

A FIGHTING TROUPE.—Lebanon not to be behind the times, had a theatrical fight. The Express says: The Barrett troupe have come and gone, having replenished the city treasury to the amount of $15. The company played two nights, the second night's entertainment closing with a fight between husband and wife. Several blows were exchanged between the combatants, with results in favor of the "weaker vessel." The belligerents then resorted to firearms, of which the husband had two and the wife one, but neither seemed inclined to engage in such dangerous pastime; although Mr Barrett fired a few shots through the back door at some boys who wanted to see what was going on. Marshal Coyle put a stop to the disgraceful affair by escorting the instigator to the recorder's office at the unseasonable hour of 1 o'clock, and he was fined $15. A sad comment on the frailties of human nature, to see human nature thus debauched and talent prostituted to so base an end.

LEBANON.—It is said by those who heard S M Garland's maiden speech before Judge Bole in the Circuit Court, that it was a happy effort and added one or two cubits to his legal stature.

Mr Cole of Kansas arrived in Lebanon Monday. He comes among us for the purpose of organizing alliance lodges in this state. He organized the farmers alliances in the vicinity of Rock Hill Monday.

Rev G W Hill, of Albany, came to Lebanon Tuesday to assist in the protracted meetings, but was called back by telegram Wednesday morning.

Dr L Foley attended a meeting of the board of directors of the Albany Farmers and Merchants Insurance Company, in Albany last week. The Dr reports the business of the company in a prosperous condition.—Express.

THE S. O. CORSET.—Imparts a most graceful shape, securing comfort and elegance. Every corset has the self-opening clasps. These clasps, simple in construction, have double the strength of the ordinary clasps, can be hooked and unhooked in the usual manner, and have the great advantage in the ease with which they can be unhooked, by merely pulling the string, and the corset will open like a flash. These clasps are so constructed that they will always stay securely fastened until the string is pulled. Any feeling of distress or discomfort from exertion, or any other cause, can thus be instantly relieved without disturbing, allowing healthful action of the body, to the great comfort of the wearer.
