BASE BALL.—A live game of base ball was played Saturday evening between the L M R S's and the C B H W Y's, the latter playing as given in Saturday's Democrat, Marshal and Rennie consulting the battery for the former, and Walsh and Chamberlain for the latter. The L M R S's lead from the beginning, though the gap was gradually decreased towards the end of the game. The score was 20 to 16. In order to understand the actual situation of an umpire, the local editor of the DEMOCRAT performed the ceremonies for the occasion, and pens this from himself with both hands. The score by innings was as follows: The Youngs Williamettes were beaten at Lebanon Saturday, by a score of 27 to 8. They declare that it was due to the Lebanon boys unfairly playing some old Williamettes, and to the decisions of the umpire.

The DEMOCRAT is requested by the lawyers of Albany to say that they will play the court house gang after circuit court convenes, for $500 a side, and not a cent less, and they are requested to "put up or shut up."

A SERIOUS RUNAWAY.—Last Saturday Mr F M Rhinehart and W E Crawford, of Sheed, were coming to Albany in a dog cart, hauled by a very young and wild colt. The colt proved too much for the couple and became unmanageable, running away and throwing the occupants out. He was taken home, where he is slowly recovering from the effects of the accident.

BREVETS.

In the matter of educational facilities Albany ranks high. Our schools are good ones, and deserve the best support of our people.

Young people are obtaining considerable satisfaction in making "not enough" out of the word enough. It is done by transposing the letters so that they read, "one hug."

The next meeting of the Northwest Firemen's Association will be held in Victoria, B. C. September 27, 28 and 29. That is a long trip to make; $3000 in prizes will no doubt take several teams there. The tournament is becoming more Washington than Oregon.

The Silverton Appeal claims that a four legged chick was hatched near that place, but it did not live. That is almost equal to the two legged calf in Woodburn, only the latter lives.—Salem Journal. He is fortunate in having considerable company in Marion county.

The Albany papers are now kicking at the prices goods are sold for in Eugene, if Albany and Salem people want cheap and first-class goods, they can buy them of our mercantile.—Guard. This is false. Our remark was made that if 21 pounds of granulated sugar was sold there for $1, it is a bait, as Albany merchants buy as cheap and freight is lower. There is no kicking to it. It is simply a matter of interesting news.

An Astoria paper says: A prominent Union Pacific official, recently questioned regarding railroad intentions of his company as regards Astoria, said: "We have no present appropriation for that purpose; our present plans do not embrace building to Astoria, but if any other road starts to build down to you, you may be sure that the U P will get there first."

Sociable at Tangent.

The sociable given by Tangent grange on Friday, June 12th, was a grand success. Preparations were made to accommodate a good sized audience, and at the hour appointed the house was well filled. Exercises commenced with a song by the choir, followed by music by the orchestra, composed of F M Sharp, violin, H Jackson, banjo, Ed Williams, cornet, W M McCoon, tambourine, with W L Sharp at the organ. A program of considerable length had been prepared. R L Smith read an address of welcome, recitations by Dena Bridgefarmer, Maggie McKeeken, G W Kiethe, Lella Scott, Ollie and Elbert Thompson, were listened to with much interest and were recited with much credit to themselves. A solo by Charles and Katie Howard, with Miss Bryan at the organ, was excellent; also a solo by Ed Williams and Tricie Morgan was fine. A comic song was sung by Ed Williams, which showed he had considerable literary talent. After the program was exhausted the sale of the ladies baskets took place, they numbering 29. J J Beard was auctioneer, and every one knows he is good at that kind of business. He created an immense amount of fun, and made good sales. The price of baskets run from 50 cents to $4; total for the whole lot, $53.60. Everything passed off nicely and all were well pleased. Good order was maintained throughout the evening, and the bidding on the baskets was spirited, as some of the boys hated to let the other fellows get his girl's basket. One had to give up and let another take his sweetheart, but he succeeded in making a purchase afterwards and had a good looking partner, if it was not his first choice. A cake was voted to the best looking lady present, Miss Maude Beard being the winner. The pie was captured by Mr J J Beard, as the homeliest man, but I think that was a mistake. Many others claimed that honor, and were expecting to get the pie; but alas we are sometimes subject to disappointment. The sociable was a grand success socially as well as otherwise. H.
