WASHINGTON.
(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, May 11, 1891.

Mr Harrison will return this week if no accident happens to the royal special upon which his very much enlarged (in the head) majesty is travelling, to anything else but a united official family. Secretaries Blaine and Foster have been unable to agree upon Behring sea matters, and Mr Blaine has also been at loggerheads with both Attorney General Miller and Secretary Tracy on the authority of this government to seize upon the open sea the ship Itata, which was recently seized at San Diego, California, and went off with the U S Marshal on board, but allowed him to go ashore after getting outside the harbor, and which is supposed to belong to the Chilean insurgents. Mr Blaine contending that we have no right to interfere with the vessel unless she is inside the three mile limit, and Messrs Tracy and Miller that we have a right to seize her wherever found.

Mr Blaine has not added much to his attachment for Mr Harrison since that gentleman has been away for several reasons. He has used language, so I am informed by one of Mr Blaine's friends, in telegraphing to Mr Blaine, that meant precisely what the young Emperor of Germany so undiplomatically expressed recently by saying: "I alone am master in this country," and as he has never dared to take such a position in his personal contact with the secretary of state it very naturally offended him that he should do so by wire. Then, as if to add insult to injury, came Russell Harrison's fool editorial in his newspaper about Mr Blaine having bound himself before entering the cabinet to remain loyal to Mr Harrison. Mr Blaine finally became so disgusted that he went to New York and left orders that everything that came to the state department was to be kept until Mr Harrison returned.

"And when he does return," said my informant, "there will be a mighty interesting conversation between Blaine and Harrison that will either result in bringing Mr Harrison down from his high horse, or in taking Mr Blaine out of the cabinet and making him the republican nominee for the presidency, in fact it may result in both. Mr Blaine is not the man to allow his dignity to be trifled with by anybody, and he certainly does not propose to stand it from a man of Harrison's calibre."

The cry of "British gold" has been used by the republican party in the past with such good results that ex-Senator Warner Miller proposes using it to boom his Nicaragua Canal scheme, which is at present languishing for lack of gold of any kind. He came to Washington direct from an inspection of the canal, which as yet consists of little more than surveyors stakes, in order to fix up things with the administration to push the scheme next winter for having this government guarantee the payment of $100,000,000 of bonds to be issued by the company, and to drop a hint that if it was not done England would furnish the money. Secretary Tracy strongly endorses the scheme and says that we have either got to build the canal or build and maintain a separate navy for the Pacific. Nobody doubts the desirability of having the canal, but it is not at all probable that the democratic house will be willing to pledge the credit of this country in order to raise $100,000,000, to be spent under the direction of a republican machine. When Mr Miller and his associates came to congress to get the charter for this company the statement was made over and over that the money needed to build the canal had been pledged by private parties; now, after having spent about one-twentieth of its estimated cost, the company is practically at a stand-still for lack of funds.

The republican leaders here are growing uneasy over the news that they are getting of the rapid growth of the farmer's alliance in Ohio. They know that McKinley on a high protection platform will not be swallowed by the alliance folks.

Ex-Secretary Bayard is visiting friends in Washington. He declined to express his opinion of the job lot of foreign complications that Uncle Sam now has on hand.

Senator Morgan thinks that Mr Blaine in his last letter to Lord Salisbury on the Behring sea arbitration has at last got into to just the right position. Considerable comment has been caused by the fact that Secretary Foster has granted an agent of the sugar trust permission to visit all custom houses where imported sugar is received for the purpose of looking after the interest of the trust in seeing that the assessment of duties is uniform. The secretary claims that the interests of the government and the sugar people are identical, but others do not see it in that light.

It is said by one who knows that not a single speech delivered by the president on his recent tour was telegraphed until it had been carefully rewritten by the president himself. It was said the president carried both a dictionary and an encyclopedia with him.

In a very few weeks the little ripples created by the president in his swinging around the circle will have died out and the places that lately knew him will know him no more forever.

MAIL FACILITIES.

The Solo Press speaks of an Albany paper being received in Solo last Thursday on the day of publication and says this is due to the energy of Postmaster Monteith. Now, Mr Monteith has been showing the same energy in dispatching Solo mail ever since he took charge of the office. His predecessor ex Postmaster Thompson was equally energetic in dispatching Solo mail, but the trouble all the while has been at Woodburn where mail is transferred from the Oregonian Railway to the O & C line. It quite frequently happened months ago that the Times published at Brownsville on Friday would not reach here until the following Tuesday. We are glad to know that a more expeditious transfer of mail is to be made at Woodburn.

It is a matter of secondary importance with democrats whether a republican or a democratic administration shall secure a reform of the tariff in the interests of the masses, but they have determined to compel the republicans to adopt it or get out of the way and let them do it. The great masses are rapidly approaching that point at which they will demand in tones that mean something, that the government must be restored to its primitive object—one of the people by the peoples and for the people.

PARK -O- ADDITION TO THE TOWN OF LEBANON

This Beautiful Addition to the Town of Lebanon is Now, for the First Time Placed on the Market, at Prices to Suit the Times, and Terms to Suit the People.

We would much prefer that all who wish to purchase lots in this addition, would come and personally inspect the grounds and learn for themselves the many and varied advantages this addition presents to the public. By a personal inspection you will discover the following facts:

Lebanon has a population of 1500. One hundred and twenty-five new substantial houses were built here during the year. The Lebanon and Santiam Canal Company has been incorporated, and work will begin thereon as soon as the necessary preliminaries can be arranged.

This canal will give steady work to hundreds, and will furnish mill-sites for many manufactures, and the town—from this and other advantages—will be a city of 3000 inhabitants. It has nearly doubled its population in the last year. A $150,000 paper mill is now completed and work will be begun therein this July 1st.

NOW FOR THE PARK -O- ADDITION.

It lies along the route of the Lebanon and Santiam Canal. It is planted with wide level avenues; planted with most beautiful young shade trees; each lot fully large enough for a comfortable residence, and each has a natural drainage. We sell no lots that are unsuitable for building purposes, and give a clear title to each lot. This addition joins the beautiful Isabella Park—from which it derives its name—and which will afford to residents in the addition beautiful recreation grounds. All lots are 66 feet front and from 232 to 185 feet deep.

LET THIS FACT BE REMEMBERED!

The price of all these lots will be advanced 25 per cent. after May 15th.

This property will be shown to parties desiring to purchase by
