Daily Democrat.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, June 1, 1591. There is considerable indignation expressed by democrats here over a publication in a New York paper intimating that the National Association of democratic clubs was using its machinery to beom Senator Gorman for the presidential nomination. The principal aim of this magnificient organization, which is bound to play a very important part in the next campaign, has been, from its organization to work for the cause of democracy, but under no circumstances to take any part in the making or unmaking of presidential candidates. It was because of this aim that when the association appointed its corresponding agents, one or more of which it has in every county in the United States, it decided not to select the men, but to request the democratic state committees to make the selections. Now it requires no argument to convince anyone that if this association proposed using its vast influence for any one man it would have made its own selections of corresponding agents in order to be certain of having friends of its man. By getting the state committees to do it, all chance of favoritism was done away with, as it is well known that a majority of the committees of the different states favor different men for the nomination.

There is no objection here to Senator Gorman, for he is idolized by the party, but It is the intimation that the association is trying to force his nomination that is objected to. The association proposes leaving the selection of the candidates to the national convention; the work for which it was organized, and for which it is now planning, is the election of the nominee, no matter who he may be, and it will confine itself to that work.

Representative Hitt, of Illinois, who has been called Mr Blaine's personal representative in the House, has just returned from a visit to Mr Blaine, and It is said that he brought a message to the White House which gave Mr Harrison a bad half hour. It was a remonstrance against certain changes that Mr Harrison proposed making in some of Mr Blaine's plans, and it carried with it a threat of resignation, and my informant says Mr Hitt left with the assurance that Mr Blaine's plans would not be interfered with, Ex-minister John W Foster will act as secretary of state while Mr Blaine is taking a rest, but the assistant secretaries of state do not take kindly to the idea-they think they should have had the honor, but neither Mr Harrison nor Mr Blaine thought either of them blg enough for the job.

Mr Harrison does not approve of Secretary Foster's scheme of extending the 4% per cent bonds which mature next September, but the secretary still hopes to talk him around, as he knows the necessi ty of having the money for other uses will soon be so apparent that everyone can see

State department officials are trying to make the people believe that we are to have a closed season in Behring's Sea this season, but it only raises a smile upon the faces of those familiar with the subject. It may be several weeks before the British Parliament passes the bill now before it authorizing that government to agree to the closed season proposition pending the arbitration; meanwhile the illeg al sealers sailing under the British flag are taking seals, and by the time that all the neces sary red tape is gone through with and a sufficient naval force is placed in Behring's Sea, even granting that Lord Sallsbury finally agrees, to enforce a closed season the season will be over. It looks at present like the usual British diplomatic trick,

The pension office is giving the administration a good deal of trouble. According to good republican authority Mr Harrison utilized his visit to Philadelphia on memorial day by trying to get a big G A R man to take Commissioner Raum's place; but he didn't succeed The Pennsylvania man was too smart. He wasn't looking for that sort of an office.

There is lots of talk about resignations these days, and, strange as it may seem, some resignations. The commissioner of patents has discovered that office-holding isn't his forte and has resigned; the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service has also resigned - he got $4,000 a year, and thought he ought to get $6,000. Cabinet rumors are also again current, one of them pats Bob Lincoln at the head of the war department and sends Secretary Noble to England as our minister.

The agony as to who shall sit on the new land court bench will be over in a few days, probably this week. The Attorney Gen. ral is reported to have said that one of the judges will be a democrat.

It is difficult to convince the average dear, delightful woman that there is not some deeplaid connection between the burried shipment of gold to Europe and her husbands knowledge that the bill for her Easter bonnet will be coming in in a few days,

Mr Cannon's apology for the Billion Congress, that it was preceded by a nignardly body and is to be followed by another equally parsimonious, does not affirm quite to much consolation as it does hope. It is some comfort of know that a transmible average of exposurers is to be unintained.

Promine is to be mandained.

Little Rhody is "some pumpkins" of a state after all. The smallest of all the states, she has the largest population per square mile, or 31844 persons. The figures of the last census show that if the whole Union were as densely populated it would contain 948,776,500 inhabitants. Now it is seen for what Rhode Island is distinguished above all her sister states, She has been observing Lord Baltimore's Maryland motto, which rendered into plain English reads: "Increase and multi-

The fact remains that the last congress perpetrated a prodigality of expenditure to which nothing in our history can be compared. In a time of profound peace it has done this, eating up the surplus and at the same time increasing the tax on our consumers to the unheard-of rate of a 60 per cent average while reducing the revenue, The public treasury is plundered on the hand and the bounties and perquisities of the millionaires increased on the other, and the people are whipsawed between a decreased revenue and increased taxation,
