THAT HUNT.—There are 443 in the U.S. having a population of over, according to the recent census. The only Oregon cities in it are Portland and Salem. It is the city only gets credit for one. The truth is it gets credit for actual city limits under the old charter and the figures are 4515, while Albany, under the same arrangement, is 4072. In their own estimates the city have included the precincts of fifteen miles into the country, inhabitants of the penitentiary, asylum, Indian school, etc., which are left out. On the U.S. records for population will go down at the figures given, really do not quite do Salem, just the population of the city itself being about 7000, not over 4000.

A. J. HUNT.—A J. Hunt, the brother of the late Walla Walla, last killed a soldier named A. J. Hunt, who is a different kind of a man. Mr. Hunt, of this city, knew the Walla Hunt well. They were residents of that city in 1836 together, where their name was continually mixed on account of their names being the same. The lynched Hunt was a gambler, but Andy was not a gambler since then. The two A. J. Hunts met once then at this city, when the gambler was passing through Albany.

THE ALBA HUNT.—The Alba Hunt, the brother of the late Walla Walla, last killed a soldier named A. J. Hunt, who is a different kind of a man. Mr. Hunt, of this city, knew the Walla Hunt well. They were residents of that city in 1836 together, where their name was continually mixed on account of their names being the same. The lynched Hunt was a gambler, but Andy was not a gambler since then. The two A. J. Hunts met once then at this city, when the gambler was passing through Albany.

DECLARED INSANE.—Miss Ella McNight was brought from Mill City by Thursday night, pronounced insane by a commission and the next morning taken to Salem by Deputy Sheriff. Miss McKnight is about 22 years of age, and has been in the asylum before.

CHINAMAN.—Lee Gee and San were taken before Recorder Henton this morning. The former was fined $10 and $19.85 in all; the latter, plead not guilty, and will be tried Monday.

FARMERS.—Albany needs a place for farmers to leave their teams with. They have been doing it on the lot in front of the Court House, but that is closed for a base ball ground. A place should be furnished.

ALL ARRIVE TO-NIGHT.—Don't fail to call at Mueller & Garrett's at 6:30 p.m. to secure some of the fine California and vegetable, consisting of oranges, lemons, cauliflower, celery, cabbage, green beans, etc., for your Sunday dinner.

EXHIBITIONS.—The Sinner Mfg. Co. give one of their fine art exhibitions in their office in F. M. French's jewelry store, commencing Monday, April 27th, continuing three days. It will be in charge of experts from New York city, are invited to call and see what a car can do in the line of fine work.

ANTON.—The Encampment members of the Odd Fellows of this city are taking necessary steps to institute a Canton, a branch of the order takes on Odd Fellows and is quite popular among Odd Fellows in the east.

MILLINERY STORE.—Mrs. C. W. Clark has opened a millinery store in the new block, with Mrs. Sherman as helper, and has a large and stylish stock of goods in stock. Her goods are ready opened for inspection, and she is the ladies of Albany to call and inspect them.

CURTAINS.—In great variety from $5 to $9 a pair. These goods are from New York jobbers direct and cannot be excelled for quality, style and price. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

RENT.—A new, hard finished building house in eastern part of the city, of Ed M. Carter, 4th and Railroad street.

NEW SPRING GOODS.—I am now receiving my first invoices of spring novelty in wash goods, prints, gingham, seersuckers, etc. I have also just received a line of all wool summer plaids and goods. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

THOMPSON.—All persons indebted to Thompson & Overman will please call and settle. Mr. Thompson having resigned from the business it is desired to settle up all old accounts.

BEAR IN MIND.—That Conn & Hendrie keep a first-class stock of groceries, produce, etc. They do their own work, and consequently their expenses are light, and they can sell at bottom prices. Large sales and small profits. Courteous treatment to customers. Best goods in the market. And the freshest in the different departments. These are the rules they go by.

A GALA DAY.—Yesterday was a gala day for the Odd Fellows of Lebanon. It was the occasion of the celebration of the 72nd anniversary of the establishment of that order in the United States. Lebanon Lodge invited the lodges at Brownsville, Albany and places to join them in the celebration. Owing to the inclemency of the weather only about 30 members of Albany attended. They left on the train at 8 o'clock, and were joined at the Lebanon Junction by a large number of Odd Fellows and their wives from Brownsville, accompanied by a brass band, which seems to be the usual way of doing things—never by halves. On arriving at Lebanon they were met at the depot by the members of Lebanon and a large concourse of citizens and escorted to the hall, where a procession was formed, which marched through the principal streets of the town and finally to the Methodist church, which was jammed to overflowing by Odd Fellows and citizens generally to hear the address of M. C. George, of Portland. The address was said to be one of Mr. George's finest efforts and called forth much generous, hearty applause. After the address there were recitations and music of the most entertaining character. Then came dinner at the hotel, generously provided by the Odd Fellows of Lebanon for all their visiting brethren. The celebration was a success and will tend largely to strengthen the hold of the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth in that community.

