LOCAL RECORD.

No 8 was Wm R Finley and Margaret Tompleton, on May 13, 1852, by Rev Wilson Blain. No 12 was L. S. Helm and Amanda Haley, on Aug 22, 1852, by Eobt. Huston, J. P. Robert Glass and Jane Gray were married on Feb 8, 1853, by Wilson Blain; W F Alexander and Anna Newman, on Feb 15, 1853. Dr S G Irvine's first ceremony was that of James M. Hanson and Mary J. McCartney, on Jan 3, 1853. His next was that of John Smith and Elizabeth S Young. The names of Jacob Powell and Benj Simpson appear at the bottom of some of the certificates of those days. No 52 was Wm Ralston and Laura Deuny, on March 10, 1853, by Rev Luther I Woodward. Adam Seethine and Louisa Nanny were married on Jan 26, 1854. Oliver P Coshov and Sarah E Cochrane on Sept 15, 1853, and so the record, an interesting one, continues.

STREET PAVEMENTS.—The city of Salem is contemplating paving several blocks on Commercial street in that city, and as the matter of pavement is also of vital interest to Albany, we give the figures of city surveyor Gesner on different kinds of pavement, as follows: Vitriol brick, laid over broken brick; cedar blocks, over broken rock; square stone blocks (Belgian paving) over concrete or broken rock; asphaltum, over concrete. The estimated costs of paving the streets in the several manners is, by the square yard, as follows: Brick, $2 75—probably less, depending on the price of vitriol brick; cedar blocks, $2 50; stone cubes, $3 50; asphaltum, $4. The cost of paving four blocks on Commercial street, and the same amount would probably pave six of our blocks, which are shorter, and our streets just two-thirds the width, would be, including pavement of street car tracks, brick, $34,405.25; cedar blocks, $31,277.50; Belgian, $43,788.50; asphaltum, $50,044.

A COMMERCIAL HISTORY OF ALBANY.—The Democrat is glad to commend merit where it is due, as it is free to condemn wrong where it sees it. The Metropolitan Publishing Co. are getting up a Commercial History of Albany, which, judging from the company's work in other cities, the Democrat believes to be a commendable thing, in fact by far the best ever attempted here. The illustrations will be purely of Albany scenes, and the previous work of the company indicates that they will be of a very high order. The writers are to show the commercial importance of the city. We believe the work when completed will be one our citizens will take a pride in sending back east to their friends. Spokane Falls and other Washington cities have spent thousands of dollars in such works. Albany may well invest several hundred in what promises to be a worthy production. Put your money in good things and keep it out of shoddy affairs is a good motto.

ACTION NOW.—The City Council should immediately take steps for joint action with the County Court for the construction of a bridge over the Willamette at this city. There should be no delay. The people of Albany have expressed themselves emphatically on this question. They want a bridge almost to a man. No comment on this part of the subject is necessary. Action is the war cry now. The people of Albany and Linn county are in a good condition now to build it. Let's have no excuses. Excuses are lame anyway. Will the Council move in the matter at once.

A NEW GOLD SEPARATOR.—Albany and Corvallis have both had their inventive geniuses in mining machinery. Now comes one from Pomeroy, Wash, who is to revolutionize mining. The Independent says: "This city will some day feel proud of an inventive genius now in our midst and who has patented a device for saving gold that will revolutionize mining and bring an income to the inventor that will place him along side Croesus in point of wealth. It is useless to attempt a description of the invention in its process of doing its work. Centrifugal power will do the work of separating the quartz or refuse from the gold in a cylinder coated with quicksilver and run at a high rate of speed. The great paper of Munn & Co will soon have a full description of this machine accompanied by cuts."

NOTICE.—Each subordinate grange is requested to elect three delegates to attend a County convention at Sand Ridge Grange Hall on the first Saturday in April next at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, to elect representatives to the State Grange for the ensuing year. R A IRVINE, Deputy.

