WITH BARE KNUCKLES, - Last ever ing, according to an account given the DEMOCRAT, a one round fight accurred across the river near the stone quarry of a very exciting nature. The combatants were two young near, one weighing nearly 190 pounds and the other about 140. While working in the quarry they had had a dispute, which they agreed to settle with bare knuckles. Forming a ring in the public road they went for each other, in puglishing style. The middle weight was purilistic style. The middle weight was too much for the heavy weight, knocking him down and out in the fraction of a round. While it lasted, our informant states, it was of a nature to have suited the experienced sport.

PIONEERS AT BROWNSVILLE, -The Linn County Pioneers began a three days n at Brownsville yesterday with a attendance. A fine time was being and the meeting proving a great success
a every respect, though a light rain ampened matters for awhile. Hon J K weatherford, of this city, delivered the adircis, which one of his hearers tells us, ras a fine effort, tull of reminiscent and increating facts connected with the rowth of Linn county, with which Mr Weatherford has become so familiar durhis long residence here, day evening. Last evening the Kings Daughters of the M E Church gave Mrs C O Lee a surprise reception at the home of Mr F S Crosoy. A pleasant time is reported, A nice lunch of ice cream and cake was partaken of. During the evening a hand-some quilt was presented Mrs Lee, pieced by the Kings Daughters.

Mr E H Boardman, the young man recently arrested here for using obscene language, was what he claimed to be, an employe of the Southern Pacific R R bengin an important position is the freight department, and a young man of ability in his line. As a railroad man remarked, the experience will do him good. He should keep out of saloons and not use his tongue too freely and may possibly some day be-come president of a railroad company.

Col. Geo. W. Bain.-There was a large house last night at Col. Bain's lecture. Rev J F Stewart read the scriptures, Rev Fisher offered prayer, and two songs were heard by the Apollo club. Col. Bain's lecture was one replete with interesting Incts and incidents. It was delivered with cloquence, the audience being held in the closest attention until the closest attention until the close. A southern man, the Col. does much to bring the two sections close does much to bring the two sections close together in a common fight on a great bondage, that of intemperance, in which the south now is doing the most effective work. It is a privilege to hear this speaker of national fame, not often enjoyed in Albany. The amount of the collection was $51; Sunday evening it was $47.

THEATRICAL .- Our citizens general have been desiring an opportunity to see Little Lord Fontleroy. This they now are to have the privilege of at the Opera House on June 20th. No one will want to miss it. On July 8th "Si Plunkard," a side splitting comedy, will be given here. Warner & Cranor propose giving our citizens some as good attractions as can be secured. can be secured.

At a butter warehouse in Albany you can now get four grades of the article, 15, 20, and 25 cent butter. Our farmers should all strive to be on the high price of the list. With most people the quality is the only consideration in buying butter.

The very bandsome floral fan at the Opera House, reading "Welcome Bain," might be kept and utilized by changing the B to R. at some opportune time to be selected by the farmers of the county. Mr Rain like Rain cheers the spirits of many.

The lowest rate on record, five cents a bushel, is now being charged for carrying wheat from Chicago to New York. The grain is taken by lake to Bulfalo, then by tide water to the Eric canal. The lake boats get 1½ cts., the Buffalo elevators ½ of a cent and the Eric canal boats the remainder. It costs about twice as much in Oregon to carry wheat a tenth of the distance.

A jury at Spokane reported at the end of twenty-four hours that they were still unable to agree. Superior Judge Moore ordered them back to the jury room, to remain until they reached a verdiet. He also instructed the bailiff not to give them anything to eat until they had found a verdiet of guilty or not guilty. In ten minutes thereafter the jury returned a verdiet finding the prisoner guilty as charged. A new trial will be asked for on the ground that the judge had no right to coerce the jury.

A correspondent of the Salem Journal shows that there is at least one person in Salem who appreciates a good thing. He says of Carrington: "I feel you have done her great injustice; perhaps you were a little prejudiced and aggravated, by her non-fullillment of bringing her orchestra and scenery and still charging hig price. This everyone felt, but as to her singing—it was perfectly delightful and will linger long in my memory; the alto, base and tenot were also excellent. It is sad we all grow old, but for a singer, as long as the voice lasts, there will be no lack of admirers. An opera is to be heard. Of course, it is all the more enchanting, when youth and beauty are combined. A correspondent of the Salem Journal

When Mrs Jones and daughter arrived When Mrs Jones and daughter arrived at the insane asylum the other day they thought they were in a big hotel. The Salem Journal puts it as follows: The saddest cage of insanity on record has just been committed to the hospital for the insane at Salem. Sheriff Matt Scott, of Linn county, brought down two crazy women, Rebecca F Jones and her daughter Sarah Jones. The mother is aged 70, has had continuous attacks for several years, uses profane language and has destructive and homocidal inclinations. The sad condition of the women being hereditary. They are natives of Maryhereditary. They are natives of Maryland and Virginia. The daughter is 51 years old. Declining reason has made it necessary now to protect their families and neighbors.
