

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Ted Parker, of Yaquina Bay, is in the city.

Mr. C. G. Rawlings is now a deputy in the Sheriff's office.

Argyle Mason, the Salem sewer contractor, is in the city.

Mr. Omer Hendrickson returned last evening from a trip to Portland.

D. H. James received a dispatch from Iowa that his father was lying dangerously ill, and left on the noon train for his former home.

Miss Iva Templeton, who recently had one of her legs amputated in Portland, passed through to Albany today on her way to her home near Brownsville.

In response to a dispatch Mr. Jas. F. Powell went to Portland this noon, and will probably be associated in business with Mr. J. S. Antonelle on some contracts.

Miss Crawford, of Salem, who has been in the city several days the guest of Miss Tina Monteith, returned home this noon.

Mrs. James Failing and children, and Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, came up from Portland this noon on a visit with Albany relatives and friends. Mrs. Failing is at Mr. Cal Burkhardt's, Mrs. Wakefield at Mr. L. E. Blain's.

Chas. Cusick, George Morehouse, Walter Irving, Dr. Kelley and wife, S. S. Train and family, J. R. Whitney, Mrs. Dr. Davis, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, and Hon. R. A. Irvine and family, returned last evening from the front of the Oregon Pacific.

Chief of Police Hoffman and Policeman Lee went to Salem today, having been subpoenaed to appear as witnesses before the grand jury of Marion county in the case of the State against the burglar recently arrested by them near this city.

MISSISSIPPI.

The Albany Morning Herald has discontinued its press report, the expense being too heavy.—Eugene Daily Guard.

Baker City script is said to be worth 50 cents on the dollar. The Denver of Oregon, too.

Says the Klamath County Star: "Porter, the superintendent of the last census says 'the future of Oregon lies in the Willamette valley.' We take the liberty to differ with Mr. Porter. The future of Oregon is very much like Mr. Porter. It lies in all the valleys." And yet after all Oregon doesn't lie very much. Washington does the lying.

The Carrington troupe, who were not good enough for the high toned editors and a few Salem aristocrats, delighted Portland people who heard them. The Oregonian says: "They came here almost entirely unheralded, but before the first act was over they demonstrated the fact that the company was composed of artists, who could both sing and act. Mme. Carrington has a beautiful soprano voice, and she sings very, very well. The difficult aria in the first act was given most charmingly, the florid passages, runs and cadenzas being splendidly sung."

Barnum & Bailey, the great show firm, successors to P. T. Barnum, have written the DEMOCRAT a friendly letter, indicating either that some free advertising is wanted or that there is a slight rivalry even in the circus business: "You are hereby notified that certain agents of Messrs. Sells Brothers and Barrett's circus have and are now offering personal, false and libelous articles for publication reflecting against and intended to injure the reputation and commercial value of the Barnum & Bailey shows; therefore you are by this timely notice warned not to publish anything of a scandalous, personal or libelous character that may be offered your columns either as reading matter, 'local notes' or as advance notice. Legal advice has been obtained upon this subject, and while we have every reason to believe that any reputable newspaper will refrain from publishing such 'milling' matter, we shall protect our well-known reputation and business interest to the full extent of the law."

HAVE YOU A WIFE and ten children; have you any children; are you an old bachelor? Whatever you are you can do better than by buying your groceries, produce and baked goods of Parker Bros. You want to save money and at the same time get good groceries, then call on them. You will get first-class treatment and first-class goods. Their baked goods are made in an experienced manner, and include a large variety of eatables.

NOTICE.—From this time on I will sell all my gent's furnishings at greatly reduced rates, such as 75c neckties for 50c, $1.50 underwear for $1 per suit, $3 underwear for $2.25 per suit, $6 silk shirts for $4.75 each, $4.50 black silk shirts for $3.50 each, and everything in the same proportion. The remainder of my dry goods going for 50c on the dollar. Shoes at reduced rates, to reduce stock before removal. June 3rd, 1891. Blumberg Block.

SOUND ADVICE.—It pays to get the best; even Shakespeare admitted that. In this connection it may be remarked that W. R. Graham has just received an elegant line of suitings for the spring and summer, never surpassed in an Albany market. They are the best to be obtained, as an inspection will show, and Mr. Graham is prepared to make them up in the latest style with a skill his long experience has enabled him to be master of.