FOUND.—On the streets of Albany today a pocket book containing some valuable papers. Owner can have the same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

WANTED.—A lady wants a place to work in a small family. Call at this office. Just arrived a full line of ladies', childrens', men's and boys' foot wear at G W Simpson's, which will be sold at bottom prices.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

E D Hagen, the miner, of Brownsville, was in the city to-day. Mr Cass Humphrey, of the state printing office, is in the city. Prof Mitchell, who has been teaching school near Elkhed during the fall and winter, is in the city.

Frank Dorris returned to Albany last night after an absence of several months at Portland, Seattle and other places. Dr Henry, of Brownsville, was in the city today on his way home from Salem, where he has been most of the time for several months.

The Anniversary exercises of the Woman's Crusade, held at the W C T U hall last evening, were of an interesting order. Short and entertaining addresses were delivered by the president of the W C T U, Mrs E F Sox, and Mrs Dr McAllister. Songs were rendered by the Baptist male quartet and a mixed chorus, and Rev I H Hughes, of the Christian church, delivered the address of the evening, a bright, thoughtful effort.

The Apollo club reception last evening at the residence of Mr and Mrs E E Goff, was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. After the rendering of several selections of music by the Apollos, the company, which consisted of the members of the club, their wives, and a few invited friends, was tendered an elegant lunch prepared by the hostess. The time was then spent in social intercourse until a late hour, when the company returned to their various homes feeling that the evening had been one of profit.

OAKVILLE.

This winter, especially the last three weeks, has been very hard on stock. D E Junkin has lost four head of cattle and has two more down. C W Yates has one cow on the lift. The fore part of the winter was so nice that this sudden change has got away with the stock.

H M Stone is grubbing on the land he recently bought of the Smith estate; he intends to plant out a large peach orchard.

The winter term of school closed last Friday. Work has not commenced on the A & O motor line, but the people of Oakville are doing their part of the talk. They are able with that kind of capital.

Canadian Farmers' Wife throws out a hint that she knows Amicus. It may be possible that she does, if so please not give us away. We would ask why she does not sign herself "Carpenter's Wife," or "School Marm." Perhaps we don't know you?

The steamboats have been running above Corvallis the past week, for the first time this winter.

Mrs Hamilton, a pioneer lady, is lying dangerously ill at her home near here.

Mr Will, of Albany, was here the fore part of the week. Come again, and help us with our motor line "gas works." We might call it the "gas-o-line."

FINE OIL PAINTINGS.—Mr A W Best, who has been conducting a large class in Salem, has an exhibition in the store opposite Stewart & Sox, on First street, a valuable collection of the most noted and picturesque views on the Pacific coast, the result of three years' sketching, and which are pronounced by all who have seen them, to be the finest ever exhibited in Albany. He has also some figure pieces by Tojetti, the famous San Francisco artist, who is acknowledged by all to be second to none in flesh tints. The object of this exhibition is to give the public an opportunity to judge of Mr Best's work, as he is here to organize a class in oil painting, and all who are interested in art should call and see him. They will be on exhibition for the next two weeks, during the day and evening.

IT HAS BEEN TRIED.—How to get a home in a good country having a delightful climate, and how to assure an income of $2000 per annum from an investment of $2000.

The Willamette Valley is the natural home of the prune. The cost of a ten acre orchard, not including interest, is $1250, including first-class cultivation for two years on the installment plan.

Applicants, pears, peaches, plums and cherries are all prolific bearers and can substitute for any of these the prune. We plant just such varieties as the purchaser may select.

MISSITS.

Money is what counts. For that reason no counting is being done at present in this precinct.—Grant County News.

"Sarah I Wager—Will B Happy," forms a unique combination of names under the list of "Married" in a recent number of a Chicago paper.

In its last issue the Malheur Gazette says: "We stop the press to marry Morg C Logan to Mrs Ella Kinzie at the Vale Hotel. Particulars next week." The editor is probably a J. P., like many editors sort of a jack of all trades.

How to dispose of the Indians has been thoroughly and promptly settled in an illustration in Puck, just out. It is to send a Salvation Army into their country.