SWINDLING GAMES.—The circus was accompanied by the usual number of entertainment games. A few greenies were found to bite, but not many here. A new way to rob people was practiced at Eugene; not much worse than the shell and such games. The guard says: "The first man to lose his money was Eugene Howe, of Creswell. He was watching the shell game, and in the course of a running conversation the shell man offered to bet him that he did not have fifty dollars in his possession. Howe unwarily took that amount of money from his pocket and held it in his open palm. To say that he was surprised at the transformation of the scene is to put it light. The table was overturned, his wrist was struck from below throwing the gold in the air, several of the circus men hustled him about, and when things quieted down the money had disappeared."

A LANE COUNTY BURGLARY.—The safe in J. H. Whiteaker's general merchandise store at Creswell, was blown open by burglars about midnight Thursday night, and about $500 in coin secured. The burglars dug out some brick at the back door and pried open the iron shutter, thus gaining an entrance. Flour was piled about the safe to deaden the explosion, a hole drilled through the door, powder introduced and the door blown out. Some knives and other articles were also missing from the store. Three hundred dollars of the money belonged to B. B. Scott, $75 to J. H. Whiteaker and the remainder to other parties who had deposited it for safety, as they thought. Guarded.

ANOTHER CAR LOAD.—Fortmiller & Irving have just received another car load of furniture from the east, embracing some of the finest goods ever brought to Oregon, including a fine variety of parlor sets, holstered in Wilton rug, elegant bed room sets, novelties in stands, rockers, chairs, etc. Their stock is always a splendid one to select from, but it was never better than now.

NEW CARPETS.—A. B. McIlwain has one of the largest and best selected lines of carpets in the city, embracing all new patterns and designs, and as he has made a great reduction in prices it will be to the advantage of carpet buyers to call and inspect his stock and prices before purchasing.

Recently Albany had a double birthday party. Salem now comes forward with a triple birthday party, Dr. Jessup, Mrs. Rogers and Jessup Strang, being the heroes of the occasion. A quadruple party is now in order for Albany.

Mrs. Hugh Leeper, of Shedd, was in the city today. Mr. and Mrs. Leeper will move to Tacoma in a few days, where Mrs. Leeper's brother in law, H. C. Clement, is one of the wealthy and prominent citizens.

The "Zoological party" social, at the W. C. T. U. hall, last evening, was a very nice affair. The attendance was good and the enjoyment had not lessened. Besides other games the zoological game was played. Twenty four animals were drawn on a blackboard by young people selected from the audience, while all present, each with a numbered card in hand, guessed what the animals were. Misses Mamie Candlish and Linda Starbuck each guessed 17 correctly and were presented with some wooden animals. A repeat of the game was served. A large display of pansies was a feature of the evening, all present being decorated with a bouquet of them.

MISSISS.

There is little danger of Linn county being divided for a score of years; but should it be there will be plenty of candidates for county seat. The Harrisburg Courier says: "The day is rapidly approaching when Linn county will be divided and a new county will be made of the southern portion. Harrisburg is entitled to be the county seat of the new county. The construction of the canal will enable her to more forcibly assert her rights."

The Salem Statesman gives a history of the private secretaries to Oregon's different governors. The list is as follows: Governor Gibb's secretary, C. N. Terry; Govs. Whiteaker and Woods had none; Governor Grover's, Hon. H. H. Gilgley, now of Washington; Governor Chadwick's, Sylvester Simpson, a brother of the poet Sam; Governor Thayer's, T. J. Stites; Governor Moody's, Chas. B. Moores; Governor Penney's, W. A. Munley.

An honest paper generally expresses the situation of affairs at home. The Pendleton E. O. is honest. It says: Conductor Gould, on the express from Pendleton to Spokane, has purchased a block of land in Salem, says the Statesman, for $2500. Mr. Gould might have invested this money in Pendleton where the property owners and real estate agents jostling together for Pendleton's upbuilding.
