first-class attractions in their line. Warner & Cranor propose furnishing our citizens with some superior attractions, of which the Boston Opera Company will not be the least, and are entitled to credit for their enterprise in the theatrical business. In the next few days the DEMOCRAT will give testimonials, showing the high standing of the Boston Opera Company.

THE ANXIOUS ONES.—The candidates for railroad commissioners named are legion. Among those prominently mentioned for the office are Hon Henry Rogers, of Salem; Hon T. J. Black, of Halsey; Hon J. W. Maxwell, of Tillamook; Geo. Wagner, the present clerk, and Mr. Cole, one of the present commissioners. The election will be held by the joint session of the legislature, and this will probably occur on Tuesday or Wednesday.—Statesman.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ALBANY BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION will be held in the Bank of Oregon parlor, on Friday evening, Feb. 20, 1891. This meeting is for the purpose of electing directors to serve for the ensuing year, and to hear the annual reports of the officers. Every stockholder should be present, either in person or by proxy.

DIPHTHERIA.—We are informed that a number of parents are keeping their children out of school on account of the diphtheria and then permit them to run at large on the street. A physician informs us that such children will be just as safe in school. It is said that the number of cases of diphtheria has been greatly exaggerated.

PORTLAND'S HARD TIMES.—Anent the "lightness" of the money market: A prominent citizen who borrowed $250,000 last week giving a mortgage on one of the prominent and valuable business blocks in the city, had to pay 7 1/2 per cent, and takes on the loan over to per cent per annum. A year ago this same loan could have been had for 5 1/2 per cent for the asking.—Welcome.

MEN AND WOMEN do not always agree, in fact they frequently disagree and seriously too, causing many divorces and collapses in the matrimonial market. One thing, though, they agree on, and that is that Conn & Hendrickson keep the kind of groceries one needs in housekeeping, they treat men and women alike and give them bargains in goods in their line. Call on them for groceries and produce.

LOADS OF GROCERIES are received daily by Mueller & Garrett, both by rail and boat. Cash figures are pleasing every one and this is the reason why they are doing so much business. If you want to save money buy your groceries of them. They do not have to give toys and presents to induce trade, as low figures and pure goods satisfy everyone.

CHEAP WOOD.—Good fir wood delivered to any part of Albany, for only $3 a cord. Leave orders at P. W. Spinks' lumber yard.

FOR SALE.—$500 to $1000 of household furniture in exchange for improved real estate. Inquire at office of OREGON LAND CO. January 22nd, 1891.

WANTED.—A lady wants a place to work in a small family. Call at this office.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—Mr John Samwell will take charge of the Albany Fish Market for the present. M. Hyde.

The best roast coffee in the city at Conrad Meyer's.

Keep it in your mind that Allen Bros. are keeping the kind of groceries the public demands. Their stock is a fine one.

Thos. Kay woolen mills blankets, flannels, men's, youth's and boy's clothing, for sale by G. W. Simpson's, agent, Albany, Oregon.

THE ONLY place in the city where East end tickets can be purchased is of W. L. Ester, at the Southern Pacific Co's ticket office.

"HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. For sale by G. W. Simpson, agents.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr Tony Klein, of Salem, spent Sunday in this city.

Mr Levi West and daughter arrived in Albany this noon from the Sound.

Mr A. B. McIlwain, who has been ill for some time, is reported a little worse.

Mr James Foster, jr., readmaster on the Oregonian R. R. spent Sunday in Albany with his many friends here.

Mr D. L. Crowder, who was recently arrested for impersonating an inspector in Kansas, is in the city, having furnished bail.

Mr Geo H. Keeney, who recently went south for the benefit of his health, is now at Phoenix, Arizona, and is reported much better.

The fortieth anniversary of the marriage of Rev and Mrs Sperry was recently celebrated at Brownsville in a becoming manner.

Miss Vesta Mason left Saturday on a visit to St. Paul, Wash., where she will be the guest of her cousin, Mr and Mrs Nat Redpath.

Mrs R. A. Irvine went to Eugene this noon on a visit with her daughter Mrs L. Bilyeu. This is Mrs Irvine's first outdoor experience since her recent illness.

A very enjoyable social gathering was given last evening at the residence of Mr E. L. Power, in honor of Miss Frankie Hopkins, who is here visiting Mrs Power.—Brownsville Times.

