JEFFERSON.—Rev. I. B. Fisher, of Albany, is conducting a series of very interesting meetings at the M. E. church, in this city. If a certain gentleman of this city don't want us to publish the facts in regard to a trip he made to Albany, with his son, a few years ago, he had better use language that is clearer than his actions when he speaks of us.

A. Crooke called at our office this week and informed us that the report was being circulated in his neighborhood, in Linn county, that we were liable to be "rotten-egged." Well, that would be a "whiskey crowd" trick. They never throw anything but what is very rotten. —Review.

A MOHAWK DANCE.—Leon Boggs Sam'l Montgomery and Hale Boren had a preliminary examination before Justice Bowlerman at Springfield Thursday, charged with disturbing a ball at Widow Polly's on the Mohawk. They were bound over in the sum of $55 each, which they furnished, to appear before the grand jury. A copious use of the blackberry wine manufactured in the Mohawk valley is said to have been the cause of the disturbance. —Eugene Guard.

SCIO STIRRED UP.—This is not a division item. Something else did it. The Salvation Army are at the bottom of the business. A Scio man says they have captured the town and thirty conversions in the city are said to be on the list. Backed by Mr. Goin the army there probably has a standing not equalled anywhere else in the U. S.

A NICELY gotten up combination sign, with post, has just been placed in front of Deyoe & Froman Bros. The work was done by Dannels & Sloan, and shows that they are up with the times, and are capable of doing first-class work. Being old residents of the city and reliable young men they deserve a good patronage.

WANTED.—A lady wants a place to work in a small family. Call at this office.

MEN and women do not always agree, in fact they frequently disagree and seriously too, causing many divorces and collapses in the matrimonial market. One thing, though, they agree on, and that is that Conn & Henderson keep the kind of groceries one needs in housekeeping, they treat men and women alike and give them bargains in goods in their line. Call on them for groceries and produce.

LOADS OF GROCERIES are received daily by Mueller & Garrett, both by rail and boat. Cash figures are pleasing every one and this is the reason why they are doing so much business. If you want to save money buy your groceries of them. They do not have to give toys and presents to induce trade, as low figures and pure goods satisfy everyone.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—Mr. John Hammill will take charge of the Albany Fish Market for the present. M. Hyde.

One half dollar reduction on every pair of Ludlow's fine shoes. A good line of them at S. E. Young's.

The best roast coffee in the city at Conrad Meyer's.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Hon. W. R. Bivens has been in Scio a couple days on business.

W. B. Gilson, recently in the barber business in this city, has moved to Tacoma.

Mrs. Geo. A. Waggoner has been quite sick during the week, but is much better at this writing. —Benton Leader.

Mr. Morgan, of Morgan Bros., recently of Portland, is in the city, and contemplates locating here in the insurance, real estate and loan business.

A. W. Thompson, of Corvallis, was in the city to-day on his way home from Olympia, Wash., where he is making arrangements to locate in the undertaking business.

Prof. Biddle left this forenoon for Lewiston, where he will lecture a week. His lectures are worth hearing. There is tone and character to them, and we commend him to our sister city.

Mr. Frank Smith, of the Forks of the Santiam, was in the city. The Democrat was glad to observe that Mr. Smith's party form had not been divided, nor is he in favor of any kind of division.

Thursday evening the first anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Morgan was celebrated in a becoming manner. Several friends spent the evening with them and a good time was had.

Mrs. L. Kessler, aged 23 years, died at Monmouth last Monday, of consumption, at the residence of Mr. Durham. Her sister, Miss Nellie Russell, of Albany, attended the last moments of her sister, and did all that loving hands could do in making her sister's last hours free from pain.

A Zoological party was given last evening at the residence of Mr. L. E. Blain by the members of the classes of R. M. Robertson, Mrs. E. F. Sox, C. H. Stewart, Mrs. L. E. Blain and the older unmarried members of the United Presbyterian Sabbath School. It proved a unique and very entertaining affair. Games were played, an elegant lunch was served and a zoological feast indulged in. This consisted of a contest in drawing pictures of animals on a blackboard. Twenty-four were drawn and the first prize was given for the person guessing the names of the most animals on the board. It was secured by Miss Mary Blount, who guessed eighteen, and consisted of a handsome picture of birds on ivory. Miss Annie McCormick was presented an ark of animals for guessing the least number among the ladies, and Edward Blodgett a mule for guessing the least number among the gentlemen. This caused great amusement.

Manito Ranch.

The Democrat has been shown a letter from Mr. William Morgan, a former Alabamian, residing across the Sound from Seattle, only a few miles from Port Orchard, from which we give a few very interesting items:

Perhaps it would not be out of place for me to explain the name, as I know you are not much of a novel reader. The word "manito" will be found in the romance entitled, "The Last of the Mohicans," and is the Mohegan word signifying Heaven. It is also the name of a little mining town away up in the vicinity of the zone of perpetual snow on Pike's Peak, Col. As my ranch is superior to theirs, so is the name.

