SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Frazier, the Portland horse buyer, is in the city.

G. W. Simpson left this noon for Pendleton on a several days trip.

J. E. Sorbin, a Fair Haven capitalist, formerly of Albany, was in the city today.

Rev. Rominger at the opera house tonight. Hear him and see his mummy.

H. M. Stone, of Oakville, has returned from a business trip to the metropolis of the state.

Mrs. Dr. Augie Ford Warren, of Portland, passed through Albany a few days ago for a month's sojourn in California.

Judge E. N. Tandy, of Harrisburg, passed through Albany today for Albia, Polk county, where a brother in law is lying dangerously ill.

Mr. William Wright, the artist, is painting life size pictures of "Clara" and the "Unfortunate," which display fine artistic ability, and will be very attractive pictures for private rooms. As works of art they have never been surpassed in Albany.

Mr. A. W. Best, the artist, finished his auction sale of pictures last evening. He will remain in Albany teaching his class in painting already organized. Mr. Best is a skillful artist and deserves a liberal patronage.

Mrs. W. C. Adams, of Cleveland, Ohio, National W. C. T. U. organizer, arrived in Albany this noon, and has been the guest of the Albany W. C. T. U. Mrs. Adams has just reorganized the Jefferson W. C. T. U. and will go to Lebanon to do likewise there.

Prof. Williams last week tendered his resignation as principal of the Eugene public schools. The school board refused to accept it, however, and he has decided to remain in the school until the close of the year.—Register.

The Prof. is evidently going to make his washing machine a business.

Last evening the "Milk Maids," who recently held a convention in this city, met at the M. E. parsonage, and from there proceeded to the residence of one of their number, Mrs. C. O. Lee, and completely surprised her. The evening was passed pleasantly in singing, arguing on the different makes of butter, etc.

The Chairman, Mrs. Geo. W. Hochstetler, in behalf of the convention, presented Mrs. Lee with a picture of the "Milk Maids Convention" handsomely framed. A nice lunch was served, and taken altogether was pronounced quite a creamy affair.

A candy pulling party, of the genuine kind, was held last evening at the residence of Dr. Kelley. A fine time is reported.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cassell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Leighton E. Blain, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Seals, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Huston, Mr. Thos. Hopkins, Sr., Mrs. A. B. Woodin, Mrs. G. F. Crawford, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. F. M. Westfall, Mrs. N. J. Henton, Mrs. S. S. Train, Misses Helen Crawford, Myra Kelley and Daisy Hopkins.

CIRCUIT COURT.

E. P. Rogers, of the S. P. company, was arraigned before Judge Boise and given until tomorrow to plead.

Jennie St. Germain, agt Frank St. Germain, Divorce. Divorce granted.

Murphy, Grant & Co agt Gibson Myers. To recover money. Judgment. Order to sell attached property.

I. R. Dawson agt Gibson Myers. To recover money. Judgment. Order to sell attached property.

State agt Thomas James. Pleaded guilty to petty larceny and sentenced to 30 days in County Jail.

Oregon agt E. E. Pennington. To keep the peace. Dismissed.

A GREAT FAME.—Last Wednesday a fellow who came here from California recently hired a boat and went down the river, presumably on a hunting expedition.

He came back and reported that he had run against a snag about two miles below town and his boat was shattered and he barely escaped with his life, losing everything he had in the boat. Thursday he pretended to go down to look for his lost traps. Friday he brought to town a stone image of a dwarf man that he claimed he had found along the river bank.

He said the stumps of the legs were sticking out of the ground, the feet evidently having been broken off by drift wood. When he brought it in a great many became greatly excited and rushed around to see the wonderful image. He allowed a few to see it and then locked it up and placed it on exhibition. About that time it leaked out that the whole thing was a fake.

The image was shipped from Oakland, California, February 10th and arrived here February 17th. Last Tuesday Jake Carman hauled it across the river and deposited it on the bank of the river for the man.

When this was learned people had no more curiosity to see the image and the fellow did a poor business. He kept it on exhibition Saturday and Monday shipped it to Albany in search of other pastures green.—Eugene Register.

BE CAREFUL.—Our citizens before investing in foreign National Building & Loan Associations should know what they are doing before hand. There are several who have tried it to their sorrow. If you would invest your money in Building & Loan Associations do so in the home company, which is being well and faithfully managed on a paying basis, and it is where you can watch it.

STATE S. S. CONVENTION.—Rev. E. W. Allen, chairman of the Executive Committee, announces that the State Sunday School Convention will be held in the C. P. Church at Eugene, commencing on Tuesday evening, May 19th, and closing on Thursday evening, May 21st. All Sabbath school workers are requested to be present. Reduced rates will be allowed those attending.

Good Work, Low Prices, Paisley & Smiley.

Srort just about in the middle of the block, on First street, south side, between Broadbaldin and Ellsworth, and you will find a place where you can always get first-class groceries and fresh produce at reasonable prices and be well treated without extra price. The sign reads "Parker Bros." and everybody knows the name. Their baked goods are the best. Their stock of goods generally is kept replenished to meet the demands of a growing trade.

Paisley & Smiley, Our Printer

MINUTE.