Miss Viola Teraple, of Rock Hill, visited friends in this place over Sunday. She went to Albany Monday to visit her sister, who is attending school there.—Brownsville Times.

Mr Walter S. Geary, the expert piano tuner, regulator and repairer, from Kohler & Chase's music house, of Portland, is in the city and will be ready to respond to orders for a few days, which may be left with G. L. Blackman.

T. J. Buford, of the Siletz Agency, was in this city today. The Indians there are doing remarkably well. Nineteen years ago they had a ghost dance, which satisfied them for a century.

F. S. Ingram was in Scio yesterday. He reported an immense time at the Salvation Army last night. There were about twenty conversions, in addition to thirty previously reported.

A despatch from Oakland, Cal., informed Mr Chas Pfeiffer that his wife and daughter expected to start for home on tonight's train. It will be learned with regret that the latter is not improved in health any.

Mr Thos Cundiff and family have arrived in Albany from Ratole, Mo., and will make this their home, probably settling on a farm in this county. Mr Cundiff is a brother of Mr B. W. Cundiff, with whom he is visiting for a few days.

Capt. Humphrey is in Salem attending the third house. He is looking after the welfare of a bill making minors who obtain liquor under false representations guilty of a misdemeanor.—Pendleton E. O.

Several weeks ago the DEMOCRAT mentioned the fact of a Portland woman running away from her husband and coming to Albany, where she was followed; but refused to return to her liege and lord. It was followed by a divorce, and this noon the woman again came to this city.

Yesterday was the day set apart by Calvary church to make an offering for the Board of Aid for colleges. Rev E. N. Condit, A. M., president of the Albany Collegiate Institute, occupied the pulpit at the morning service. His text was taken from Luke 11:34, "Behold this child is set for the fall and raising again of many in Israel," and John 12: 32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." The sermon was an able and scholarly production, and no short outline can be given that will do it justice. The address was listened to with profound attention by an audience that filled the church to the limit of its seating capacity. A generous offering was made at the close for the benefit of the Albany college, so ably represented in the person of its president.—Oregonian.

Try it.—Printers' ink when judiciously distributed will bring a multitude of customers to the counter and a stack of orders to the desk. It draws. It is a Patti at the footlights, a Booth in Hamlet, a Maud S. on the race track, a John L. Sullivan in the ring and a football contest. It takes experience and study to use printers ink to the best advantage, so that the largest returns will be obtained. Printers' Ink, published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., to Spruce St., New York, price $2.00 a year, is devoted to the art of advertising, pointing out in a manner that will impress, inform and through correspondence from men who have made the subject a life study—the best means for securing the greatest results by the use of printers' ink. An experience of twenty-five years has placed Geo. P. Rowell & Co., at the head of their profession, and this paper with the suggestive name may be considered as authority on the subject. Business men, regardless of the size of their business, will do well by subscribing for Printers' Ink.

THE REASON WHY.—Why is it that Klein Bros. can afford to sell boots and shoes so reasonable? Because they are both practical shoe makers and make part of their expenses by working on the shoe bench, any boot or shoe you buy of them, no matter what kind it is man, woman or child, that rip, run over or the sole rips loose they repair them for you free of charge, and as they do all the work themselves, they don't charge you 25 to 50 cents a pair extra for a warrant to pay some shoemaker to repair them for you. They also make a specialty of repairing rubber boots.

Stop just about in the middle of the block, on First street, south side, between Broadway and Ellsworth, and you will find a place where you can always get first-class groceries and fresh produce at reasonable prices and be well treated without extra price. The sign reads "Parker Bros." and everybody knows the name. Their stock of goods are the best. Their stock of goods generally is kept replenished to meet the demands of a growing trade.

MONEY TO LOAN.—We have plenty of money to loan on real estate security, on two to five years time. Call on us at our office, opposite the Revere house.

BURKHART & KERNY.—Cheddar cheese is the best. Try it. C. E. Brownell.

MISCELL.

Being unlike all other Oregon papers the Portland Mercury has a new head, unlike all other Oregon heads. Like its policy, which is to outline character in life, a sensational proceeding, too often founded on truth, the head is an outline one.

A religious revival has been in progress at Heppner of late, and among those who were converted was an elderly pioneer settler, who has been a little ahead of civilization along the frontier nearly all his life. The effect has been disastrous, as the old man came riding into Heppner a day or two since, telling the citizens that he had left his farm forever, and was going to preach the gospel. He imagines that he is the prophet Elijah.—Ex.