Claim jumping is lively here now. I heard today of three contests being filed on one claim belonging to the Washington Mill Co.

The ubiquitous real estate man's voice is heard in the morn saying: "Do you want to sell your land?" I answer, no. My land is not for sale. He expatiates with great volubility on the advantages of deacons grand, over toil and land. I respond, no, not so with me. The ambition for gilded wealth—the tintinnabulation of pampered habitation—the pomp and circumstance of glorious state—bath "gone from my gaze like a beautiful dream." I seek not the turmoil and strife of gay city life. When I contemplate the vanity of worldly things—the instability of wealth and power—the certain decay of all earthly greatness—I feel admonished to put forth my best efforts to the end that strawberries and cream, yellow-legged chickens, etc., may fructify and become abundant at Manito, to get away with which in liberal quantities will render me no small enjoyment so long as my present appetite stays with me; while

To capture with the hook The festive trout from the neighboring brook, Will furnish me some boyish play With which to pass the time away. Ubiquity doth glide, and I subside.

Stor just about in the middle of the block, on First street, south side, between Broadalbin and Ellsworth, and you will find a place where you can always get first-class groceries and fresh produce at reasonable prices and be well treated without extra price. The sign reads "Parker Bros.," and everybody knows the name. Their baked goods are the best. Their stock of goods generally is kept replenished to meet the demands of a growing trade.

CHEAP WOOD.—Good fir wood delivered to any part of Albany, for only $3 a cord. Leave orders at P. W. Spinks' lumber yard.

HIS FITS.

The Astorian and Columbian at Astoria have been merged into one paper, under the name of both, and incorporated with a capital stock of $40,000. Of course this drops the bloody hatchet that has been swung around with foolish liberality.

A darkey in Mitchell, Ind., got mad twenty-seven years ago because his parents sold their farm and went to bed, and has been in bed ever since, though a healthy man. A few times he has been taken out to vote and that is all. It is the worst case of stubbornness on record, and Albany men who get pig headed or lazy should read this item, and do something.

There are many nice things about getting married; but one of the drawbacks is for the people with youthful proclivities to immediately be treated as antediluvians and excluded from all the innocent enjoyments of life. Some people do not care. Those who do should not be made fossils. Association of married and unmarried people should be a benefit to both, and particularly the latter.

On Wednesday Mr. Wheeler, in accordance with his contract with Lane county returned to sheriff Noland the list of unassessed land in Junction precinct. He found that 115 town lots, improved and unimproved, and 6792 acres of land had not been assessed. As he completes a township he delivers the list to the sheriff.—Guard. Let Linn county consider what it is annually losing in taxes.

The bill permitting the Oregon Pacific to issue bonds has passed both houses of the Legislature. There are said to be strong grounds to believe that work will be pushed ahead. Already arrangements are being made to improve the road bed to the front. But, as yet, this is mostly guess work, the same as it has been, and was a year ago, and the Democrat doesn't believe anything is made by sailing false colors in such matters. The after effect is apt to be backacting. We are glad the indications are good for something being done this year.

Many newspapers in the state are pleading for support by legislation and otherwise in a very supplicating manner. The Pendleton E. O. gets down to business on the subject in the following manner, which the Democrat fully endorses: "The people do support the newspapers in just the proportion that the newspapers advocate the people's interests. The paper must first do its duty before it can expect the people's appreciation. The East Oregonian feels that it is talking from experience. It never had a better support than it is enjoying at the present time, and it never was so earnest in its defense of the people's rights. The people are grateful because they are intelligent. They never fail to respond to a worthy and deserving press. The press of Oregon should first serve the people of Oregon, and the people will be quick to do their duty."

STATE LEGISLATURE.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 13.—President Simon signed the Australian ballot bill. Most anything seems to be able to pass the house. Bills submitting the relocation of the county seats of Coos and Grant counties easily passed that body, but in the senate were indefinitely postponed.

Rep. Jennings' new railroad commission bill provides for a commission of three members, one of whom shall act as clerk, at a salary of $1500 each, except the member acting as clerk, who shall receive $500 additional, for clerical services. This would make the railroad commission cost the people $5,000 per year, when it now costs $9,500.

In the house a bill providing that street railways may locate their lines on private property, failed to pass. Also a bill allowing suits against the state. Croso's bill allowing the O. P. to issue bonds for more than 20 years, passed, having already passed the senate. Concurrent resolution for $1500 for Indian war history, to be compiled by Mrs. F. F. Victor, passed. Bill by Hall for a constitutional convention, passed. Bill by Starr for the prevention of lottery games passed.

In the senate a large number of house bills were read first time, including Henry's wagon road bill and Moores' World's fair bill. Senate joint memorial asking for $25,000 for a salmon hatchery at headwaters of Columbia or Snake river, and for an expert to investigate the habits of salmon, were adopted.

