

VAUGHAN ALWAYS IN IT.—It is a rare thing that a month passes without the well known Hank Vaughan, of Umatilla county, figuring in some pugilistic affair. Here is another from the Pendleton E. C.:

Catcher Twineham of the Pendleton baseball team, and E. W. Bartlett, the well-known young attorney of La Grande got themselves in rather a pretty pickle Monday by an eventful ride on the reservation. They left town somewhat exhilarated, and were accused of a few excesses while on the government domain. One accusation is that they drew a pistol on an Indian, another that they carried liquor on the reservation, and a third that they entered without permission the house of W. J. King and took certain liberties. All of these the young men deny. King came to town Monday evening and caused their arrest, the trouble leading to an interchange of blows in a saloon between Hank Vaughan, to whom King told his story and Twineham. This morning Messrs Twineham and Vaughan patched up their little difference, together with the few slight scratches they received, and became friends.

FAIR WARNING.

Sheriff Scott Does Not Want the World, but he Must Have the Delinquent Taxes.

Sheriff Scott proposes to make it warm for delinquent tax payers unless they settle at once. The following notice has been published several weeks; but it does not work as effectively as it should:

By order of the County Court I directed to force the collection of all taxes standing unpaid on the assessment rolls of this county. If such taxes are not paid immediately I shall proceed to levy upon and sell the property of delinquents to make collection. I mean business.

M. SCOTT, Sheriff of Lincoln county

Now he proposes to enforce the collection of all unpaid taxes, which, though not the pleasantest business in the world, must be done. Delinquents should come to time and pay up, thereby avoiding legal proceedings, as provided by the laws of Oregon. This is positively the last call. Look out for the explosion of the bomb.

NOTICE, TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT sealed bids will be received at the office of the county clerk of Lincoln county, Oregon, up to 12 o'clock, noon, Wednesday, the 8th day of July, 1891, for the keeping of the county poor, for the term of one year from the 1st day of August, 1891.

All bids to be approved or rejected by the county court. N. P. PAYNE, Clerk.

A SCROFULOUS BOY

Showing Sore Covered His Body and Head. Home Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When this little boy, the 1st of his kind, was afflicted with scrofula, his body and head were covered with sores. He was a fine, healthy boy, but the disease was so bad that he was almost blind. He was taken to the hospital, but the doctors could do nothing for him. He was then taken home, and his mother, who was a Quaker, began to use Cuticura. She used it on his body and head, and in a few days the sores began to heal. In a few more days he was able to see, and in a few more days he was able to walk. He is now a healthy, happy boy, and his mother is very grateful to Cuticura.

My grandson remains perfectly well. No more scrofula and no more sores. Mrs. E. S. DILLON, Feb. 7, 1890. Bloomington, Ind.

"August Flower"

The Hon. J. W. Fennimore is the Sheriff of Kent Co., Del., and lives at Dover, the County Seat and Capital of the State. The sheriff is a gentleman fifty-nine years of age, and this is what he says: "I have used your August Flower for several years in my family and for my own use, and found it does me more good than any other remedy. I have been troubled with what I call Sick Headache. A pain comes in the back part of my head first, and then soon a general headache until I become sick and vomit. At times, too, I have a fullness after eating, a pressure after eating at the pit of the stomach, and sourness, when food seemed to rise up in my throat and mouth. When I feel this coming on if I take a little August Flower it relieves me, and is the best remedy I have ever taken for it. For this reason I take it and recommend it to others as a great remedy for Dyspepsia, &c."
