

LOCAL RECORD.

THEY WERE DIVORCED.—Last night about 11 o'clock Mr. E. B. Kendall was arrested on the charge of lewd cohabitation with Mrs. Kendall, nee Bessie Spraight. He was taken before Justice Humphrey who held a ghost dance court on his front porch and held the defendant under $100 bonds to appear for examination. The case is like this: At the last Circuit court a divorce was obtained between Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, dissolving their marriage contract. Even at the time of the divorce, it is said they were living together. The Democrat is informed that Mrs. Kendall supported the case had been roped and that it was a genuine reconciliation; but all the time the divorce suit was going ahead. They continued to reside together as man and wife. We understand the proceedings are brought to the investigation of the defendant's mother, Mrs. Prater.

The case was set for 10 o'clock this morning; but on account of the defendant's attorney being in Corvallis was adjourned until 3 o'clock to-morrow.

BECOMING A MILLIONAIRE.—Albany people will be glad to know of the good fortune of a former Albany young man, who is about to become a millionaire in the following easy way according to the Ochocho Review: M. E. Brink and Frank Peindexter, while on the Deschutes last week, each located a homestead of 160 acres near the proposed crossing of the O. & W. when "Deschutes City" or "Nicholsville" whichever it is named, becomes a second Spokane Fall, these gentlemen expect to become millionaires from the sale of their real estate.

TWO KILLER DEATHS.—Wm. J. Heron, well known in Albany, died at Salem, Monday, at the age of 67 years. He came to Oregon in 1845. James Heron, a brother, was a resident of Albany for many years, and was at one time Sheriff of this county. Wm. Heron was one of the best known business men in the valley and his death will be regretted by many.

Mr. C. Griffith, a pioneer of 1859, also died at that city, on Saturday, at the age of 84 years and 11 months.

TO WORK FOR ALBANY.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade held last evening, on recommendation of the committee heretofore appointed, who had received and opened five or six propositions, Mr. J. M. Southern was selected to represent Albany at Portland for three months, in order to work with immigrants coming to Oregon from the East. A subscription will be raised for the purpose and to secure printed matter to be used by him.

ANOTHER CAR LOAD.—Fortmiller & Irving have just received another car load of furniture from the east, embracing some of the finest goods ever brought to Oregon, including a fine variety of parlor sets up holstered in Wilton rug, elegant bed room sets, novelties in stands, rockers, chairs, etc. Their stock is always a splendid one so select from, but it was never better than now.

THE PRESBYTERY of the Willamette will meet for its regular spring meeting at the First Presbyterian church of this city to-night. The sermon will be preached by Rev. F. H. Gwynne. The business sessions will be continued to-morrow from 9 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.

THE CONTRACT LET.—A contract for making 25,000 ties has been let to a man at Mill City, and yesterday he was at that place securing help to fill the contract. When this is completed he has the assurance of another contract of like dimensions.

A WATCH FOUND.—Saturday night at the fire Mr. William Shields found a watch and chain near the burning building. Mr. Shields was one of the first ones there, finding the watch just as he got east of the building. Who lost it?

WALL PAPER, ETC.—I have just received a new line of wall paper and decorations. Have more than doubled my facilities for handling them, and will keep a much larger stock. Wall paper and border to match. Beauties, and much cheaper than ever before. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

LACE CURTAINS in great variety from 75 cts. to $9 a pair. These goods are bought from New York jobbers direct and cannot be excelled for quality, style and price. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to Thompson & Overman will please call and settle. Mr. Thompson having retired from the business it is desired to settle up all old accounts.

KEEP BUSY.—W. R. Graham, the merchant tailor, started to decorate his windows; but the rush at his shop was too great hence their incomplete appearance. He reports a live spring trade, and big demand for his fine line of imported and domestic suitings.

NEW MILLINERY STORE.—Mrs. C. W. Clark has opened a millinery store in the Strahan Block, with Mrs. Sherman as manager, and has a large and stylish stock of fresh goods in stock. Her goods are already opened for inspection, and she invites the ladies of Albany to call and inspect them.

AN ANNIVERSARY PARTY.

Yesterday was the twenty-second anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redfield. A number of their friends knowing of the fact, got up a celebration of their own, surprised the happy couple at their pleasant home on Calapooia street, and run things for several hours in a becoming manner. Games were played and there was music of a high order, not the least of which was an original song by Mr. J. F. Backensto, on his trip across the plains, sung with spirit and melody, and enthusiastically endorsed. A fine lunch, extemporaneously gotten up, was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. THE COMING CHIEF.—The New United Monaster Shows will be with us at Albany on Friday, April 24th. From all accounts this Mammoth Combination, with its wonderful galaxy of scenic talent and wonders from wonderland will, with its event here, mark an epoch in the history of our town. It is by far the greatest circus in the universe, and our citizens, both near and far, should feel specially favored by its coming. One feature alone of its many attractions, Queen Jumbo, is enough to arouse the curiosity and attention of everybody within fifty miles. The presence of the largest animal in the history of the world, and that a living, breathing, moving, mountain of flesh, is sufficient to startle the sluggish blood of the most inert among us. See advertisement elsewhere in our columns.

MISFIT

A 30 foot lot on Pike avenue, between Sixth and Seventh street, sold a few days ago for $1000 a front foot, at Seattle.

The boys will stop jumping on trains going through Albany. The next offense will take them before the Recorder.

This is Albany's year for celebrating the 4th of July, and it will no doubt be done, arrangements being made at the proper time.

McKinley Mitchell, the merchant of Gervais, undaunted by his recent business failure, is about to take unto himself a wife. The Star announces his engagement to Miss Hattie Scheier, of San Francisco.

Advertising, like buying goods, is a business, and the merchant should display the same enterprise in this branch. Do not bite at uncertainties. Deal with established houses of standing.

The following item leads us to believe that The Dalles must be a backwood city. The T. M. says: "A new safety bicycle was in operation in this city this morning, and the boys followed the manipulator as they would a circus." Albany is full of safety bicycles. One firm alone rides three of them.

The City Council meets to-night. A number of new ordinances will be passed. There is talk of making a curfew ordinance provide for all youths under a certain age bying off the streets at 8 o'clock. This would be going to extremes, and while it might be a good thing for the boys' moral welfare it probably could not be enforced after the matter cooled down. 8:30 or 9 o'clock would be more reasonable. Then ring the curfew bell and enforce it.

The proposition to have a man in Portland two or three months to work for Linn county is a good one. As it is even Portland people take pains to send newcomers to the Sound rather than to the Willamette, an undisputed fact, and a shameful one. If that city had worked for Oregon the way it has for Washington this state would now contain more of the largest population. It is high time that Albany and Linn county did some resting.

One of the editors of the Salem Journal is entitled to become a granger more than many editors. He says: "The agricultural editor of the Journal expects to be able to talk from experience soon. He has under cultivation 200 grape vines; ten acres of fruit trees; land cultivated to 6 acres potatoes; 2 acres of other crops; all of which relieves him from the suspicion of being altogether a side-walk agriculturist for political effect. He is also propagating 6000 grape cuttings suitable for Oregon farms and homes and ten of the newest and ten latest varieties of strawberries."

Farms for Sale.

I have for sale 100 acres of the finest farming land in the state. All in a high state of cultivation, no buildings, but has a beautiful building location. Eight miles from Albany, two miles from Tangent, on the S. P. R. R. Terms and price reasonable. Call and see me on Second street, opposite Democrat office. DR. G. W. MASTON.
