THE JOURNAL OF SOCIETY.

E. D. MANN, Proprietor.

PUBLISHED (New York) EVERY THURSDAY.

"Between the lines of reality and opinion to read great lessons of life, morality and hope."

The newest, brightest, wittiest, cleverest, most original, and most entertaining paper ever published.

A complete and perfect journal for cultivated men and women, being a topical and up-to-date chronicle of the events, doings, interests and tastes of the fashionable world. It is always up to date, and carries with it the atmosphere of the metropolis.

In purity and power of literary style it has no equal on this continent.

A valuable synonym of wellbred satire; deftness and distinctness of touch; strength, independence and originality of thought; refined humor; caustic comment; pungency of jest; short stories, musical, dramatic, literary and art criticism, and topical sketches.

The fame of its Financial Department, as the most reliable authority on financial subjects, investments and speculation, is world-wide.

Its interest is by no means local, being the recognized journal of American society, it is equally entertaining in all parts of the country.