NEW CARPETS.—A. B. McIlwain has one of the largest and best selected lines of carpets in the city, embracing all new patterns and designs, and as he has made a great reduction in prices it will be to the advantage of carpet buyers to call and inspect his stock and prices before purchasing.

Fresh peas, beans, gooseberries, currants, radishes, strawberries, cherries, cantaloupes, etc., at Allen Bros., who always keep on hand the latest and best groceries and produce in the market.

LADIES OXFORD TIES.—I have a very large stock of these goods, in qualities ranging in price from $1.25 to $4.00 a pair. They are made of leather; every pair warranted. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

THE UNDERGRADUATES.

When the curtain arose on "The Whistling Farmer Boy," at the opera house, an audience of fifty or six hundred people faced the twenty-one little boys in straw hats. This was a gem that deserved the warm encore that followed.

The Fairy Crowning, a children's operetta, was a very pretty affair. The solos and choruses were all nicely rendered, and a prettier lot of fairies are not often seen and heard than Leta Blain and Lucy Chamberlain, the mischievous fairies, Bessie Merrill and Vida Maston, the lazy fairies, Francis Graham, the kindhearted fairy, Vesta Henton, the flirting fairy, Carrie Prichard, the working loving fairy, and Emma Sox, the match making fairy. Edna Price was a bright queen, attended by Mary Graham, Eva Roscoe, Orpha Fisher and Lizzie Patterson.

The desarte gesture drills, by a class of about twenty young ladies in cream colored Grecian costumes, was perhaps the prettiest exercise ever presented by local talent in Albany, conferring great credit not only on the class, but as well on their efficient instructor, Miss Moser, under whom they are able to display such great proficiency in the desarte movements. A prolonged encore followed.

Shoemaker John was sung by a class of boys and girls and listened to with much pleasure.

"Zanie," an operetta, was presented with pleasing effect. While young Zanie was stolen by gypsies from her American home, and taken to England, growing up into a beautiful young woman, though apparently a gypsy, Herbert, J. Clement Irvine, the son of Sir Henry Granville, F. O. Breckenridge, falls in love with her and runs off with her and runs off with the gypsies. Mr. and Mrs. P. Engdall, Percy Young and Mamie Cundiff, the real parents appear, and, with Sir Henry follow the gypsies, recovering their children, and the operetta ends with a happy wedding scene. Choruses, solos, duets, trios, etc., are the order of the operetta, some of which were particularly well rendered. Miss Cowan, as Zanie, did well, her sweet, clear voice pleasing all. Mr. Clem Irvine has a very musical voice, and he fills the part of Herbert in good style. Hattie Graf's presentation of the gypsy fortune teller took with the audience, and the support was good.

Tonight occurs the address of Hon. Geo. H. Williams. The desarte drill will be repeated.

Tomorrow morning the commencement exercises will be given, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, according to the program heretofore given.

SOME SALEM ITEMS.

SPECIAL TO DEMOCRAT.

SALEM, Or., June 9.—Supt. McElroy is dangerously ill, and still unconscious. Counsel of physicians declared today he has suffered lesion of blood vessel at base of brain.

Rube Bontin, horse dealer, from Antelope, Oregon, was thrown from horse and nearly killed, though he may recover.

FUNERALS AT OAKVILLE.

June 1st, 1891.

Within the past six weeks four deaths have occurred at Oakville. On April 13 we laid to rest Mrs. Ann McBride; on May 20 Mr. Wm. Andrew McBride, son of Arthur McBride, and son-in-law of Mr. Washington Pugh; on May 28 Mrs. Eva Farrar, wife of Robt. Farrar and daughter of Chas. Pattison. These were all members of the Willamette United Presbyterian church, and their loss will not alone be felt by the family, but by the church and community.

In the death of Mrs. McBride and Mrs. Brown, aged 75 and 70 years respectively we have an instance of the gathering. "like a shock of corn, fully ripe." In that of Mr. McBride and Mrs. Farrar, each 28 years of age, we see an illustration in the "flower cut down." Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." A.

Drilling for the Encampment.

Headquarters F. Co., Second Regiment Infantry, O. N. G., Albany, Or., June 8th, 1891. General order No. 17.

