LOCAL RECORD.

A BILK.—Mr J M Madison, who has been wharf agent of the Oregon Pacific at this city for about two months, left last Friday, with his wife, for Portland and parts unknown, and it now transpires that Madison was a first-class dead beat, though he came here with fine testimonials. The facts in the case were made public last night, but too late to get hold of Mr Madison. While here, though a perfect stranger, he seemed to be able to get credit at will and left owing L E Blain, $70; F M French, $65.90; W F Read, $40; E C Searls, $35; H J Sower, $17; J A Cumming, $12.50, and Klein Bros, $7.50. Mr French and Mr Blain had time vouchers which were registered. Mr French will not lose anything and Mr Blain little. A couple garnishee suits were brought; but his wages were more than paid, besides he had taken away about $14 collected at the wharf. He also tried to sell some time vouchers, filled out by himself, and endeavored to settle his board bill of $29 with Mrs Murray with the like worthless paper; but she refused to allow his trunks to go without cash, and it was presented. Madison was agent at Lyons for awhile. He is what is called a rotten egg. As a business speculation merchants need a warning like this occasionally. The truth is, though, that Madison was introduced by men whose good word very naturally put them off their guard.

YAQUINA RAY.—One of the most violent thunder storms that has visited this section for a long time passed over town today, but we have not heard of anyone being struck by lightening, at least not of that sort.

Mr Stearns, the enterprising Alsea farmer, has demonstrated that cranberry culture is a success on the coast streams and his vines, that were not washed out by the flood last winter, yielded some 20 barrels of fine berries, that are fully equal to the Cape Cod berry.

Charlie Kennedy, of the O P, has let a contract to dyke his fine body of tide land above Toledo. He will have a valuable piece of property wher he gets it finished.

Mr John Stimpson has returned after a two months tour east. He says he is glad to get back to Oregon as he realizes what cold weather and hard times are like both on the same plate. He asserts that the people of Oregon don't know the rule that hard times is worked out by in the east.—Republican.

A PAMPHLET.—On the DEMOCRAT's table is a pamphlet entitled "Souvenir," in red script, followed by "The Willamette Valley and its Principal Cities and Towns." It is well printed on nice paper and has some merits. With a few exceptions, though, its illustrations are a very cheap John lot of pictures. They do not represent Oregon in a very flattering style, in fact many of them are decidedly ubiquitous, and have probably been used for other scenes. Albany is not represented at all. Forty-three of our business men invested in small ads and writeups for prices ranging around $10 apiece, some of whom cannot be hired to advertise in the local papers that reach the people with whom they trade. The writeup of Albany is a fairly good one. The DEMOCRAT is always in favor of enterprise; but some times it is a good idea to keep ones eyes open.

A SUSPENDED BISHOP.—The Evangelical Association has been agitated over the question whether one Bishop Esher had been examined and suspended from the functions of his office, at a certain trial held at Reading, Pa., according to the church discipline. According to the decision rendered by Judge Pleasants of the supreme court of Illinois, that trial was held in a lawful manner and according to discipline, and it judicially determined that Bishop Esher is a suspended bishop.—Corvallis Times. We have forgotten which side this defeats, and predict that the Times will be charged with prevarication.

A GREAT SUCCESS was scored at the Imperial opera house, last night, by the Boston Gaiety Comic Opera company, who presented the comic opera "Mascotte" to the people of Vancouver. As it is a considerable period since a comic opera has been presented here, it is no wonder that a crowded house greeted them. The performance was from beginning to end a great success. The audience throughout were kept in a perfect roar of amusement.—Daily Register. The company will be at the opera house Friday and Saturday.

TO-NIGHT.—Special convocation of Bailey Chapter No. 8, this Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the Royal Arch degree.

GEO. E CHAMBERLAIN, H. P.

WANTED.—The undersigned wants to buy a good fresh milch cow. Inquire at depot hotel at Albany.

J A GROSS.

WANTED, to rent an organ for several months. Call at the DEMOCRAT office.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Albany Building & Loan Association will be held in the Bank of Oregon parlor, on Friday evening, Feb 20, 1891. This meeting is for the purpose of electing directors to serve for the ensuing year, and to hear the annual reports of the officers. Every stockholder should be present, either in person or by proxy.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

W B Stout, of Newport, was in the city today.

Mrs Henrietta Brown went to Portland yesterday on W C T U business.

Mrs Jos Hamilton, of Oakville, a pioneer lady, is reported dangerously ill.

Mr John Althouse is at his post of duty after being confined to his home for several weeks.

Mr A Y Smith, of Oakville, was in the city to-day working up a scheme for a motor line from this city to Oakville.

Miss Edith Harris, of Salem, is in the city, the guest of Mrs George. Miss Harris is now a music teacher with a large class of pupils.

The social announced to be given by the ladies of the M E Church Friday evening, at the residence of Mr Brown, has been postponed until further notice.

E H Dunham, late superintendent of the O. P., has purchased some land near Brown's mill, and will move there with his family from Corvallis.