What is the use of any railroad commissions as long as we have grand juries.

The old chestnuts seen in most newspaper columns years ago are now allowed, not even an ephemeral existence. "Our old friend," "Ye editor," "Come again," "Peace to his ashes," etc., are sentences of the past.

A credulous person can be bluffed any day in Albany. On an average there are about six a week the year around who are willing to take in the unwary. Some do not do it enough to hurt, while others pull the strings pretty tight.

Oregon's growth has been a healthy, vigorous one in the last few years, particularly since being connected with the East by rail, and though Kansas is larger in population, though admitted later, it is not nearly as good a state. Oregon was admitted years earlier than there was any necessity for.

At the Roseburg Building and Loan Association meeting Tuesday night a $200 loan was awarded to A. T. Moran on payment of 27 months interest in advance, and M. R. Howell secured $500, interest 25 months in advance. A. T. Applegate surrendered five shares of stock. The association is doing a flourishing business and is accomplishing a great deal of good.—Paindealer.

Robert G. Clark, now of St. Johns, Or., writes to a Union paper, confessing that in 1883 he and a companion stole fourteen head of horses off the range and sold them at Lebanon and Scio, in this county. He is lead to make the confession because of recently getting religion. Unlike the clerk at the Russ House he does not return the horses or remit the money.

"Let's go in and take a drink," said an ex-railroad man, who was already walking a rail fence, to a DEMOCRAT man.

"No, thank you, I don't drink," he was answered.

"I don't either," said the drunken man in dead earnest, in order to be in fashion for the moment.

Some Prineville parties took a large hat box and cut in it a hideous facial representation, lined the interior with red tissue paper, placing a candle in it and hung the thing over a Chinese boy's window at midnight. Then they awoke him by tapping on the window. The little fellow took his departure from that house as only a frightened child could do, and yelled "China devil," at the town's pitch of his voice. To hear him tell his own story of the affair is far more amusing than all the jokes incident to a dime museum.—Prineville News.

In view of the fact that the DEMOCRAT has a few times given Kansas a punch we publish the following from a Topkapa paper: Kansas may be governed by fools, thieves and cranks; but nobody robs her treasury, and it is always full, and her bonds are far above par. She may send bad men and idiots to congress; but none of them change their names before they get there, or afterwards, as Oregonians state men have been known to do. Kansas never loses any ground; keeps the school house doors open; keeps duly sober; is talked about all over the world; and gains every year in wealth, in population, in beauty, and in style. That being the case Kansas will put up with her cranks and all the rest of the things that seem to worry the neighbors.

THE S. O. CORSET.—Imparts a most graceful shape, securing comfort and elegance. Every corset has the self-opening clasps. These clasps, simple in construction, have double the strength of the ordinary clasps, can be hooked and unhooked in the usual manner, and have the great advantage in the ease with which they can be unhooked, by merely pulling the string, and the corset will open like a flash. These clasps are so constructed that they will always stay securely fastened until the string is pulled. Any feeling of distress or discomfort from exertion, or any other cause, can thus be instantly relieved without disturbing, allowing healthful action of the body, to the great comfort of the wearer. G. W. SIMPSON, Sole Agent.

BE IN FASHION.—"As good be out of the world as out of fashion," once said a famous man. If you would be in fashion call on Mr. E. A. Schiffer, in L. E. Blain's tailoring department, and have him measure you for a reasonable suit. A large and fine assortment of suitings for spring have arrived, embracing the latest patterns, offering an elegant display to select from. In the spring a young man's fancy always turns to a new suit of clothes, and Mr. Schiffer is ready to dress you up in a manner that will please the most fastidious.

INSURE YOUR STOCK.—To the owners of live stock—and especially those who own stallions—I desire to say that I have received the agency of the Oregon Live Stock Mutual Indemnity Association, and am prepared to insure all live stock at three-fourths their value. Owners of valuable stallions especially should insure. Call at my stables in Albany, corner Second and Washington streets. FRANK TRITES.

FRESH TO-DAY.—Celery, cauliflower, cabbage, turnips, fresh greens, parsnips, Smyrna figs, golden dates, bananas, oranges, lemons, apples, Italian prunes, pitted prunes, choice mackerel, salmon bellies, fresh butter and eggs, at Mueller & Garrett's, the leading grocers.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Sui Ti, for a long time with San Wa, a head good man who saves the laundry business, has bought out Lee's laundry near the Revere House, and will hereafter run it. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE.—$500 to $1000 of household furniture in exchange for improved real estate. Inquire at office of OREGON LAND CO. January 22nd, 1891.

The Building & Loan Association meets next Friday evening, and will have about the usual amount to loan. There promises to be a large demand for money for building purposes the coming year.

JOHN H. CURLEY.

John H. Curley, the well known merchant tailor, of 846 Market St., S. P., writes to the Edwin W. Joy Co., that for years he was afflicted with dyspepsia, which nothing relieved till he commenced taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.

He continues, "I am still taking it. Its mild laxative effects are exceedingly grateful to the system. It is a pleasant surprise that awaits those who do not know what our vegetable juices do for debility, sluggish liver and impaired digestive organs."
