

LOCAL RECORD.

COOK COUNTY.—Elem Faught, one of the successful sheep men of the southern part of the county, was in town yesterday. He said he had gone through the winter without any loss, and he had of no loss among his neighbors.

He has again claimed one of Crook's best and most honored citizens. Powell died at his home, half a west of Prineville, Sunday night, of an illness of only a few days, of disease. Mr Powell was the oldest of Rev John Powell, well known to early Oregonians, and was born in Boone county, Tenn. July 28, 1818.

M Elkins returned by last Tuesday's train from below. While gone he spent time in Albany, and says indicating there are parts that will be resumed the O P early this spring, though the definite is known of the company's intended actions. He says Man-Hong is very anxious to get the road to the summit of the Cascade mountains, and hopes to have that amount of road completed within a year at least.—Re-

R. C. ENTERTAINMENT.—Miss Margaret Scriber, who will recite at entertainment to be given by the Corps, in the Opera House, on Saturday evening, March 20th, is highly appreciated by her wonderful gifts as an elocutist, by all who have listened to her. We quote the following favorable notices:

A select and highly appreciative audience greeted Miss Scriber at the Presbyterian church last Saturday evening. Her recitations were so emphatic and so full of life that the program consisted of six instead of six selections. By the request of nearly the entire community, Miss Scriber will give another entertainment here in the near future. The recitation of Miss Scriber was a treat, and the people were delighted with the excellence of the reading.—Overton Appeal.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The annual meeting of the Albany Building Association (Opera House) was held last evening at the office of the secretary. The report of the secretary showed a prosperous year. The coming year the only expenses will be for taxes, insurance and janitor. The whole building having been rented. The old directors were re-elected, to wit: W C Tweedale, President; Stewart, J Joseph, J Gradwohl, Geo Chamberlain, Treasurer; W F Reed, Secretary.

WORK at the Santiam mines is one of the probabilities of the summer. The influx of people there this year will be one a necessity, and it is probable there will be stores and other buildings. In fact, a young mining town. The place will be about twenty miles from Gatesville, not a very great distance from the city. Some of the machinery for the new mill has already been ordered and it is proposed to have the mill out on the ground as soon as possible after the snow is off. This will be a year of mining excitement around here.

REQUIRED A DOUBLE INTERPRETER.—One of the curious cases of the Circuit Court this session was that between two men and a woman who had a fight near the town. When the case was called for trial, the judge asked for a double interpreter. The case was called for trial, the judge asked for a double interpreter. CIRCUIT COURT.

Assignment Charles Parker. Final account confirmed. Assignee ordered to pay out funds in his hands.

State agt Henry Koepfer. Not guilty. State agt Thomas James. On trial.

The grand jury brought in true bills against E P Rogers, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific R R Co., for violating the laws of Oregon in reference to charging for the transportation of freight, and against Caleb Gray, the well known druggist of Halsey, for selling liquor without a license. He will plead guilty and pay his fine.

Not true bills were found in the cases of Prince Morgan, arrested for larceny, more on account of his youth than his innocence, and in the case of Policeman W A McClain.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable Circuit Court of Linn county, Oregon, March, 1891.

We, the grand jury of said court beg leave to make the following report: We have examined the offices of Sheriff, Clerk, Recorder, Treasurer and School Superintendent. We find the books in said offices neatly kept in good order. We find the school superintendent's office in need of pigeon holes for the officer's use, in properly caring for the manuscripts which he is required to keep on file.

We have examined the jail and find it in good condition. We recommend the honorable County Court to cause the shed at west end of jail to be removed and a suitable wood shed built at some distance from jail.

We have heard voluntary complaints in regard to the bridges on Calapooia known as Sweet Home and Fendley's bridges. We deem said bridges very unsafe and recommend the honorable County Court to cause said bridges to be repaired as soon as practicable.

We, the grand jury, have finished our labors. SOLOMON BOND, JOHN ISOM, J E MICHAEL, I F HADLEY, C B DEAKINS, J V PIRE, SAMUEL KING.

Resolutions of Condolence.

HALL OF E. L. S. OF S. A., Lebanon, Or., March 13, 1891.

Wm. E. WALLACE, DAVID TORREY, Committee.

RARE BARGAINS.—30 doz men's laundry white shirts at 50 cts—worth $1.00 to $1.25.

MISFITS.

"Quiz Jack, thy frowns vex G D Plum," contains all the letters of the alphabet with none repeated.

A gentleman residing in Fairhaven, in giving a descriptive letter of that place to a friend in Portland, sums up the female portion in this style: "I believe that some one made up a collection of the ugliest females they could find and sent them here to reside. Any one of them could stand as a freak in a dime museum."

The Salem Journal is indignant at the kissing episode said to have occurred in Marion county, in which one of the girls was missed and got mad; and says, with a tiger like spring: "This episode did not occur in Marion county at all. It was in one of the counties near The Dalles where big girls are scarce and opportunities for such kissing are rare. Even the Albany and Astoria papers are throwing this slur at Marion county."

A year or two ago at a fire in Astoria a stock of boots and shoes was ruined by being soaked with water. They were insured for $12,000. A committee inventoried them at $4500. The owner offered to compromise for about $4000; but citizens generally told the insurance men to fight it, as there was something wrong, and fight it they did, the same citizens testifying straight for the insured, who obtained a judgment for $12,000. The incident is told the Democrat by an Albany man as an illustration of what a funny world we live in.

The following from the Arizona Kicker should be a warning to all city councils: "The deadlock in the common council was broken last night by the absence of Col Taylor. The council couldn't help being absent. Some of the boys had him out in the suburbs, under a tree, with a rope around his neck. It was either hang or break the combination, and the council decided to help break it. We want to say right here and now that if there is any more 'fussing' in the council we will move to impeach the whole gang, and if we can't get 'em impeached we'll head a body of outraged citizens and clean 'em out to a man. They were elected to do public business and the public is in no humor to put up with their personal quarrels. Colonel Taylor exhibited wisdom in coming down off his high horse, and we trust the lesson he received will not soon be forgotten."

TANGENT.

March 16th, 1891.

The board of directors met last Saturday evening and elected Mr C R Howard as principal, for the spring term of our district school. There were seven applicants, besides Mr Howard. We are all well pleased with the choice.

We saw in last week's DEMOCRAT that Prof R E Michenor, of Halsey, had accepted the Tangent school. It certainly is a mistake; at least the school has't accepted him.