Hon Thos Cauthorn is very sick at his home in this city. He contracted a severe cold while at Salem last week and was brought home on a special train Saturday evening.—Corvallis Times.

Mrs Chas Pfeiffer and daughter, Carrie, arrived home from California this morning. Miss Carrie stood the trip remarkably well until she reached the California line, after which it did not agree with her and she was quite weak on reaching Albany.

A. C. L. S. C. FEAST.

Last evening a special meeting of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, of this city, was held at the residence of Mr C E Wolverton, several invited guests being present. A delightful experience was had. It was a feast of sociability as well as of literature. A short program was presented, with Longfellow as the author of the evening. Miss Flora Mason read a sketch of Longfellow's home; Misses Hettie Miller and Alice Moses were heard in recitations from that favorite author, and a short exercise in rhetoric was engaged in generally. The remainder of the evening was spent in history, crokinole and other games, and in partaking of a nicely served and delicious bill of fare, programs for which were distributed among the guests as follows:

"Pray you sit down, for now we sit to chat as well as eat."

Sandwiches.—"The staff of life. 'Tis a dish I like not. I cannot abide my lady tongue."—[Shakespeare.

Salad.—"I warrant you there's vinegar and pepper in it."—[Twelfth Night.

Mixed Pickles.—"Heavens, what a pickle we are about to get into."—[Old Saw.

Assorted Cake.—"My cake is dough."—[Taming of the Shrew.

Oranges.—"Sun-kissed darlings of the south."—[Unknown.

Coffee.—"Drink fit for the Gods."—[Anon.

"Who rises from a feast with that keen appetite that he sits down?"

Those present were Mr and Mrs C E Wolverton, Dr and Mrs G W Maston, Prof and Mrs E N Condit, Mrs Judge Flinn, Mr and Mrs S E Young, Misses Alice Moses, Flora Mason, Adda George, Annie and Catherine Althouse, Elizabeth Irvine, Hettie Miller, and F P Nutting.

STATE LEGISLATURE

SALEM, Feb. 18, 1 p. m.—Portland consolidation bill has passed both houses with senate amendments. P.

SALEM, Feb. 17.—Veatch's bill abolishing the railroad commission passed the senate, 16 to 12. Weatherford and Myers voted aye. Story's bill to establish a state mining bureau and state mineralogist and geologist, passed the house.

The bill appropriating $25,000 for agricultural college buildings, passed in the senate. Holmes' bill promoting drainage, etc, passed. Henry's road bill was read third time. Raley's bill punishing minors over 16 years of age getting liquor under false pretenses, passed. Sinclair's bill limiting hours of labor to eight hours passed.

In the house Baker's bill preventing all male animals running at large, passed. Killian's bill repealing mortgage tax law was laid on the table. House refused to concur in senate joint resolution to adjourn at 12 o'clock Friday night. Johnson's bill creating Cascade county was indefinitely postponed. Baker's bill for a soldiers' home, failed to pass. McAllister's bill for a new estray law, passed. Story's bill for a state mining bureau and state mineralogist passed, having already passed the senate. Veatch's senate bill to repeal the railroad commission law; motion to idenfinitely postpone lost, 24 to 30.

SEE just about in the middle of the block, on First street, south side, between Broadalbin and Ellsworth, and you will find a place where you can always get first-class groceries and fresh produce at reasonable prices and be well treated without extra price. The sign reads "Parker Bros.," and everybody knows the name. Their baked goods are the best. Their stock of goods generally is kept replenished to meet the demands of a growing trade.

QUARTZVILLE.

Far up in Quartzville City,
With the Cascade summit near,
The mountains of noble grandeur,
Bring thoughts to memory dear.

Thoughts of days long since gone by,
When the city was full of men.
And perhaps before another year,
They will all be back again.

The hills are full of yellow gold,
The ledges still are here,
Galena ore on every side,
While lead and tin are near.

Now up in Quartzville City,
They have a Comstock lode;
No packing o'er long mountain trails,
For they have got a road.

Come brothers of the pick and pan,
Why haste so far away,
A fortune lies within your grasp,
Gold mines are sure to pay.

Come partners all and shoulder arms,
No matter where you roam,
And start upon the dear old trail,
And bid farewell to home.

Now all you doubting people
Think this a boomers trick,
Just go and see at Albany
Lanning's Big Gold Brick.

Waterloo, Or., Feb. 17th, 1891.

JESSE D. BROWN.

MISCETS.

The Cascades mountains are full of snow. Several feet in the Santiam mines will probably necessitate a suspension of work for awhile.

The Salem Journal says Hon F C Hanzard of this county makes short speeches, pays close attention to each speaker's remarks and then votes in a careful manner. Oftener no than yes.

Here is another railroad straw, from the Yaquina Republican: The advance guard has left Albany for the front to get the plant ready for work to commence in earnest by the 1st of March. We have it from good authority that the railroad will be pushed this summer and in all probabilities will reach the state line before the summer is gone.