The Portland Mercury says: "One Bayard Rustin, who has been in Albany in the employ of a company in this city, is in no way connected with the Sunday Mercury. If any business has been done or attempted to be done for this paper by him or any other person it is without authority, and is hereby cancelled." We haven't heard of any Mr Rustin being here, and presume the Mercury is off the track.

Had Jimmie read the following from the Brownsville Times his famous articles on the Crown would probably never have been written: "We notice that the county court has honored a petition from Crawfordville sent in by Mr Robert Glass and 55 others, for a county road. We know nothing of the merits or demerits of the request in the petition, but it is evident that the county officials are beginning to realize that there are other portions of this county besides 'The Forks' and Albany. Honor to whom honor is due."

The mass meeting at Scio Saturday night for the purpose of considering the division question the DEMOCRAT is informed was attended by only a fair sized audience. Resolutions were passed, we understand, asking the Senate to reconsider the motion laying the bill on the table, and taking the DEMOCRAT to task for its position in opposing the division of Old Lin.

With the exception of Scott May, F. M. Daniels, Pete Smith and a few others very few of the citizens of even Scio were worked up over the matter. Outside of the city particularly a great many had rather not see any division, and will generally uphold the DEMOCRAT for taking a course it believes to be for the best interests of Lin county.

A SANTIAMER'S IDEA.

HAMILTON CREEK, OR., Feb. 14, 1891.

Editors Democrat:

As to a division of the county we have about given it up. We did not expect quite so much opposition at home. We surely could have nothing against those that remonstrated and was opposed to a division. This is a free country and men have a right to do as they please as long as they do not interfere with the rights of others, and in this instance there seems to be a conflict, each acting, as they thought, for the best. I do not think anything could be said in favor of division that would amount to anything at this time. Probably too much has been said already.

It now seems that I am like the negro woman when she was baptized in Virginia. When she came out of the water, she shouted: "Bless de Lord, I sees Jesus floating on de water." Her husband standing near stepped up and slapping her quietly on the shoulder, said: "Sally Ann, you stop dat talkin' right now. I saw dat it was a mud turtle; dat was not Jesus." So Santiamer county is a vision. We saw it floating on the water, but it was a mud turtle, and now I say, "stop dat." Some are thinking hard of our representatives. This is not right; they are only men like the rest of us (a little smarter surely) and in this they are doing what they think is the best for the county. That is their judgment. While I am of an independent turn of mind, and have cultivated that way of thinking, I do not expect favors from another that they cannot give; but on the old principle of "root, hog, or die," we are self supporting within ourselves. Give us a fair chance; let us buy where we can get the cheapest, and sell where we get the most. We do not want any China wall around us, but, in the language of men older than I, we simply want "free trade and sailor's rights."

A SANTIAMER.

One half dollar reduction on every pair of Ludlow's fine shoes. A good line of them at S. E. Young's.

MARRIED.

MILLER-MILLER.—At the residence of L. D. Miller, by Prof H. Allen Shorey, on Feb 15, 1891, John E. Miller and Emma Miller, both of Albany.

The DEMOCRAT congratulates the happy couple and extends the kindest wishes for a long and pleasant life.

BORN.

MORGAN.—On Saturday evening, Feb 14, 1891, near Shedd, Mr Henry Morgan, of catarrh of the throat, at the age of 24 years. The deceased was a son of Mr John Morgan, and was an industrious young man of good habits, whose death will be mourned by a large number of relatives and friends.

DIED.

STRONG.—On Monday morning, February 16, 1891, at the home of Mrs James Shields, in Albany, Major George M. Strong, aged 60 years. Major Strong came to Oregon in 1849 and to Albany in 1877. He was in business here on a small scale since, barely making a living, but keeping up courage, generally. He was in the U. S. service at one time and had many experiences there and on the plains. He was probably simply worn out at the time of his death, having had more than one man's share of the ups and downs in life. The Major possessed some good traits of character, and will be remembered kindly by a large number of our citizens.

HYDE.—On Sunday evening, February 15, 1891, of diphtheria, the seven year old daughter of Mr M. Hyde. A bright little girl, whose loss will be greatly mourned.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Plow plant roots for sale by J. H. Townsend. Buy your groceries of Parker Bros. Hullin & Dawson, druggists. Fine groceries at Conn & Hendrickson's. All rubber goods at cost at Klein Bros. Smoke the celebrated Havana filled 5 cent cigar at Julius Joseph's.