Commencing June 9th, 1891, all members of this company will assemble at the armory each Tuesday and Friday evening until June 27th, 1891, for drill and instruction. This order is made in compliance with orders from regimental headquarters, and only lawful excuses will be accepted for the absence of any member. The men will return to the armory any arms or accoutrements they may have, including the wooden wiping sticks. They will also see that their uniform is in proper condition for the inspection.

By order of GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, Capt. Commanding.

Attest: W. A. HUMPHREY, First Serg't.

DRESS MAKING.—Work neatly done and satisfaction guaranteed. Rooms at Mrs. J. E. Carter's, corner Railroad and Fifth streets. ADELIA BURKHART.

IN THE SPRING.—A fine line of Blazer jackets for spring wear, in many designs, just received by G. W. Simpson.

Also a large stock of the popular self-sewing corsets.

GET A BICYCLE.—The New Mail is one of the finest bicycles manufactured. It has no superior. Ohlberg & Wilson, with Stewart & Sox are agents, where these bicycles may be seen.

HOME AND ABROAD.

City Council to-night.

Jefferson will celebrate the 4th of July.

A game of base ball has been arranged between the Albany and Salem clubs, to take place in Salem on Saturday, June 27th.

The Western Union night service has been discontinued at this city, the office closing at 8 o'clock.

A good many Albany people will go to Eugene on the 4th, a special train going in the morning and returning at night, making the trip a convenient one. The State encampment the 6 is the chief attraction, one worth attention.

The grand lodge of Masons convenes in Portland tomorrow. The Royal Arch Chapter was in session there yesterday and elected the following officers: Most eminent grand high priest, J. Tittle, of Astoria; deputy, Geo. E. Chamberlain, of Albany; eminent king, G. M. D. Stroud, of Portland; scribe, W. C. Crawford, of Corvallis; captain of the host, J. M. Hedson, of Portland; principal sojourner, J. H. Irvine, of Portland; treasurer, D. P. Mason, of Albany; recorder, R. P. Echart, of Portland; grand lecturer, Thomas Olson, of The Dalles.

BROWNVILLE.

June 8, 1891.

Pioneer picnic was a grand success here last week.

We notice R. H. Coshaw, of Salem, here of late. He looks natural in this place.

W. B. Blanchard and J. W. Swank, of this place, are in attendance at the grand lodge of Masons in Portland this week.

Refreshing showers here during the last week.

Richard Buffon's family, consisting of a wife and three children, arrived here from Kansas, Saturday, and Dick is now happy, and may be seen making boots with a more contented look than he formerly had.

Come to Brownsville to celebrate. The committee will complete program to-night, and we expect to have a big time and make everybody feel good on that day.

This would be a good place for some one to start a brick yard. As it is now we have no brick in the place, and many use terra cotta for that reason. Charley Howe sent to Eugene for brick and they cost him about $17 a thousand. Many would be used if they could be gotten here or near here.

The down train of this division of the Southern Pacific R. R., on Saturday morning, we are told, run into an open switch, near the Santiam. No one was hurt. Damage nominal. Some one was a little careless.

A MYSTERIOUS POWER.

Electricity—A Wonderful Remedy for the Present Age—Dr. Darrin Continues to Astonish the People With Electric Cures.

Electro-Magnetism, the wonder of the age, and the mode of treatment is the acme of perfection. It penetrates the secret ambush of diseases and exterminates it, root and branch, for ever. It removes more agony and relief suffering than tongue can tell. It cures the most hopeless cases and relieves acute pains that every known means have failed to cure, which can be substantiated by the evidence of thousands of persons who have been cured by Dr. Darrin, at 704 Washington st., Portland. The Doctor treats all curable chronic, acute and private diseases. Examination free from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m., daily. Read the following:

Chronic Catarrh Cured.

Dr. Darrin. One year ago you treated me for catarrh in the head and throat. Your Electric and Medical treatment permanently cured me. I reside at 313 H street, Portland.

R. WETTERMARK.

Business Permanently Cured.

MACLEAY, Or., May 28, 1891.

Dr. Darrin: Dear Sir—You wish to know if my hearing is all right and if I am satisfied with the treatment I received. I will answer by this that I can hear just as well now as I could directly after you operated on me and that I think it a real cure.