As a certain young knight of the square and jack plane who had been giving too much spare time to the Jack of Clubs was sliding out of town recently, a neighbor whom he owed a V asked him at the depot, "Have you been playing poker for money?" Dead-Broke replied: "No; but the fellows I have been playing with have."—Oregon City Courier.

The spirit of the age has struck even the hens. The Ashland Record says: Benjamin Eggleston has a hen that has established a nest in the center of his flower garden, in the most conspicuous part of his front yard and deposits an egg regularly every day except Sunday. If anybody can show another case of such a perfect typical Christian training in the lower animals, they should report at once to this office.

BROWNSVILLE.

February 16th, 1891.

County division has cooled down for the present, and all are busy at work and nothing out of the usual line to relate.

A good time was had on the evening of the 12th of this month at the residence of Rev C Sperry, the occasion being the 40th anniversary of wedded life of Mr and Mrs Sperry. A family reunion was had, all of their children being present, six in number.

W R Kirk has been quite sick for the last week, but is getting better at this writing and now sits up some.

All of our miners are happy now and can be seen in small groups talking and winking at each other, the occasion being the wagon road bill for $5000 and mills in the spring.

H B Moyer lost a boom of logs one day last week, consisting of about 500,000 feet. This will seems to have hard luck with their logs, as they lost many last winter.

Sam and Ed Sawyer each lost a valuable cow last week by foundering.

ON THE SOUTHERN BOUNDARY.

Feb. 16, 1891.

Lots of snow on the mountains. Lots of water in the valley.

Miss Alma Allingham is attending school at Coburg.

Mr H L Kizer and Miss Dunn, of Center precinct were visiting friends here a few days ago.

Mr Frank Tilton will teach a term of school in the Bogard district the coming summer.

Mrs Locke's cottage is nearing completion.

Mrs E J Willoughby is in Eugene at present, under the care of a physician. She will probably return home this week.

Perry Smith and family have moved to Junction.

Mr Douthit has sold his farm to a gentleman of Crook county, who will take possession as soon as the present tenants lease is out. Mr Douthit was for many years a resident of this locality, moving to Crook county about eight years ago.

Mrs Smith has built a large new barn.

MEN and women do not always agree, in fact they frequently disagree and seriously too, causing many divorces and collapses in the matrimonial market. One thing, though, they agree on, and that is that Conn & Hendricson keep the kind of groceries one needs in housekeeping, they treat men and women alike and give them bargains in goods in their line. Call on them for groceries and produce.

LOADS OF GROCERIES are received daily by Mueller & Garrett, both by rail and boat. Cash figures are pleasing every one and this is the reason why they are doing so much business. If you want to save money buy your groceries of them. They do not have to give toys and presents to induce trade, as low figures and pure goods satisfy everyone.

The Foxes of the Santiam will certainly have no complaint to make to the number of jurymen it gets. Several precincts on this side do not get any at all.

Monday night a would-be burglar attempted to enter the residence of Mr A B McIlwain, but happened to try to turn an alarm clock knob, which quickly frightened him away.

Among the new institutions in Albany there is talk of a book bindery, job office and Weekly newspaper combined. At least an Eastern man has been prospecting in the matter.

A swelling sash caused one of the large windows in the Linn County Bank to break, and a new one is being inserted. A large and delicate job, as well as a costly one, the glass costing upwards of $100.

The DEMOCRAT to-night does not hear of any dangerous cases of diphtheria. The few who have it are afflicted only in a mild form. In nearly all cases the children being up and around the house. It pays to be careful, though, and to remember that an ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure.

The Grant county News has a pessimistic kind of editor, judging from the following: About the only important dispatch in the Oregonian's legislative column is the stereotyped one that "the senate was opened with prayer." One day it was not opened with prayer, there being no clergyman present. The big daily did not say how the senate got open, but it is presumed it was opened up with a cork screw.

F. S. Osgood, of Osgood Bros., the prominent druggists of Seventh and Broadway, Oakland, in a letter to the Edwin W. Joy Co., July 12th, says, "We have no preparation on our shelves, that shows such results as Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. A customer of ours living on Ninth St., tells us that it relieved her almost immediately of her dispepsia; and another on Broadway reports, that three bottles entirely cured him of his constipation. A year ago we only bought a sixth of a dozen bottles at a time. Now we buy it by the gross. It recommends itself."

SPEAKING OF DR DARRIN.

The first thought of almost every one on hearing a good story is to find some one else to whom it can be told. Some people make a few stories stand them in good stead for a long time, and a tale is told of a Vermont man who had just one story, and who told that on every possible occasion. Not so with Drs Darrin. They give a new story of cures every week, or the almost miraculous effect electricity has on some afflicted mortal. If you doubt any longer their ability, call on some of the following who have been cured. Robert Hardy, Etna, Wash—Lucy B Wood, Bloomsburg, Cal—Wm Parrott, Middleton, Or—E Anderson, Salem, Or—D W Emmett, Salem.
