CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL RECORD.

Twelve Mean Business.—A young man, about 55 years of age, residing on the Sound, a former resident of Linn county, recently had some fun in a manner which will suggest a good mode for securing immigrants. He published an advertisement in Heart and Hand, an eastern matrimonial paper, just for fun, asking for an oldish maid or a youngish widow for a partner on a ranch beneath the shade of fair Olympia, one who had a taste for strawberries, yellow legged chickens, etc., and would not mind assisting in securing them. He received 175 responses, all of which he answered. Now he is in a pickle, hence we do not give his name. Twelve of the women have written that they will come to the Sound this summer to enjoy the strawberries, etc., taking it for granted that they are the ones wanted. We shall watch with abated breath the outcome.

CRICK COUNTY.—T H Glaze came over from Sisters the first of the week. He says that nearly all the snow has disappeared from the Black Butte country.

D W Claypool started for Willamette valley last week with a band of work horses which he expects to sell to Web-foot farmers.

Charlie Rutherford, of Ochoco mines, was in town Sunday, the first time in several months. Mr Rutherford spent the winter in the mining districts of Montana and Idaho, and says he did not see any placers there which showed a better prospect than do the mines on Ochoco.

The sheep raising industry never had a brighter outlook in this country than at present. There were no losses during the winter, the clip this spring will be large and of fine quality, and the prices of both wool and mutton have an upward tendency.—Review.

PRIZES AWARDED.—Recently the W C T U of this city, offered two prizes of $5 and $3, for the best essays on the subject of temperance, to be written by pupils of the public schools. This morning the contest was ended and the prizes awarded, the first to Miss Winnie Chamberlain, daughter of Dr Chamberlain, and the second to Miss Bolton. The essays are well written and display excellent literary ability.

BEAUTIFY THE CEMETARY.—G W Harris the marble man is asking the people to contribute money for the purpose of cleaning and beautifying the Albany Cemetery Grounds. He will grub up all useless brush and remove all trash, fill up sunken graves etc. This is a step in the right direction. Let every one contribute something to beautify the homes of the cherished dead and make our neglected cemetery a place of beauty.

HIGH BIDDING.—The directors of the Salem Building & Loan association met at the secretary's office last night, and loaned $3000 at eighty-five months' interest in advance, and some $500 at seventy-five months. A premium of 25 cents per share was placed upon the new series of stock which is now open for subscription.—Statesman.

INITIATION.—At the regular meeting of Albany Lodge No. 4, I O O F to-morrow evening there will be initiation. All members are requested to be present. Team members especially should be on hand. C W SEARS, N. G.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.—Sealed bids will be received at the store of Stewart & Sox up to 9 a m April 15, 1891, for the construction of the United Presbyterian church, cor. 5th and Washington streets, Albany, Or. The committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids. Albany, March 31, E F Sox, Chairman of Com.

CHEAP WOOD.—Good fir wood delivered to any part of Albany, for only $3 a cord. Leave orders at P W Sparks' lumber yard.

W T Radir, the general rustler, now of Portland, was in the city this noon. Mr Radir considers the Oakland proposition in reference to the hosiery and knitting factory a fine one. He will inquire more particularly into the matter and let Albany people know as to how much stock it would be necessary to take. The proposition is open to Portland, Salem, Eugene and Albany. The former place is already taking steps in the matter.

The Y P S C E of the Christian church will give a "Shoe social" at the W C T U Hall, on Friday evening, April 10th. Free admission to all ladies bringing lunch in a shoe. MISSIT

Yesterday was the silver wedding of the G A R. It was twenty-five years old.

Gradually the eastern ways are creeping into Albany. For the first time on record a little girl came into the Democrat office and bought 2 cents worth of paper.

A Chicago man got mad the other day because asked to pay a bill. The Democrat is told of a man in Albany who wouldn't speak to a fellow citizen for a year just on account of a like request, decently made.

The papers of The Dalles are getting disgustingly personal. The Chronicle says: "The Chronicle has stopped buying concentrated lye to wash type with. It just drops a copy of the Times-Mountaineer in the jar and the lye is so strong as to need considerable reducing before being fit to use."

Superintendent G S Downing, of the penitentiary, has received 70 prisoners since the first of January. In the same length of time he has discharged 36 by expiration and commutation of sentences. This leaves an increase of 34 prisoners for the first quarter of this year. There are now 356 convicts in the institution.—Journal.

"Indianapolis has a man who took ten cents worth of morphine, ten cents worth of chloroform, a spoonful of "rough on rats" and two grains of strychnine without feeling any particular inconvenience. The deadly gripper would have a slim show with that robust citizen." It is possible the above, taken from an exchange, is simply a "take off" on the whiskey of today.

Is It Navigable.

ALBANY, APRIL 6, 1891.

Editor Democrat: In a recent issue of the Democrat you remark that "it has been reported that the Calippooia is a navigable stream at its mouth" and you add: "The Democrat has been requested to state that the laws have been thoroughly investigated by an Albany lawyer and that there is no such act on the books."

I fear that your informant was not properly advised. More than thirty years ago the territorial legislature passed an act declaring that stream navigable from its mouth to the Magnolia mill dam, and ever since that time, as occasion required, it has been navigated, in fact by the largest boats that ply on the Willamette river. Any person who claims that it is not navigable has not thoroughly investigated the subject.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The annual convention of the Sunday schools of Linn county, will be held on the 29th and 30th of April, 1891, in the Methodist Episcopal church, corner Third and Ellsworth streets, Albany, Oregon. The pastor and superintendent are each members of this convention by virtue of their offices, and each Sunday school is entitled to a delegate for every twenty members or fraction thereof more than one-half. Don't forget the time and place, but come and work to increase the efficiency of our Sabbath schools throughout all parts of the county. By order of the Executive committee. O. P. COBOW, JR., Secretary.

Don't fail to visit this sale and secure the greatest bargains ever offered in the millinery line. Positively for two days only.

Mr Wood says: "Some three months ago I was taken very sick with severe pain in the small of back over the kidneys. The pain was excruciating. I applied an Allcock's Porous Plaster over the affected region and had relief almost within an hour. At the same time, in conjunction with this trouble, I had very great nervous disturbance, affecting my legs with cramps so I could scarcely sleep. Meeting with such success with my back I applied a plaster under the knee on each leg, and in three days was completely cured, and have never been troubled in either way since."