A large stock of wall paper, with late designs, at Fortmiller & Irving's, just received. See W. F. Read's line of dress goods and silks before buying elsewhere.

Bargains in choice groceries can always be secured at Allen Bros., Fifth Block. Washington, 50c a dozen, mending for men free at Mrs King's, just east of the Democrat office.

Yesterday evening a slight between several railroad men near the depot attracted considerable attention.

The dam across Rogue river, at Grants Pass, was washed out last Saturday and is a total loss. The late rains have raised the river several feet.

The regular meeting of the Y's will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4 p. m. at the W. C. T. U. Hall, to which all members are earnestly requested to be present.

A good sized Sabbath School is being run across the river, the attendance yesterday being 89. It is a union school and is called the Fairmont Sabbath School.

Mr A. H. Fruit, an experienced shingle maker, has established a shingle mill at Peoria. He will float a large lot of cedar blocks down from the McKennis for use in his mill.

Travel to the Bay is reported larger than on any previous winter, showing a big increase for winter. Mr Coll VanCleave, of Toledo, says $30,000 in money has been put into property at that place this winter from outside capital. Pretty good.

James Kincaid, the man arrested in Albany about a year ago on a complaint from East Portland, the matter being settled by the 63 year old villain marrying the 15 year old girl, is again getting notoriety in one of the Portland papers.

By special request we refrain from mentioning a little set to with six ounce gloves by which an athletic and popular citizen got a finger put out of joint, necessitating the use of a sling. The DEMOCRAT is always glad to keep such matters quiet, particularly during quiet times.

Special revival services were begun yesterday at the M. E. Church South, corner 3rd and Montgomery sts. Rev W. H. Howard, of Tangent, will be here this week to assist the pastor. Other ministerial help is also expected. Services every night this week and until further notice. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Disorders that affect the Kidneys.

Are among the most formidable known. Diabetes, Bright's disease, gravel and other complaints of the urinary organs are not ordinarily cured in severe cases, but they may be averted by timely medication. A useful stimulant of the urinary glands has ever been found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine which not only affords the requisite stimulus when they become inactive, but increases their vigor and secretory power. By increasing the activity of the kidneys and bladder, this medicine has the additional effect of expelling from the blood impurities which it is the peculiar office of these organs to eliminate and pass off. The Bitters is also a purifier and strengthener of the bowels, an invigorator of the stomach, and a matchless remedy for biliousness and fever and ague. It counteracts a tendency to premature decay, and sustains and comforts the aged and infirm.

F. S. OSGOOD.

F. S. Osgood, of Osgood Bros., the prominent druggist of Seventh and Broadway, Oakland, in a letter to the Editor of the Albany Democrat, says: "We have no preparation on our shelves, that shows such results as Joy's Vegetable Sanifixer. A customer of ours living on Sixth St., tells us that it relieved her almost immediately of her dyspepsia and another on Broadway reports that three bottles entirely cured him of his constipation. A year ago we only bought a sixth of a dozen bottles at a time. Now we buy it by the gross. It recommends itself."

AFFLICTED FIFTY YEARS.

And the Method Mr Chamberlain Adopted to Get Relief—Mr W. S. Case's Experience with Dr Darrin.

For the Oregonian: Woollen fall to secure to ourselves the results of the operations of a system, by requiring too much of it listening to a doctor or allowing ourselves to find fault with those who operate or represent the same. I had consulted for many years physicians successful in treating "acute diseases," but could not get relief for kidney and liver trouble and neuralgia of the stomach of over fifty years standing, until I came under Dr. Darrin's "Electric treatment." But, thanks to Dr. Darrin's Grace, these troubles are a thing of the past, if others care for particulars affecting my illness I will answer their questions in behalf of the afflicted.

Another Wonderful Cure.

BAY CITY, Or. Jan 13, 1891.

Editor Oregonian: For nine months prior to calling on Dr Darrin, I had been afflicted with a burning pain back of my neck and spine, which finally settled in my kidneys. My liver and stomach became deranged and rheumatism commenced to develop. In that deplorable condition I came to Dr Darrin. With two months home treatment, I rejoice to say I am cured of my stomach, liver and kidney troubles.
