It br,—A petrified piece of some-ing resembling a potato for a long time is a resting place on the counter of the gage room at the S P depot. One y a collector of curiosities for a New y's muscum passed through Albary the cars and during his twenty min-ission here, saw the "spud." He was d that it became petrified in a field ross the Santiam, and that a bushel of trified potatoes raised in the same field re expected in a few days. The mustrified potatoes raised in the same field re expectel in a few days. The mas-m man was presented with the potato d told that if he would write when he turned home, the bushel of petrified uds would be divided with him, and ant of rejoieing. That potato by this ne is probably being gazed at in the w York museum.

A Loso Rux.—Last Friday Garrett on's two buggy animals broke loose at s farm six miles southwest of Corvallis, al with a top buggy attached to them arted for Albany at a lively rate with e evident intention of breaking the g distance record of their worthy andsire. Alexander's old Lexington, by reached and passed through this y, at a speed which bade fair to ac-omplish their ourpose, but arrange-ents for the event were incomplete— the foryboat was on the east bank, indismayed, however, they plunged in b the river and headed for the opposite once. The weight of the buggy here towed too much for them, and but for enly assistance they would have been rowned.—Gazette. A Loso Run.-Last Friday Garrett

No SUCH INSURANCE .- A gentleman re intly from the east, was talking to one ently from the east, was talking to one I the Salem insurance men a few days go, in regard to insurance and wanted o know if his company insured against yelones in this state. FRIL FIFTHES FRST.-At the cast end Full Formules Fast,—At the cast end of First street, on the north side, is an uncompleted sidewalk over the ditch at that place, referred to in the Dissocrar iscretofare. The distance from the end to the ground is about fifteen feet. A day or two ago Wayne Reed, a boy eight or nine years of age, backed off the walk, while pulling a sled, turned two somer-saults and struck on his feet, without serious injury, though it is a wonder he was not badly hurt. At another time a drinken man walked off and name out without any damage. Such incomplete a dranken drank winken of an interant of without any dataggs. Such incomplete affairs are an eves ore to a city, and it is to be hoped now that we have  $\mathbf{x}$  new charter, that the property owners be compelled to finish the job.

ALONG THE LANE .- Some of our neighbors over in Linn county are preparing to raise peas for the Salem cannery next summer. The cannery commany fornspining. The canary company form-ishes the seed and get their pay when the crop is delivered to them. F M Miller got seed to plant five acres: W M Connor, four acres: J C Cox, two acres.

Hon Charles Miller, a farmer living near town, has a herd of very fine Jersey cows. ## ACCIDENT AT MCCOY,-Clarence Gib-

ACCIDENT AT MCCOY, --Clarence Gib-son, a young man living with O G Shurt-leff, near MeCoy, met with a painlul acci-dent Wednesday evening which came near resulting in his death. He was chopping wood, when the axe slipped and struck his foot, the blade going entirely through that useful member. Some of the bones were badly shattered and some of the arteries cut. He nearly bled to death before aid could reach him, but he is now doing well.

We give our Roll of Honor again this week. It will be in order for the Albany Distocrar to sgain models with some-thing that does not concern it - Jefferson Review. That is all right, Mr Review. It is none of our business; but what would you think of the merchant who would publish the sames of every custom-er who paid him a cent. It is all the same, and a paper has to be preity coun-trified to do it.

A large Democratic daily with a capital A large Democratic daily with a capital of $250,000 is to be started in Portland April 1ut. The Astoria Express says: The committee got into communication with castern parties and finally Mr Gray, agreed to start such a paper, with a plant and capital in sight of $250,000, if Port-land would give them a guarantee of $100,000 of business the first year: 5,000 subscribers at $10 each, and $50,000 of secured advertisements. Mr T F Kane, well known newmore main, was selected well known newspaper man, was selected to secure the guarantees. He finished it up two weeks any. Mr Gray, a New York man, will be editor.

Referring to our item about its being Aibany's turn for a 4th of July celebra-tion the Statesman says: "That argu-ment may do for Albany, but Salem is too big to take it by turns. She is a city, and as such should fittingly observe this day of all holidays every year. But there is room enough for all, and Salem is glad bar side resonance hadron solard." All is room enough for all, and Salem is glad her sister proposes having a picnic. Al-bary and Salem are so far apart their celebrations do not interfere one with the other. Yes: this is Salem's year for a big celebration. So say the business men and citizens, and so says everybody." The DEMOCRAT didn't intend to infer that it was not also Salem's turn. Cities should be independent in that matter. It is our year, and we also are big enough
