BECAME OBSCURE.—Just as the City Council closed last evening Marshal Hoffman appeared before the Recorder with one John Doe, probably E H Boardman, arrested for using obscene language. Boardman had failed to pay for some drinks coming to $1, bought of M Baumgart. The Marshal requested him to go to Baumgart's and attend to the matter, resulting in Boardman's becoming somewhat obscure in his remarks. His examination before the Recorder was full of interest. He showed that he was not without considerable experience in such matters. He was fined $5 and costs, a total of $14.50, which not having he was taken to the calaboose. TO-NIGHT.

Abbie Carrington at the Albany Opera House.

The Carrington Opera Company arrived in Albany this noon, and will appear at the opera house tonight. Mr Carrington informs the DEMOCRAT that the attacks made on the company were begun in Seattle, at the instigation of a certain man who was following the company up in a blackmailing scheme. He shows endorsements from many sources. At Olympia the Olympian said: "No better company of artists has ever visited Olympia, nor any who are more truly refined ladies and gentlemen."

Last night the company played at Eugene, and in view of the attack made by the Salem and Seattle papers, the following testimonials—of which the original copies are before us—were given: We enjoyed the Abbie Carrington Opera Co, in "Rose of Castile," last night. We cheerfully offer this testimonial to the merit of the company—to each and every member. Fine voices and a good time. J. B. RHEINERT, T. J. CHAIG, J. S. LUCKEY, S. H. FRIENDLY, J. JESSE COHEN.

I consider the Abbie Carrington Opera Company the best company of artists that has ever appeared at Rinehart's theater, and every number rendered was excellent. All those who were fortunate enough to be present spent a most enjoyable evening of entertainment, and I regret, as do many others, that the audience was not crowded to overflowing, and I, as do my friend, heartily endorse them to the musical loving public where ever they may appear. J. JESSE COHEN, S. H. FRIENDLY.

Tonight the admission will be $1.50, for reserved seats, and 75 cents in the gallery. We are requested to state that those who attend and are not satisfied with the performance may have their money refunded.

I F Conn and D C Shell left this noon northward bound on business. Gen James A Varney, state fruit inspector, was in the city this forenoon. C P Burkhardt returned yesterday from a visit with his two daughters in Tacoma. J S Antonelle was in the city today on business, as will be seen by the real estate sales.

Mrs L Bilyen and son, of Eugene, are in the city on their way home from Portland.

The Fairmount S S across the river will give a picnic next Saturday, to which the members of Albany S S's will be welcome. Mr Alexander, recently of the Lebanon Express, left this noon for Eugene, where he will stop for awhile before again going into business.

J S Morris and D D Dayton, of Scio were in the city today. Mr Dayton is president of the Paint Co, there and had some good specimens with him. One, a sign painted seven years ago shows what wonderful wearing qualities it has, the wood wearing more than the paint.

Oregon State Grange.

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Oregon State Grange met in the hall of Hillsboro grange May 26th. A large delegation present. Called to order by W. M. H E Hayes, at 10 o'clock.

Committee on credentials reported who were entitled to seats, and after a pleasant meeting adjourned for dinner. At 1 o'clock called to order, and formed in procession, headed by the Hillsboro band, marched to the Court House, where public exercises were held. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Bailey, response by S A Sample. The annual address of the Master was then delivered. Music was furnished for the occasion by the choir and band.

Grange called to order at 7 p m. Committee on order of business reported the hours of calling to order 8 a m, 1 and 7 p m. The evening was consumed in the report of committees.

Second day called to order at 8 o'clock. The roll call found all delegates present but three. The regular order of business was taken up. Invitation of the members of Hillsboro grange to give us all a free ride through a portion of the Tualatin plains at 1 o'clock was accepted. Much business was transacted, and at the hour of 12 adjourned for dinner.

1 o'clock the members of Hillsboro grange arrived with their hacks and buggies, and we took a fine ride for about 15 miles. There is some fine farms and beautiful residences in this part of Washington county. Everything seems to be in a prosperous condition. Saw the grade of the Astoria R R; considerable work has been done, hope to hear of active work beginning soon, also of its early completion. We returned to the hall and at 4 resumed our work. The members seem to be earnestly considering the work before them.

Evening session convened at 7. The lecturer exemplified the unwritten work, when the regular order of business was taken up and much work was done.

Third day convened at 8 a m opened in regular form. A large number of resolutions were referred to the different committees, and many reports received.

Afternoon session, called to order at 1 o'clock, when the question of where the next State grange would be held was taken up. Albany and The Dalles were nominated. Vote taken by calling the roll, 41 votes cast, Albany 21, The Dalles 20, when Albany was declared the choice of the two places named. The regular order of business was gone over and much work done.

Evening session was taken up in conferring the 5th and 6th degrees, 54 taking the 5th degree and 85 the 6th. After the degree work was over a fine social time was had, eating oranges, nuts and candies. A few speeches from several brothers was listened to with interest.

Fourth day, 8 a m, several resolutions and reports of committees amending the by-laws was passed. Several of the delegates took the morning train for Portland, as their business compelled them to go home.

The remainder of the day was spent in the work before us, when at 3 o'clock we adjourned and wended our way to the depot, and took the train for our homes.

Would say Hillsboro is a nice, quiet town and its business conducted in an orderly manner. The hotel accommodations were insufficient to accommodate the crowd, but the people of the town opened their doors and bid us welcome. A more social town is hard to find. The members of the State grange were treated with the best of respect, for which they have the hearty wishes of all those who partook of their hospitality. I understand the saloon keepers said there had been 300 grangers in town for four days and they had not sold fifteen drinks. I think that speaks exceedingly well for the grangers. I think the State grange meeting in any town is a fine thing for it, for many go to such places who never would be there if they were not interested in the grange. No doubt there will be a large number in Albany on the day the State grange meets, and every effort will be put forth to make it a success.