Some men made more money on the Lake Labish accident than they will make in several years otherwise; but they are entitled to it, and no one envies them the fact. The poor men who were killed can never be paid in money value.

In the general appropriation bill passed by the legislature is an item of $1,705 for repayment to Clatsop county for care of non-resident poor. Now the question arises, why is Clatsop entitled to an appropriation for keeping non-resident poor any more than Linn or any other county.

The chicken with gold in its crop has been re-discovered; this time the bird is in the Nehalem and a resident of this city, of undoubted veracity, is authority for the story. The gentleman in question owns a timber claim in the valley, and while there last week had occasion to slaughter a chicken. In splitting its windpipe some glittering particles fell out, which on examination proved to be virgin gold of the character designated as shot gold. Arguing that there is a place mine on the place the gentleman proposes doing some prospecting.—Astorian.

Oregon is to have $50,000 worth of which to make an exhibit at the World's Fair. The money had just as well be thrown into the Columbia river for all the good it will do. We hope the governor will veto it.—East Oregonian. The Senate did the vetoing, nevertheless the bill should have passed. Oregon should have made a showing at least. As it is we will have to rely on the real estate men and boards of trade for a representation in Chicago.

The following original item appears in the Astorian: Amid the slush of yesterday a man wandered down Third street and stopped in front of a pile of trunks. On one was the legend:

This size for $10. "So do I," said the wanderer, as he passed on. Now who sees the point at the first glance.

Governor Pennoyer yesterday received official notice from Hon James G Blaine, secretary of the state department at Washington, of the apportionment of representatives in the fifty-third and each subsequent congress under the eleventh census. It was issued on the 10th day of the present month, and bears the great red seal of the state department with the usual amount of red ribbon attached, and also the secretary's autograph—which resembles more the first scribbling of a beginner in penmanship than anything else.—Statesman.

One of the results of senatorial elections will be to transfer Gov. Hill, of New York, to the senate, and leave his place to be filled by Lieut.-Gov. Edward F Jones, favorably known to thousands of farmers in the Empire State as the scale manufacturer of Binghamton. The Jones who says the freight has a popularity which ordinary politicians cannot affect, as is shown by the fact that two years ago he ran 4000 votes ahead of his ticket, and received more votes than were ever cast in a contested election for any state office.

Several young men wish to know what young lady desires a reform in the social relationship of the sexes, agreeing in the idea that there should be a higher plane in the intermingling of young men and women. Well, her name is that of most intelligent and high-minded young women. She wants an association without sentimentality alone, necessarily. Any sensible young woman will be glad to receive the company of young men of good character and spend an evening with them in an interchange of their best thoughts on the live topics of the day, literature, etc, with the idea that it is necessary for them to occupy one chair, left out, and with the idea established that it is not to be confined to one or two alone; nor that a love watch is necessary. Give them all a chance to know you. Talk sense; don't gossip; do not gush; let your minds run in good channels and your ambitions be pure ones. If marriage licenses are required they will be founded on a better sentiment than that of most of them nowadays.

STOR just about in the middle of the block, on First street, south side, between Broadalbin and Ellsworth, and you will find a place where you can always get first-class groceries and fresh produce at reasonable prices and be well treated without extra price. The sign reads "Parker Bros.," and everybody knows the name. Their laked goods are the best. Their stock of goods generally is kept replenished to meet the demands of a growing trade.

MEN and women do not always agree. In fact they frequently disagree and seriously too, causing many divorces and collapses in the matrimonial market. One thing, though, they agree on, and that is that Conn & Henderson keep the kind of groceries one needs in housekeeping, their bargain men and women alike and give them treatment in goods in their line. Call on them for groceries and produce.

"Foot prints, friends, are what we live for. Every day we're making more. So if now you're in misery, Go at once to Seal's Shoe Store."

For lame back, or side chest, use Shilsh Porous Plaster. Price, 25 cents.

A dressed sheep in front of Shultz Bros, meat market was marked 105 lbs. That is large for mutton.

