chose him a member, and he is the only example we have of a president who after service as a chief magistrate sat in the national assembly. Wrshington was called an brief time to the command of the army, Grant before his death was placed as general upon the retired list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list, but all the other presidents who survived their term passed list. For other sources it is learned that April 30 a conspiracy was discovered in San Jose, Costa Rica, to overthrow President Rodricu-quez. The governor immediately requested and received permission from the permanent conspirators were captured. Everything is now but the revolutionists attacked the barracks in San Jose, but were repulsed, five being killed. into private life. It was as a congressman that Adams gained the sobriquet of "the old man elequent," and it was as a sitting member of the house that the sudden stroke of death was delivered upon him. Spared to a green old age his declining years were the happier for himself and the more useful for his country, at least for his party because they were actively employed in the public service. Jefferson and the elder Adams long survived their presidential terms, dying on the same day, Grant's life after the presidency, at least after the trip around the world, was one long misery, in which he suffered political disappointment and financial disaster.

Employment is a necessity of wholesome xistence, and if happiness is to accompany it the employment must be congenial. In the reichstag Bismarck may do as much or as little as he choose, but the opportunity is not denied him. The tendency of the change, so far as human ken goes, will be to lengthen his life. The station will be humbler, but what of that?,

PENDLETON,, May 8. The presidential train sturned to Portland from the Sound at 4 returned to Portland from the Sound at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and remained at the union depot till 7:15, when it started east over the Union Pacific. Very few people were at the depot, and none of the party alighted except Postmaster-Gear-all Wanamaker, who went out to get an Oregonian. Russel B Harrison came out on the platform for a few movements before the train started, and as it moved away President Harrison waved his adious from a window.

A Barbarous Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7 .- The sleep-fastng contest which began a week ago with ing contest which began a week ago with twenty entries, ended in W C Woodford; the only contestant who remained awake, peing forced by the management to retire at 9:45 this morning. He had been without sleep for 158 hours and 45 minutes. He brace the record of 148 hours and 20 minutes, which was made in Detroit. Woodford received $100, and Jackson and Harris, who remained awake over 96 hours, $50 and $55 respectively. Hartshorn was thrown in Woodford's face, his hand burned, and other barbarous methods taken to keep him awake.