A bill introduced by Fulton passed the senate, which prohibits anyone except citizens of the United States, or those who have declared their intention to become such one year previously, or citizens of another state who have resided six months in this state, from fishing for salmon or sturgeon in any of the waters of the state.

Under the reapportionment bill Linn county would get 3 representatives and only 1 senator. Marion would get 2 senators and Multnomah 5, all other counties 1 each. The bill making Portland a port of entry is an important one, and will become a law.

W. E. McPherson sold to-day to Mrs. E. Swedwich, of this city one house and two lots. Consideration private.

A large amount of snow fell in Benton county, foothills are covered, as well as of the low lands.

While most cities are enlarging their limits, the people of Jefferson have decided at a citizens meeting to reduce theirs.

The Willamette was 9 feet 2 inches above low water mark this morning, and slowly rising. During the night it ascended two feet.

Yesterday's overland arrived at 9 o'clock, and to-day is expected about midnight. Land slides in Cow Creek Canon are the cause of the delays.

Hops again promise to bring a good price this year. In Lane county buyers are already offering 15 1/2 cents. It is safe to predict that most raisers will do their own speculating.

At the public meeting at Scio to-night a resolution will probably be passed asking the Senate to reconsider the motion indefinitely postponing the division. Under the rules of the Senate, though, it will be too late.

The citizens of Halney and vicinity are hereby requested to meet at the school house in this city, Saturday, February 21, 1891, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of discussing the ways and means of obtaining a flooring mill in this city. All are requested to be present and express their opinion on the subject.—News.

OBITUARY.

Died, near Knox Butte, Feb. 11, 1891, of diphtheria, Rhoda Maxwell, daughter of Elias and Mary Maxwell, aged nine years.

God sent this loving child on earth to comfort her loving parents. She was the joy of her mother's heart and the sunlight of her home. It was hard to give the dear one up, but God thought best to call her to the home of the good in Heaven, ere the sorrows and conflicts of this life scarred the unfolding of the full-grown flower. She is now a bright and shining angel, and will be waiting at the beautiful gate to welcome her dear mother home. She has already gone to meet (the dear ones in Heaven. May God comfort the bereaved ones and help them so to live that they may meet the precious one in the sweet by and bye. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That we extend our heart felt sympathy to the bereaved ones in this their sad affliction.

We had a little darling, Who came to us one day, And made us very happy, For we thought she had come to stay.

But we were sadly disappointed; When only nine years had past An angel came and claimed her And took her home to rest.

But we must be submissive To what the Lord has done, Although He in His wisdom, Has taken our darling one.

Yet we loved thee, little Rhoda, As dearly as before, We yielded thee to Jesus, To dwell forever more.

Then rest, loved one, serenely rest, In that blest home above, Where death and sorrow n'er molest, Where all is peace and love.

—F. L. and O. L. Knighten.

THE REASON WHY.—Why is it that Klein Bros. can afford to sell boots and shoes so reasonable? Because they are both practical shoe makers and make part of their expenses by working on the shoe bench, any boot or shoe you buy of them, no matter what kind it is, man, woman or child, that rip, run over or the sole rips loose, they repair them for you free of charge, and as they do all the work themselves, they don't charge you 25 to 50 cents a pair extra for a warrant to pay some shoemaker to repair them for you. They also make a specialty of repairing rubber boots.

A customer of ours living on Ninth St., tells us that it relieved her almost immediately of her dyspepsia; and another on Broadway reports that three bottles entirely cured him of his constipation. A year ago we only bought a sixth of a dozen bottles at a time. Now we buy it by the gross. It recommends itself."

AFFLICTED FIFTY YEARS.

And the Method Mr. Chamberlain Adopted to Get Relief—Mr. W. A. Cope's Experience with Dr. Darrin.

For the Oregonian: We often fall to secure to ourselves the results of the operations of a system, by requiring too much of it. Listening to others or allowing ourselves to find fault with those who operate or represent the same. I had consulted for many years physicians successful in treating "acute diseases," but could not get relief for kidney and liver trouble and neuralgia of the stomach of over fifty years standing, until I came under Dr. Darrin's "Electric treatment." But, thanks to Divine Grace, those troubles are a thing of the past. If others are particularly affected by my illness I will answer their questions in behalf of the afflicted. F. B. CHAMBERLAIN, Woods, Tillamook county, Or.

Another Wonderful Cure.

BAY CITY, Or. Jan. 13, 1891. Editor Oregonian: For nine months prior to calling on Dr. Darrin, I had been afflicted with a burning pain back of my neck and spine, which finally settled in my kidneys. My liver and stomach became deranged and rheumatism commenced to develop. In that deplorable condition I came to Dr. Darrin. With two months home treatment, I rejoice to say I am cured of my stomach, liver and kidney troubles. W. S. COKE.
