

And Still Another.

SANTIAM FORKS, LINN CO., OREGON, April 6th, 1891.

Editor Democrat: Through your indulgence I wish to inform the Veteran that he is still laboring under a forgetful memory. I would not have it understood that I thought for one moment that he was trying to cast any slur on the Crabtree delegation but rather to give them credit for hospitality and having a fair share of Jeffersonian democracy. But, in his last article he says: "All that I stated in my reminiscence of uncle Johnny Crabtree, was truthful, as my memory serves, and I learned it of himself and his wife." Now, I say without fear of successful contradiction, that the Veteran never learned any such stuff from uncle Johnny Crabtree or his wife either; and the Veteran further says that he neither exaggerated nor romanced, while all who read his article know he claimed the distance traveled on that memorable Saturday evening was a half-dozen miles away, and the uncle Johnny he claimed to have went home with only lived three miles from Scio. I am also creditably informed by an eye witness, that a certain man did go home on the evening of the speaking with uncle Job Crabtree and remained over night with him, a distance of about a half-dozen miles.

One thing seems inevitable, and that is that the veteran has forgotten which one of the boys he went home with, or which one of the boys he was himself, and now my Christian friend is this not satisfactory? Come over and stay all night with me, and see my bunch of a woman, and I will give you a geological survey of the country.

THE WAYWARD CHILD.

"August Flower"

The Hon. J. W. Fennimore is the Sheriff of Kent Co., Del., and lives at Dover, the County Seat and Capital of the State. The sheriff is a gentleman fifty-nine years of age, and this is what he says: "I have used your August Flower for several years in my family and for my own use, and found it does me more good than any other remedy. I have been troubled with what I call Sick Headache. A pain comes in the back part of my head first, and then soon a general headache, until I become sick and vomit. At times, too, I have a fullness after eating, a pressure after eating at the pit of the stomach, and sourness, when food seemed to rise up in my throat and mouth. When I feel this coming on if I take a little August Flower it relieves me, and is the best remedy I have ever taken for it. For this reason I take it and recommend it to others as a great remedy for Dyspepsia, &c."
