Mr. Grant Perkins, of Port Townsend, and sister, Miss Theresa Perkins, of Illinois, consins of Mr. J. G. Crawford, the photographer, have been in the city on a short visit.

There will be three graduates from the Albany Collegiate Institute this year, Percy Young, Carlton Sox and Richard Wheeler. The former two, it is understood, will go East to one of the leading colleges.

J. E. Tyler, of Albany, will go to work for McGraw & Willard. He will live in one of the Walden cottages in North Salem. Journal. That is Jo Tyler, who deserves the best possible treatment from Salem people.

I. N. Smith, Jr., arrived in Albany this noon from Iowa, where he has been attending the medical department of the State University for a couple years.

Mr. John Isom left yesterday on a trip to Independence, Va., his former home, and will be gone five or six weeks. His father died about a year ago at an advanced age, and while gone he will attend to the settlement of his estate.

Hon. W. D. Fenton, of Salem, is in the city on business before the circuit court. On the first of the month Mr. Fenton will move from Salem to Portland where he will open a law office in room 3, Dekum building.

A wooden railway has been built from Gatesville, on the eastern line of the Oregon Pacific railroad, to Hennessy's sawmill, a distance of a mile and a half south of that place.

Sheriff Scott came over from Albany Tuesday. While here he gave us a pleasant call. He also stated that he had made the arrest, while here, of Arthur G. McDonald, who was accused of disturbing the peace, somewhere up Thom as creek, from this city, the order of arrest emanating from Justice Coshov's court.

WANTED.—A girl wants a place to work a small family. Inquire at this office.

As good as out of the world as out of fashion, once said a famous man. If you would be in fashion call on Mr. E. A. Schiffer, in L. E. Blain's tailoring department, and have him measure you for a seasonable suit.

The S. O. Corser.—Imparts a most graceful shape, securing comfort and elegance. Every corset has the self-opening clasp, these clasps, simple in construction, have double the strength of the ordinary clasps, can be hooked and unhooked in the usual manner, and have the great advantage in the ease with which they can be unhooked, by merely pulling the string, and the corset will open like a flash.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Three card monte men are working the Oregon Short line. Several immigrants are reported to have sunk $50 to $100 in the game.

The Elliot Prairie correspondent of the Scio Press says: "Mr. Cha e, a gentleman of 68 years, has united with a widow lady in the bonds of speculation, giving her $2000 to venture into the marriage lottery for life."

The Oregon National Guards will hold an encampment in June. Pendleton is said to have offered $2000 to have it located at that city. Albany is probably the most centrally located and would be a good place for headquarters.

The following rather humorous item appears in the Scio Press: Rev. F. W. Parker, of Woodburn, gave a lecture last Tuesday evening at the M. E. church to a small but appreciative audience on the subject of "The Gates of Hell." His subject was handled in an able manner and was worthy of a larger audience.

The Portland papers say Olds should have been hanged. The great Judge Deady in a private interview says he should not have been; that he acted in self defense. The mean part of the business being Olds' conduct in shooting after Weber was down. The case has received more attention than it merited.

A nice looking old lady 84 years of age, arrived at Lebanon a few days ago, for the purpose of living with a son who has a farm near that city; but he refused to take her into his household or even see her. The Express' suggestion that tar and feathers would suit the case is a good one.

In New York city they have associations of men who do not drink during business. In a big city where competition in all lines of business is so great, a cool and clear head is very essential. If it is proper to be cool headed during business hours it is also a good thing to be cool headed when you are at home with your family.

There are at least two young men in Albany who propose to shield their sister, and Wednesday night they did in an emphatic manner with some rotten eggs. There are some other cases where some rotten eggs might have a very efficacious effect. Young women, though, themselves should do like the Brownsville girl, point to the front gate and say "git."

If the Mafia, the anarchists and the Chinese highlanders could be induced to enter into an agreement to wipe each other off the face of the earth what a delightful event it would be. And Americans, who have always cherished the idea that they have as much right in this country as foreigners, would take courage and eventually they might succeed in controlling the politics of some of our large cities.—Walla Walla Statesman.

The Crescent City Record says: "A fish-hawk pulled a large salmon out of Elk river one day last week. The fish was too large for the bird to carry off, so leaving it on the sand the bird flew off to a pile of driftwood and picking up a stick with a sharp and jagged edge, returned with it to where the fish lay and sawed it in two, when it flew away with half of the salmon. The other half was served for our dinner."

Different uses have been suggested for the stone man taken out of the Willamette this side of Eugene. One paper would make it a member of the State Legislature, another thinks it would make a good member of the city's board of trade, comparatively, etc. He wouldn't be a bad substitute for one or two men owning valuable landed interests in Benton county who refuse to subscribe towards the bridge, and in fact would make a better citizen than a few Mossbacks we could name.

Win Warren, the sheriff of this county, has sued the county for $50 mileage. The sheriff put in the bill to the county court for this amount upon the completion of the tax collecting tour, and it was not allowed, because the court held that the per cent of the collections paid the entire bill. This did not please the sheriff, hence the suit.—McMinnville Telephone-Register.

If a Diak, of Boston, would come to the Pacific Coast he could get all the fleas desired, regardless of sex. He said, "oh, yes, I want fleas. They are quite essential to my prosperity. My father made a fortune in fleas and they have furnished me with my living so far. I am a trainer of fleas. I educate them to do tricks and run a flea circus. In thirty-six hours I can make a good, intelligent flea do most any simple trick. You would suppose fleas are common enough, and so they are on general principles, but I have been in Boston fourteen weeks and haven't got but two so far. I want females, because they are larger and longer lived than the others."

A Walla Walla dispatch says that last evening the train from Starbuck brought F. W. D. Mays, of Pomeroy, a newspaper man. He told a reporter that at Starbuck this afternoon a walnut-shell game was conducted by two hunko men, who fleeced a sick boy named Bookman out of $240, and other passengers out of $100. The railroad official's sent telegrams to the sheriff at Dayton.

The Eooky Mountain Husbandman pays Miss Swanton, who is to recite at the Presbyterian church Saturday evening, the following compliment: "Miss Swanton has a remarkably musical voice, is possessed of more than ordinary personal charms, articulates very distinctly, has a good idea of character delineation and her power of imitation of birds and beasts is truly wonderful." Admission 50 cents, child, en half price.

The Salem Statesman says, "At the opera house last night a fair sized audience was present to enjoy the musical and literary treat prepared under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, or of the Baptist church of this city. Miss Letitia Swanton as an elocutionist is but little known to Salem people, but to those comprising the listeners at last night's entertainment she proved herself to be one of the most gifted of any who has appeared here.