P B Beckley, of Oakland, has been presented with $5000 in liquidation of his damages he received in the Lake Labish accident.

The City Council meets to-night. Not yet having a transcript of the new charter, it is probable nothing will be done under it at the meeting.

The Oregon Bank, of this city has completed arrangements by which it can draw town drafts on all the principal cities of the world.

It wasn't Col Hogg, after all, though men who knew, stated positively that the Col. had arrived, in fact coming to the road. But the Col. is coming shortly, or later.

Another big land slide in the Cow Creek canyon is looked for. An avalanche has started down the mountain and is looked for at the bottom sometime within a few days.

Rev J H Hughes will lecture at the W C T U Hall to-night on "Ingersoll the Blasphemer." An admission of 10 cents will be charged. The address promises to be a good one.

The boot and shoe firm of Luderman & McGrath are repairing and enlarging their storeroom preparatory to receiving a line of Brownsville clothing.—Baker City Democrat.

The meetings at the M E Church South will be continued during the week and until further notice. Much interest is being awakened. Rev D C McFarland P E is assisting Rev Mr Shangle.

Don't fail to see our men's and boys' clothing before purchasing elsewhere. We sell the best clothing for the least money of any house in the city. Look and be convinced. G W Simpson.

The Baptist Sabbath School have elected the following officers: W S Thompson, Superintendent; O P Coshov, Assistant; Anna Foshay, Secretary; Edna Allen, Organist; Nellie Bolton, Assistant Organist; W S Thompson, Chorister; Arthur Foshay, Librarian; H F Merrill, Treasurer.

The mail carrier at Canby, named Carrothers, was killed last night by the local train. In attempting to cross the track in front of the train he slipped and fell. His skull was mashed, one leg was broken, and he was bruised in a terrible manner. The DEMOCRAT has been looking for such an accident at Albany for some time.

The college entertainment to have been to-night will take place at the Opera House on Friday evening, March 6, and promises to be a very bright affair. W Dean Howell's "Garroters" one of the most sparkling dramas written, will be the main feature. Besides this there will be recitations, songs, music by the college orchestra and a short farce entitled "Swearing the Jury."

A case of an escape from the fool killer comes from St Paul. A despatch says: James D Lea, who, a year ago, was one of the wealthy young men of Washington, spent last night at the Cent al police station in the dea of the tramps. January 10, 1890, he came in possession of real estate and other property valued at over $1,000,000, bequeathed him by a bachelor uncle. He bought his mother a co tage home in Washington, and then set himself out to squander his fortune. He leased and furnished a house in West Twenty-fourth street, New York, and it was there he lived richly for nearly a year. To meet his expenses, he sacrificed his real estate at half its value, and on Christmas he found his fortune completely gone.

NOT ISOLATED CASES.

To show that the cures made by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla are not only not exceptional cases, but that it helps everybody, we cite a few instances where two in the same family took it and were both cured.

Thomas Stephens, of 163 Sixth St., S. F., took it for weak stomach and dyspepsia. It entirely cured him. He then gave it to his wife for her sick headaches, since which time she has had no return. It cured them both.

Mrs. R. L. Wheaton, of 704 Post St., S. F., was a sufferer from stomach and liver troubles and biliousness. Finding that it relieved her, she gave it to a little girl living with her whose affliction was a large open sore which nothing seemed to heal. It also cured the child.

ELECTRICITY THE ROAD TO HEALTH AND VIGOR.

When we consider the inestimable blessing of health, and the horrors of wasting disease and impaired vitality we must accord to Dr Darrin the distinguished honor that belongs only to the noblest benefactors of our race. By this discovery, which enables him to vitalize his disciples by means of electricity, and to send the life currents of that great agent through the debilitated frame, he allays pain, restores the strength and florid bloom of glorious health, and the elasticity and buoyancy of spirit that are lost when suffering from disease of the organs, or disarrangement of the nervous centers. A few instances of cure we give as a proof positive of the superiority of electricity over other methods of cure.
