

OBITUARY.

Died at Plainview, Feb. 14th, 1891, Mr. Henry Morgan, of tonsillitis. Mr. Morgan was the son of John and Prudence Morgan. He was 26 years old at the time of his death. Henry was an unusually bright boy, temperate, faithful, honest, industrious and truthful, which made him a general favorite with all the people in this vicinity. He never quarreled nor had an enemy during his life-long residence here. He has now gone and rests in peace on the other side of that mysterious stream. The family have the true, honest sympathy of the entire neighborhood. Peace to his ashes. F. M. S.

LEBANON.—One hundred and fifty houses will be built in Lebanon this year says a conservative.

Rev A. Marcellus will remove to Oakland soon to take charge of the Presbyterian church at that place.

Rev Lamar, pastor of the First Baptist church, Lebanon, makes his home with his cousin, S. O. Wallace.

The new city council have decreed the Lebanon liquor license shall be $600. Some regard this too high while others think it is too low. The editor's private opinion is that if liquor selling be a good thing, everybody ought to sell it; if it be a bad thing, let nobody sell it.—Express.
